

JoAnn Pippin

JoAnn Pippin has been painting in watercolor since she retired from an electronic publishing career in 1992, and teaching watercolor in the High Country since 2011. Primary art studies were at the Art League School in Alexandria, VA.

She is a Signature Member of the Southern Watercolor Society and the Watercolor Society of NC. Her passion is to explore different watercolor techniques, using natural and still life subjects.

Her works have been accepted to juried art shows in her current home state of North Carolina, as well as other southern states and New Hampshire. Since she began showing her work in late 1990s, she has researched and followed current trends for photographing artwork, and also using those photos for products related to her art.
