PREFACE

Y-DNA test results prove that my Patterson ancestors and the Patterson ancestors of Bob Patterson, for whom this paper is written, are not closely related, if at all. So how did I get interested in researching Bob's Pattersons?

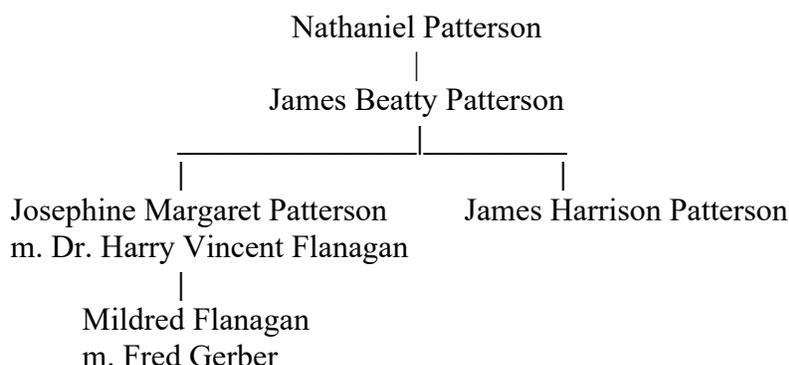

Well, back in 2006, via various on-line genealogy website message boards, I hooked up with a lady named Yvonne (Patterson) Watkin. We e-mailed back and forth for several years, trading information. She and I became good friends after we met in person in 2012. I wrote a long paper on Yvonne's oldest-known Patterson ancestor, "Archibald Patterson (c. 1735-1812/13) & His Descendants," and posted it on my website, www.pattersongenealogy.info.

A few years later I learned that the Y-DNA of Bob Patterson, to whom this paper is dedicated, was a 105 out of 111 markers match with Yvonne's brother. This got me interested in trying to help Yvonne and Bob figure out who their MRCA might be. So Bob and I began trading research findings. As of this writing we still do not know who the most recent common Patterson ancestor of Yvonne and Bob could be, but I thought it time to compile all that is presently known about Bob's ancestors.

Perhaps future generations can solve the mystery!

I recommend that readers of this paper take a look at another paper posted on my website: "Alexander Patterson b. 1760-1775 in Northern Ireland; d. 1 Jan 1825 in Philadelphia, PA & His Descendants." It is conjectured by several researchers that this Alexander is the father of Nathaniel who is the subject of this paper.

Many of the records cited in this paper were found on-line. However, the most important source of information about Nathaniel is a letter written in 1956 by Nathaniel's grandson, James "Jim" Harrison Patterson, to his niece Mildred Gerber. James Harrison Patterson (1884-1961) is son of James Beatty Patterson (1849-1921), son of Nathaniel. James Beatty Patterson also had daughter Josephine Margaret Patterson who married Dr. Harry Vincent Flanagan. Mildred Gerber was the daughter of Harry & Josephine Flanagan; Mildred married Fred Gerber. James Patterson who wrote the letter, and Mildred Gerber who received the letter, are related as follows:

This letter that Mildred received from her "Uncle Jim" came into the hands of Bob Patterson, who shared it with me. This source will be cited often in this paper, as "Mildred's Letter." In this letter to Mildred, Jim copied family information from "the old record book" in his possession. Take a look at this letter in Chapter III of this paper. Mildred began researching the family, and her findings, as well as information Mildred learned from other family members, are referred to in this paper as "Mildred's Notes." (Again, see Chapter III.) These "Mildred's Notes" were typed up by Bob Patterson, who shared them with me. Some information in "Mildred's Notes," was not contained in "Mildred's Letter," and the source of some of this additional information is not certain.

