June 9 ..... 2:00 PM

Directed by Lance Mekeel

THE NERD: Now an aspiring young architect in Terre Haute, Indiana, Willum Cubbert has often told his friends about the debt he owes to Rick Steadman, a fellow ex-GI whom he has never met but who saved his life after he was seriously wounded in Vietnam. He has written to Rick to say that, as long as he is alive, "you will have somebody on Earth who will do anything for you" —so Willum is delighted when Rick shows up unexpectedly at his apartment on the night of his thirty-fourth birthday party. But his delight soon fades as it becomes apparent that Rick is a hopeless "nerd" —a bumbling oaf with no social sense, little intelligence and less tact. One uproarious incident after another, leads the normally placid Willum to contemplate violence.

THE MERCHANT OF VENICE

October 18 & 19 ..... 7:00 PM
October 20 ..... 2:00 PM

Presented in partnership with
Off Pitt Street Theater Company

THE MERCHANT OF VENICE: Shakespeare's classically known play, a comedic tragedy that is not only controversial, but forces actors and audiences to take a deeper look at their own moral compass and question if the play's antagonist, Shylock, is the villain or the victim. Love, greed, revenge, and prejudice are all present; however, the play reveals that love is more important than money, that mercy is better than revenge, and that love lasts forever. In the end, cynical voices caution that money rules the world, that mercy alone cannot run people's lives, and that love can disappear after marriage. "Merchant of Venice" will intrigue those from all walks of life.
