Likewise it's not viable for us to provide the sun with light, the supreme cannot be shown or told, same way one cannot judge and describe that vibrant energy which is presented to us in the form of Guru. Knowing this fact, still for the encouragement and upliftment of the disciples, we are presenting a brief background of our beloved Guru

Sadgurudev Dr. Shri Taramani Bhai Ji.

Sadgurudev Dr. Shri Taramani Bhai Ji's worldly name is Dr. Money Dhasmana, who belongs to a small divine village "Pauri Garhwal, Uttrakhand, India ". This divine soul was born at a place called

Moradabad,

Uttar Pradesh in a Brahmin family. The ancestors of this family are well known as Bhairava and Maa kali devotees from generations and have been doing immense work in the field of tantra. Belonging to this lineage, our Sadgurudev has been practicing and guiding others in areas related to meditation(sadhana), mantra, tantra etc.

Sadgurudev Ji's father was posted as a district program officer in govt. sector. Along with this worldly job, his father was also a regular practitioner and acquirer of tantra and other sidhi's. His grandfather, a famous tantra expert was known all over the state of Uttarakhand. Bhagwan Bhairava and Maa Kaali were deeply pleased with him. With such divine gifts, he helped many people and was often addressed as a saint.

There is a very famous story related to Sadgurudev's grandfather, that once to judge his authenticity, one of his own mates threw a pomegranate towards him and sarcastically said, " If you are such a big scholar, Just tell me how many seeds are in this fruit ". That fruit was immediately thrown back as soon as it was caught with a reply count of not only

how many seeds were in them but up to the point of how many raw and ripe seeds were there. Such is the glory of tantra for the one who knows its actual use.

Sadgurudev Ji is such a valuable asset for us in today's times where world is densely populated with treachery and betrayal in spiritual arena, apps as such facebook and YouTube are full of mantra, tantra & sidhi distribution. On one hand, Shiva in his private conversation with Devi Parvati said, "O Goddess, this knowledge is very secret, keep it hidden like you hide your private body parts". But in present times this divine knowledge is being falsely displayed by many corrupt and shameless sinners who are in race to establish their pseudoimportance on the Internet and are completely destroying the very essence of such divine practices, whereas our Sadgurudev Dr. Shri Taramani Bhai Ji is going very strenuously on one to one basis with the seekers of this secret knowledge and doing very powerful initiations thus resulting in awakening of seekers dormant energies.

Sadgurudev Ji's divine attributes were visible from the childhood where he spent his days as a silent goer, usually walking far behind his mates engrossed in deep thoughts with stares at the unknown, aloof with what's happening in the surrounding environment. Complaints from teachers and classmates to his father had become a routine regarding his being alone wanderer state and non communication with others, but this behavior of his was perfectly understood by his father as the father himself was spiritually accomplished and to be in silence was his nature too.