Bob Patterson has done a tremendous amount of research. He has made contact with several other proven descendants of Nathaniel, and with several researchers who descend from Alexander (Nathaniel's conjectured father). Bob traded much information with these persons over the years, and would like to thank them for their help and encouragement:

Nancy Miller
Jim Patterson
Sharon Turner
Emily Brown
Ruthie Nuhn
Richard Headrick
Leslie Headrick
Mildred Gerber
Emma Moss Patterson
Tim McCloskey

I've done very little original research on these Pattersons. In this paper I am merely compiling all the information Bob has gathered over the years, and which he has shared with me. All sources of information are cited in this paper so that, hopefully, future researchers of this Patterson line will not have to duplicate research already done; and so that they will question the copious amount of undocumented (and, in some cases, incorrect) information posted on various internet trees.

CHAPTER I
Alexander Patterson
Possible father of Nathaniel

We have several contradictory sources of information for Alexander's birth date and birth location (see below). However, the birthdate of 6 Feb 1760, given by his grandson, is most likely correct.

- (1) His death certificate (original viewable "Pennsylvania, Philadelphia Death Certificates" at familysearch.org) states that Alexander died 1 Jan 1825 of dropsy "about age fifty years" and was buried in the Alms House Burial Ground in Philadelphia. This record gives us a birth date of about 1775 for Alexander.
- (2) However, his name is engraved on a memorial stone in Laurel Hill Cemetery in Philadelphia (along with wife Mary, daughter Jane Brown and Jane's husband William Brown) with a birth date of 1760: "Alexander Patterson / 1760-1825." (Photo of this stone was posted on findagrave 7/16/15 by Mary Phalan.)
- (3) Alexander's grandson, Alexander Patterson Brown (son of Alexander's daughter Jane, who married William Brown) visited Scotland and Ireland in 1899, and sent a letter to Emily Norwood Brown stating that Alexander was born "4 miles from Dungannon, Co. Donegal, Ireland, Feb 6th, 1760, died at Philadelphia January 1st, 1825."
- (4) In a biographical sketch of Alexander Patterson Brown, published several years before he died, in Colonial Families of Philadelphia, John W. Jordan, ed. (New York: Lewis Publishers, 1911), Vol. 2, p. 1704, it is stated: "William Brown married Jane, born 1807, died 1871, daughter of Alexander Patterson, born at Poyntz-Pas [sic], county Armagh, Ireland, 1762...."
- (5) Alexander emigrated in 1818, arriving in Philadelphia with his family on 8 Dec 1818 (original passenger list of the ship "Charlotte Lawrence" viewable in "Philadelphia Passenger and Crew Lists 1800-1962" at ancestry.com). ¹ Alexander is listed on the 1820 census as living in Southwark, Philadelphia Co., PA age 26-45, so born 1775-1794.

We know with certainty that Alexander died 1825 in Philadelphia.

Many insufficiently documented internet trees list Nathaniel, the subject of the paper, as Alexander's son. But to date, in my opinion, no reliable records have been found proving that Nathaniel was Alexander's son. It's logical to assume that Nathaniel was Alexander's son, because a "Nathl." Patterson" is on the same 1818 passenger list of the brig "Charlotte Lawrence" as "Alexander Patterson." (See original passenger list in the next chapter of this paper.) However, this "Nathl." could have been some close relative of Alexander's. Brother? Cousin? Nephew? All persons of the surname Patterson start on this passenger list:

¹ This passenger list was transcribed and posted on the Irish Emigration Database (<http://www.dippam.ac.uk/ied/records/33641.transcript>) and future researchers should know that on this typed list the name of "Bert" has been incorrectly transcribed as "Be[njn?]" Patterson. The original passenger list (see the next chapter of this paper) was found in "Pennsylvania, Passenger and Crew Lists, 1800-1962" database at ancestry.com.

Also, see genetic test results in Chapter IV of this paper. Autosomal test results support the contention that Nathaniel was Alexander's son. However, "Mildred's Notes" in Chapter III in which it's stated that Nathaniel was the "only one of his family" to migrate."

