

"As project lead with over 15 years of experience managing diverse teams; I interacted with Tara on a wide range of projects. As an art director / creative team member, Tara is extremely skilled, resourceful, and creative. She is a pleasure in meetings and on set and a likeable employee by clients & team members alike. Her dedication to achieving brand goals in a fast-paced, often-stressful environment, is one of her strengths. She remains cheerful and caring about others around her regardless of what is on her own plate and is always respectful of others ideas, and takes criticism well. As an excellent listener she takes direction well and executes creative concepts in a timely manner while ensuring that quality and attention to detail are never sacrificed. It is my pleasure to recommend Tara as she is an asset on any team regardless of her role."

-Helene DeLillo

Digital content creator, photographer and storyteller

“I was incredibly lucky to work with Tara during her student internship with us. Tara was suggested by one of her professors as an excellent candidate for our Research and Script Writing Internship for our living-history cemetery tours. Tara’s experience in a wide variety of media made her the perfect fit. Her careful and thorough research on our featured historical figures allowed her to develop remarkably impressive scripts that were authentic as well as entertaining. Tara was an invaluable member of our tour team and went above and beyond to help our small non-profit organization.”

-Kali Fantakis

Manager of Pine Hill Cemetery

"As a producer, I have been fortunate to bring Tara onto several shoots. I absolutely love working with Tara on set. She brings her creativity and positive energy along with an incredible dedication to making the production as good as it can be. Every time I introduce her to a new director, they always remark to me how impressed they are with her professionalism, imagination, and her charming personality."

- Michael Sokol

Line producer | UPM | Writer