

Minister Certification

The Pentecostal Assemblies of the World (PAW) is a well-structured, doctrinally firm, and globally expanding organization. Its leadership, councils, and churches work together to uphold Apostolic doctrine, train ministers and spread the gospel worldwide. Requiring all local ministers in the PAW to adhere to the requirements outlined requirements, ensures doctrinal consistency, accountability, legal recognition, and leadership development while protecting the integrity of the organization. It also fosters spiritual growth, organizational unity, and proper ministerial preparation, ultimately strengthening the PAW's mission and effectiveness in ministry.

ALL ministers in the local church and affiliated councils of the PAW will seek a Minister Certification (formerly known as Followership Paper) to minister in the local church.