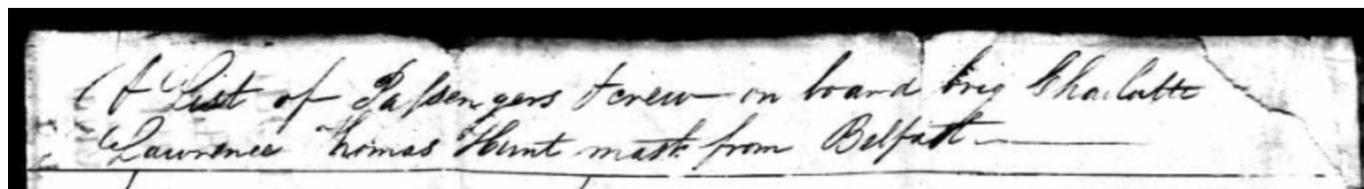

For all that is known with certainty about this Alexander Patterson who came to Philadelphia in 1818, and who died there in 1825, see my separate paper posted on this website: "Alexander Patterson, born 1760 in Northern Ireland, died 1825 in Philadelphia, PA and His Descendants."

CHAPTER II
NATHANIEL PATTERSON
& His Descendants

Nathaniel Patterson was born 1794-1795 in Ireland (1850 & 1860 censuses—see further). Per "Mildred's Letter" he was born in Co., Armagh, Ireland, but no documentation for this place of birth has been found.²

Nathaniel "was first previously married in Ireland to a young girl named Miss Beatty and there were no children born to this union."³

Nathaniel (along with 6 other Pattersons) is listed on the passenger list of the brig "Charlotte Lawrence," sailing from Belfast, Ireland and arriving in Philadelphia, PA on 6 Dec 1818. (Original passenger list viewable in "Pennsylvania, Passenger and Crew Lists, 1800-1962" database at ancestry.com.)

The arrival date of 6 December 1818 is not on the page above listing the passengers' names. This arrival date comes from the 7 Dec 1818 issue of The Evening Post [New York, NY]:

² As stated in the "Preface" of this paper, Mildred (Patterson) Gerber obtained information about her Patterson family in a 1956 letter from her uncle James Harrison Patterson (Nathaniel's grandson). Bob Patterson obtained a copy of this letter and sent it to me. See this letter in Chapter III of this paper.

³ This quote comes from "Mildred's Notes." (See these "Notes" in Chapter III of this paper.) It is not known what family member supplied the information about Nathaniel's first marriage. It is interesting that Nathaniel named a son James Beatty Patterson—but son James Beatty was definitely born of Nathaniel's second wife, Susan Garner. (See further in this chapter.) See censuses further in this chapter where Nathaniel is seen heading a household 1820, 1830 and 1840 in Armstrong Co., PA—and it does indeed appear that Nathaniel has "no children."

Bob sent this clipping to me in 2019

Per the above clipping, it took the brig "Charlotte Lawrence" 77 days to sail from Belfast to Philadelphia.

"Time out" for a tale of research gone awry:

Back in 2014, when I first began trading findings with Bob, I found some information about the "Charlotte Lawrence" that took me off-track for TWO YEARS. Below, see a record I found on which it is stated that the "Charlotte Lawrence" was built in 1817 in Belfast, Massachusetts.⁴ (Maine didn't become a state until 1820, formed from Massachusetts, so in 1817 the town of Belfast was indeed in the state of Massachusetts.)

Transcription of above:

"Report and Manifest of the Cargo, laden on board the Brig Charlotte Lawrence whereof Thomas Hunt is Master which Cargo was taken on board at Belfast burthen [blank] tons, built at Belfast in the State of Massachusetts and was owned by John [Hemphill?] Merchant at Philadelphia as per Register granted at Philad. the 26 day of Dec. 1817 and bound for Philadelphia."

