

Teaching Opportunity for Aenon Bible College

Qualifications Overview

Aenon Bible College was founded in 1941 as the official educational and leadership training institution for the Pentecostal Assemblies of the World, Inc. Aenon Bible College has introduced a series of transformative ministerial training programs aimed at elevating and enhancing the maturation of ministers, teachers, pastors, and church leaders through a variety of innovative licensing programs. Specifically, Aenon Bible College is interested in hiring Clinical Faculty (Adjunct Teachers) to work in the satellite ministerial training program. We have created a national and international instructional delivery model and we are interested in hiring highly energetic, academically prepared, and seasoned bible scholars who desire to be a part of a dynamic and fast-growing Apostolic Pentecostal environment.