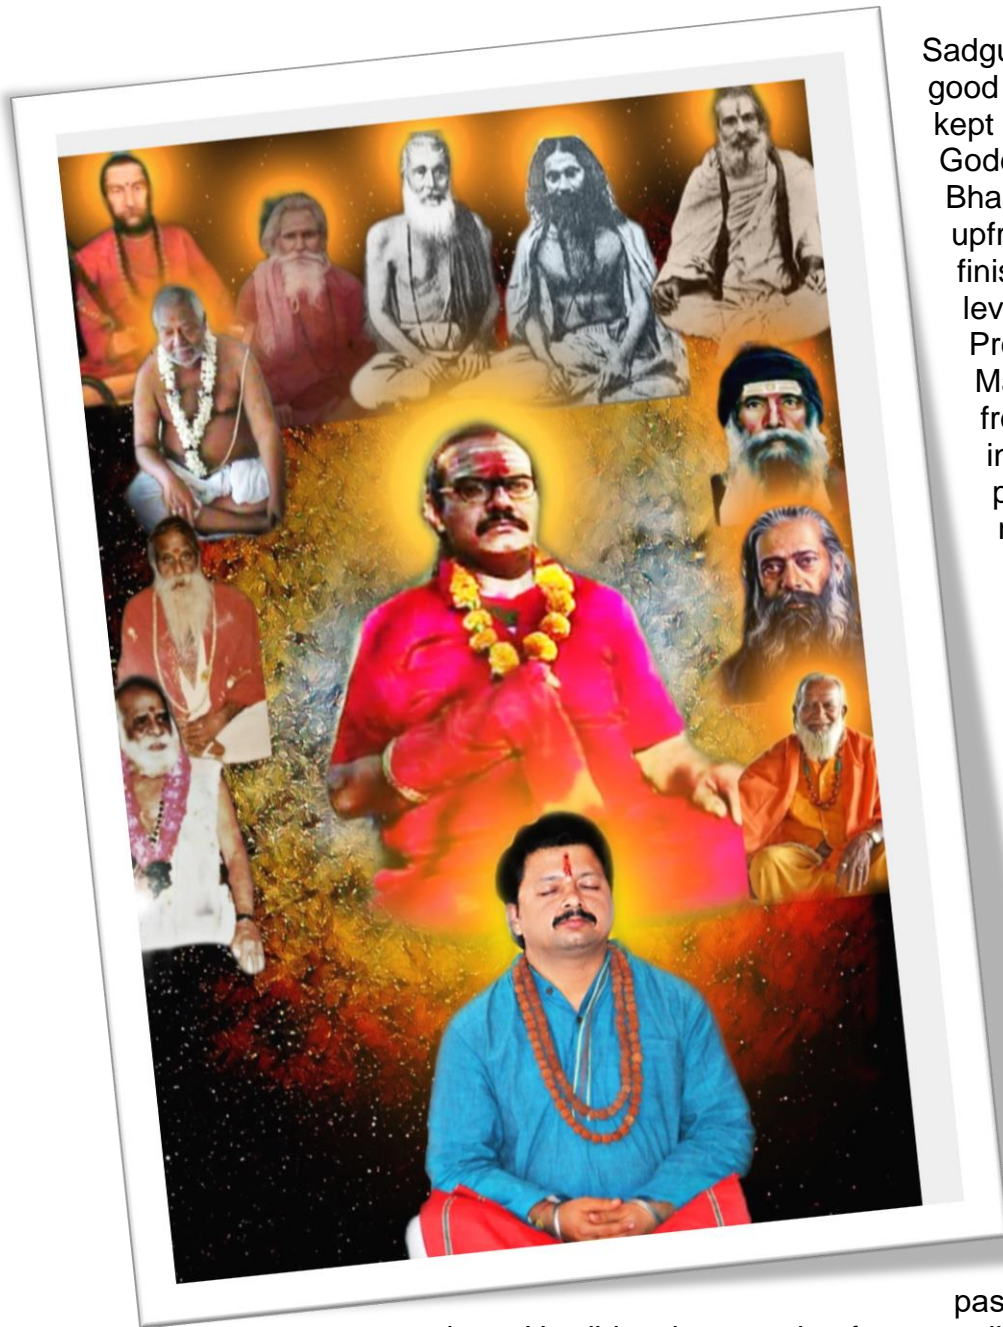

Likewise only a knower can judge the efficacy of a tree by looking at the potency of the seed, the unknown one will simply tend to throw it, this same difference came between Sadgurudev as a knower and others as throwers with regards to life events. His spiritual journey started when in 8th standard; he randomly came across old books of tantra and astrology belonging to his ancestors. He drank all the divine nectar that his wisdom understood at that young age and slowly the fire in him arose to higher dimensions opening doors within and thus jumpstarted his inward journey. Gradually he studied and mastered all rare astrological texts from Bhrghu sanhita, Surya Sidhant, Laghu Prashari, Jatak Parijat, Brhajatkam, Nadi Jyotish, Keral Jyotish, Jyotish Ratnagr, Bhawan Bhaskar, Mahurat Chintamani, Numerology, Ramal, Prashan Kundali, Hora, Samudr Shastra, Phaldeepika etc

Sadgurudev Ji started worshipping Goddess Gyatri at a very young age and along with it also practiced different techniques of meditation due to which he experienced many episodes of divine phenomenon. Effortlessly knowing what's in someone's mind, describing an event before its occurrence, hypnotizing someone far away, feeling blissful in the presence of souls from other dimensions, signs of no fear were a peck in the dust for him. Along with his studies he engrossed himself in his practices as well, so subtle he was that no one from outside could apprehend his inner state and this he has maintained till date.

According to Sadgurudev, to be in silence is the most powerful attribute/quality of a practitioner

With age and time Sadgurudev Ji faced many good and bad instances but kept his practices of Goddess Gyatri and Bhagwan Bharaiva on upfront, along with it he also finished his MBA, O level, A level Computer Diploma, Programming & Digital Marketing Diploma. Apart from this he wandered off in search of right practices to various mountains, forests, ashrams, saints, cemeteries, Bhairava Gadi, Bhairav Takeri, river side's, Badrinath, Kedarnath, Gangotri Gomukh, Kamakhya-Gauhati, Tarapeeth - Rampurhat, Bengal, Kaal Bharaiva riverside in Ujjain, Dewas, Haridwar, Rishikesh, Dharamshala - Mcleodganj, Nainital, Mount Abu etc; visited all known and unknown caves having an audience with his past life Guru's for various practices. He did a deep study of many religious and non religious texts like Vedas, Upanishads, Darshan shastras, psychology, Kuran, Bible etc. plucking out the deciphering mysteries because this journey demands evaluating everything along the way. Many such meditational practices are not openly available now.

