

When looking for someone to train you to communicate with/train your dog, you need someone who has a way with people as well as a way with dogs. Lucky for us, right here in The Villages, we have such a guru--Tammy Smith. In addition to her understanding of dog behavior she also possesses the understanding and communication skills necessary to teach/train the most complicated and aggravating of animals to teach, the human being. Tammy has a bubbly, positive personality and communicates with congeniality, caring, confidence, and clarity. Always generous with her expertise, Tammy will answer any questions you might have regarding problems between you and your dog with one goal in mind, a happy human-dog bond. I highly recommend Tammy Smith to help you develop a better relationship with your dog.
