

This is Aenon

Since 1941, Aenon Bible College has been the official ministerial training and leadership center of the Pentecostal Assemblies of the World. Founded in Columbus, Ohio by the late Bishop Karl F. Smith, Aenon has faithfully equipped Apostolic Pentecostal ministers and leaders across the U.S. and around the world for over eight decades.

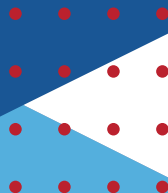

Rooted in our rich heritage and anointed by the Holy Spirit, Aenon's mission is clear: to provide systematic, faith-driven higher education that prepares ministers and leaders with the 21st-century skills they need to serve effectively and lead boldly.

Our experienced, credentialed, Holy Ghost-filled faculty and staff carry forward Aenon's legacy as the International Clearinghouse for Licensing and Ordination of Apostolic Pentecostal ministers — training men and women to lead with excellence and conviction, wherever God calls them.

Program Overview

The Ordination License

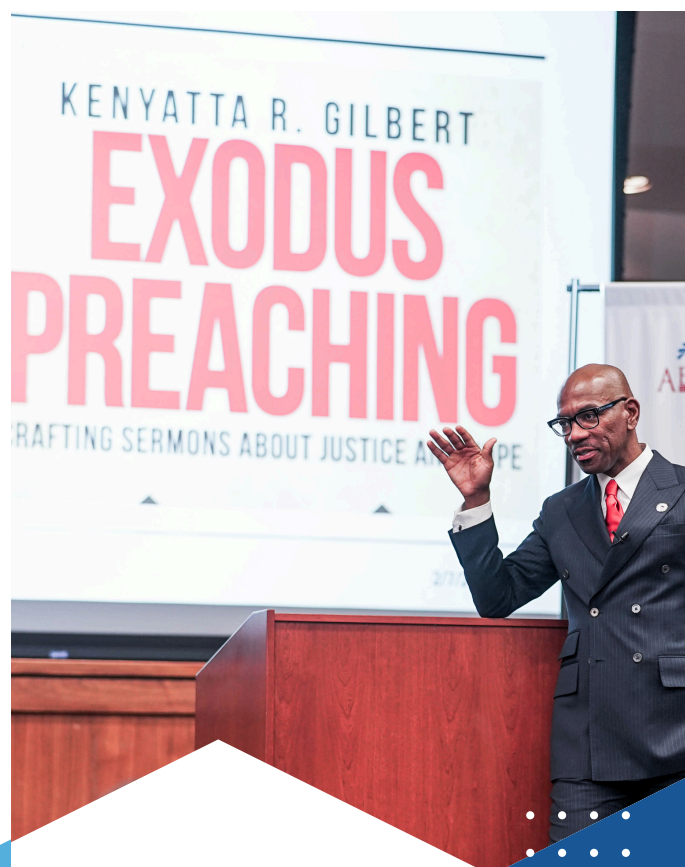

The Ordination License in ministry will enroll students who have successfully completed the Ministerial License curriculum and have the endorsement of church officials at the local and Diocesan levels.

The Ordination License concentrates on advanced levels of curriculum in ministry and is specifically designed for ministers who are seeking to become a pastor, evangelist, missionary, or be eligible for significant level of leadership, administration, supervision, or leadership within the Apostolic Pentecostal hierarchy.

The Ordination License also provides the opportunity for ministers to have a higher range of authority that involves, rites, consecrated services, and reflects a lifelong level of dedication to the ministry of the Lord.