Sadgurudev Ji had the opportunity of being in company of many guru's, most of which were fakes and evil and had no alignment with the divine, but also there were few enlightened ones living hidden well within the society, not expressing their powers to anyone, among these were men from many areas - Sufi sect guru's who always remained in meditative states, Jain Guru's, Guru's from Buddha lineage, Guru's from Aghor Marg, Kapali Guru's, Kaul Margi Guru's, Sulemani Tantra Expert Guru's etc.

Once as Sadgurudev Ji while wandering in search of more such divine beings, came across an enlightened Sufi Saint in a small city called Burhanpur. There was a huge crowd surrounding that Saint. As Sadgurudev Ji made his presence shown to the Saint, the Saint garlanded our Guru Ji with a yellow mala. Guru Ji bestowed with such respect at first instance tried to take off the mala to let the saint know that there has been a mistake, but the Saint stopped him and said, "O lord, as you have blessed me with your presence, my many lives of prayers have been fulfilled". Sadgurudev Ji told us that what the Saint had seen in Him, common people like us cannot even perceive and so to show his respect he insisted Guru Ji to wear the mala.

The way a knower knows how to extract charcoal from charcoal and diamond from diamond, same way our Sadgurudev

Ji juiced the good from the good ones and left out the bad from the bad ones and moved forward along his journey. To ease out the monetary expenses and not be dependent on others, Sadgurudev Ji did some jobs in Danik Jagran, New Delhi Press, Times of India group, Next Gen - Indian edition of this U.K magazine and many such Media houses of Delhi city but use to resign from them abruptly for his spiritual practices and search of divine beings. Since childhood he had a keen interest in various texts, philosophical as well as psychological. Sadgurudev lived a multi facet, multi dimensional life from the life of mediatory, practitioner of mysterious techniques, wanderer, a silent walker, a life of begging for alms on the road as a part of his practices to a life of a common man doing a job in public sector.

Sadgurudev ji often mention one thing again and again, that is “Complete surrender is the only key” - himself abiding by this statement Sadgurudev Ji often took verbal abuses, sarcasm, intense criticism , even hitting, all very calmly, burning himself in that divine fire leaving family and home aside, engrossed deeply , all connection lost from the outside world. He never indulge in process of proving the outside falsehood instead he believed that more outside hurt often opens an inward doorway and the disciple has a chance to start his inward journey, and teaches us this zenith statement - “Bliss in Pain”

Sadgurudev Ji meditated on a single go for 10 to 15 hours, once he sat he rarely got up, no food, no water for days was needed, only thirst was to search the self, the divine itself.

In tantra practices performed in cemetery which included six act(Peace, Kill, Hypnotize, Annihilation, Learning, Suppression, Betal Sadhana, Varah, Peer, Jinn, Bhoot, Pret, Yaksh, Aspsra, Hanuman, Visnu, Baglamukhi, Kaali, Tara, Chinmasta, Dhoomavati, Kmla – Guru Ji attained them all, especially all the forms of Bhagwan Bhairava - Shamshan Bhairava, Krod Bhairava, Batul Bhairava, Swarnakarshan Bhairava and few forms of Bhairava that are not required to spoken off else these forms can create immediate disaster, these were blessed to his ancestors. Recently, Sadgurudev Ji is blessing us with Pinaki Siddhi which will prove to be boon for this era and its reform.

The story behind Guruji's name(Taramani)?

Like the mysterious Bhagwan Bhairav, name of our Sadgurudev Ji is no less a mystery. In initial days Sadgurudev Ji preferred the name Money Bhai Ji, his intentions behind this was never to be such a guru who keeps a distant for his disciples, but to walk along with them, a bond of brotherly love was more important. Upon receiving the blessings of Bhargwan Bhairava and to complete rest of his journey for the growth of the seekers, he was called upon as “Shri Taramani” by the Lord Himself and such a coincidence happened that during that same night, he was called as “How are you Shri Taramani Bhai Ji” from a worshipper of Tara Devi.

The night of Sadgurudev Ji's enlightenment

One fortunate night, Sadgurudev Ji while meditating at his usual place, a secret forest near the village of Pauri Gahrwal, Uttra Khand, his life force which pervaded in him from many lives came to an end and immersed him completely into the divine. All mysteries were solved, all answers were given, all thirst vanquished, thus the journey ended. Upon attaining this state, an echo was heard across the jungle, “aham Brahmasmi”. His first words were, “All has stopped and now I flow”. For his 15 years of strenuous efforts being made in the field of awareness against the evils pervading regarding spiritual practices, against all taboos and hypocrisy, Sadgurudev Ji was honored with “Doctorate of Spiritualism” form University of Peace.

After this, His journey now embarks towards creating passionate and dedicated disciples and to train them; “Shri kaal Bhairav Ashram” has been constructed in the deep jungles of Lucknow city in Uttar Pradesh, India which is under his private ownership. Here, entry requires permission from Sadgurudev Ji, and it's because the motive behind this place is to grow and store the life force energy of the disciples and care has been taken that this energy is not disturbed or lost due to outside touch.
