IRONWOOD ARTIFACTS EXHIBIT JANUARY 10—FEBRUARY 27, 2026

An exhibit of industrial artifact assemblages by Joseph Hensel

Joseph Hensel has spent decades salvaging old patterns, parts, tools and machinery from local steel mills, coal mines, power plants and industrial facilities that he called on. He turns these items into art—tables, lights, clocks, designs to hang on walls—all evoking images of the past and paying tribute to those industries. He also creates pieces from documents obtained from Bethlehem Steel Corp. and U.S. Steel. All the pieces celebrate the accomplishments of Americans by preserving the tangible remnants of the great industrial past, and making them available for the future.

ALVIN E. JUST EXHIBIT

MARCH 7—APRIL 24, 2026

AN EXHIBIT OF OIL PAINTINGS BY THE LATE ALVIN E. JUST

Born and raised in Johnstown, the late Al Just was a prominent figure in the local arts culture for many years. He was a certified Bob Ross instructor in his painting career, and taught many classes at the Community Arts Center, as well as his own studio and other local businesses. This exhibit features the culmination of much of his life's work, including many landscapes, portraits, and other paintings.

MELTED WAX ENCAUSTIC PAINTING

Encaustic painting is an ancient Egyptian form of painting with melted wax, a medium that dates back centuries. Try your hand at this ancient artform and create anything that your imagination desires. Relax while creating free flowing designs, and let the warm wax guide you through your work. Experiment with paper, old jewelry, glass anything you can think of! Encaustic means “burned in” so anything that you are using needs to be warm, including the substrate, wax and tools. Once a pattern is done, fuse it all together with a heat gun. If you want to add more color rehear the work and then add the new item and heat again to fuse it all together.

All 4 Classes: M: $45 NM: $50 ★ & UP

Individual Class: M: $13 NM: $15

Instructor: Lida Hood (Ages 5-7) Class Limit: 10

Each week students will listen to a story, "play" with different art supplies, learn techniques, and end up with a finished art project to take home. Come join the fun for four weeks or join us when you can.

● Week 1—Mixed Media Snowman: Use tempera paint to create a happy background for your snowman, then jazz him (or her) up by using yarn, buttons, glitter, and...even feathers? Listen to the book "Snowballs" by Lois Ehlert.

● Week 2—Painted Fishies: Listen to the book "Hurray For Fish!" by Lucy Cousins, then paint colorful, wacky fish on an 8x10" canvas.

● Week 3—Recycled Robots: Paint with foam rollers & "construct" a robot from recycled items. Listen to the book "Robot Beep" by Jeffrey Burton. We'll have a blast making art from "trash"!

● Week 4—Monster Buddies: Listen to the book "Monsters Love School" by Mike Austin. Then draw silly, scary or happy monsters & paint them with liquid watercolors.

SATURDAY JANUARY 31

10:00 AM—1:00 PM

FEBRUARY 6 & 7 ..... 7:00 PM

The Vagina Monologues is an episodic play by Eve Ensler, based on interviews with over 200 women, that explores women's sexuality, experiences, and the shame surrounding their bodies. It is a celebration of female sexuality and a condemnation of violence against women, with some monologues focusing on abuse, rape, and pain, while others are joyful accounts of pleasure and self-discovery. The play launched the global V-Day movement to end violence against women and girls.

MAY 17 ..... 2:00 PM

An homage to the Pink Panther films by local playwright Doyle Yernaux, the story focuses on French inspector Peter Arkin, an incompetent but well-meaning man who is tasked with finding a missing jewel known as the Blue Fox as well as the culprit who murdered for it. Following a series of clumsy interrogations, adulterous scandals, and encounters with his long-suffering co-workers, Arkin soon makes his way to a hotel casino where he believes the thief and murderer are both going to be revealed. Will he retrieve the jewel and the suspect, or will an old foe make an even bigger fool out of him once more?

AUGUST 13, 14 & 15 .. 7:00 PM

AUGUST 16 ..... 2:00 PM

This historical fiction play by local playwright Dr. Aspen Mock imagines the mystique and courtly drama surrounding the creation of the world's first authentic ballet, Ballet Comique de la Reine, in the court of Catherine de Medici, Queen of France, circa late 1500's. Queen Catherine de Medici, in the wake of being falsely accused of instigating the St. Bartholomew's Day Massacre, seeks to create a positive legacy for her name through a massive artistic project such the world has never witnessed before. The real instigator of the massacre, Guise, haunts the ballet and has sinister plans for opening night. Aided by a musician from Italy and her otherworldly confidant Nostradamus, Catherine de Medici navigates through the world of Renaissance political intrigue to attempt to show her masterpiece to the world, while saving her country.

CLAUSABLANCA

Presented by Musical Mysteries & More

In a small cabaret in German-occupied France right before Christmas, someone will end up murdered. WHO DID IT? One man dares to crack the case—Nick Fearlessness. Nick doesn't know the meaning of the word "fear." He doesn't know the meaning of the word "quit." Nor does he know the meaning of hundreds of other commonly used words. But in a time when the world needs heroes, he may just be the only hope we have.
