TEAM NEWFOUNDLAND GYMNASTICS VAULTS OVER COMPETITION IN BRITISH COLUMBIA

Richmond, BC, May 31, 2022 – 14 gymnasts selected to represent Newfoundland & Labrador at the 2022 Canadian Championships came away with very impressive results this week – including a record setting 5 medals, making history for gymnastics in the province for the second year in a row. The 2022 edition of championships were held in Richmond, B.C. at the Olympic Oval from May 27 – 30th and included competitors from across the country. The NL gymnasts put in top-level performances that garnered best-ever results for our province:

On the Women's side – Megan, Kyla, Grace, Sarah, Rachel, Abigail, Jada, Chloe and Jane train at Cygnus Gymnastics Centre under Coaches Allison Kirby, Allison Dominic and Devonne Ryan while Jirah and Jillian train at Campia Gymnastics and are coached by Michele Soucy and Kyle Murphy. On the Men's side – Michael trains at Campia under the direction of Kyle Murphy while Gabe is at Cygnus and is instructed by Jill Hood. Both clubs and all coaches worked very hard in the lead up to these championships (the first live one in 2 years). These results are hard fought for while navigating policies and protocols to keep everyone safe and healthy.

Team NL also sent a record three officials to volunteer at the event – all judges were on the women's side of the competition. Helena Gorina, Renee Quick and Michael Amouri had the honour of judging the best in the country and performed their duties with precision and professionalism.

“Our gymnastics programming in Newfoundland & Labrador is second to none – we play at the same level as much larger provinces. These results are proof that we are small but mighty.” – Michael Amouri, Technical Director, Gymnastics Newfoundland & Labrador.