Since the 1818 passenger list, on which Nathaniel was listed, contained only the information that the "Charlotte Lawrence" had sailed from "Belfast"; and since I was not at the time in possession of the newspaper clipping saying that it took the brig 77 days to get from Belfast to Philadelphia... Well, I thought it likely that the ship had sailed to Philadelphia from Belfast, Massachusetts—not Belfast, Ireland! And so for the next two years I researched the descendants of a Robert Patterson born abt. 1671 in Co. Donegal, Ireland, who settled by 1729 in Saco, Maine. And I was very excited to learn that this immigrant Robert had son Robert Jr. (c. 1713-1797) who had son Nathaniel [Sr.] (b. 1745 in Saco, ME; d. 1825 in Belfast, ME; m. Hannah "Jameson"). And this Nathaniel b. 1745 had a son Nathaniel Jr. (b. 1785).

At this point in my research, I knew that Alexander Patterson (conjectured father of the Nathaniel who concerns us here) married, for his second wife, Mary Jamison. The fact that the Nathaniel who concerns us here sailed in 1818 from "Belfast" to Philadelphia; and the above-cited Patterson-Jameson/Jamison connections; and the fact that a Nathaniel Patterson was found living early in Belfast, Maine... Well, all of these findings had me pretty much convinced that Bob's oldest proven ancestor, Nathaniel, was somehow closely related to the Robert Patterson who settled in Saco, Maine in 1729. So I began intensively researching these Maine Pattersons, and generated hundreds of pages of research. (I will eventually post a fully-documented paper on these Maine Pattersons on my website.) Anyway, I found eleven proven living male Patterson descendants of immigrant Robert of Saco, Maine, and sent letters to all of them, asking them to contact me. I got several of these Patterson men to participate in Y-DNA testing. And what did the results of this Y-DNA testing prove? The results proved that these Maine Pattersons were ⁴ Back in 2014 I found this image in the "Philadelphia, Passenger and Immigration Lists 1800-1850" database at ancestry.com. Confusingly, as of this writing, this same database now contains only INDEXED information—no original images.

NOT related to Bob's Pattersons! So, fellow researchers: beware of assumptions not supported by records and/or Y-DNA evidence!

Now, back to information about Nathaniel Patterson, Bob's ancestor:

From "Mildred's Notes":

"He [Nathaniel] was the only one of his family to migrate to ____." [This part of the page is unreadable—see Chapter III.]

Jim Patterson, with whom Bob corresponded and shared research findings, typed the following in his paper, "Nathaniel Patterson and Family" (which information I'm guessing was obtained from Mildred Gerber):

"Nathaniel was our initial immigrant from Ireland. Believed to have been married to a Ms. Beatty (no evidence yet found) prior to emigration. Believed 1st wife passed on with no children to the union. Traveled from Belfast Ire. Arriving at the Port of Phila. 8 [error: 6] Dec 1818 (Brig "Charlotte Lawrence") as per copy of ship manifest. Although there were other "Pattersons" on this voyage, it is believed that Nathaniel was the only one of his immediate family in this arrival group (though no evidence yet proves this out)."

The "Bert" Patterson on the above passenger list, listed after Nathaniel, is conjectured to be the son of Alexander (just as Nathaniel is conjectured to be Alexander's son). Mary Patterson Ingebretsen, proven descendant of this Robert ("Bert") Patterson, wrote in a query published in the July/Aug 1985 issue of The Highlander (clipping sent to me by Bob) that Robert "came from Ulster...leaving father and step-mother, perhaps siblings. Settled in Philadelphia."

The three quotes above are a major reason why I'm not yet convinced that the Nathaniel who is the subject of this paper was actually the son of Alexander listed on the same passenger list as Nathaniel. I think it likely that Nathaniel was related to Alexander—but possibly was not his son.

On the other hand, per "Mildred's Notes," Nathaniel had a son named Alexander who "died young." (No birth or death date given.) Per the Scotch-Irish naming pattern, the first son was named after the father's father—so IF this son Alexander were Nathaniel's first-born son, this could support the contention that Nathaniel was the son of Alexander with whom he was listed on the 1818 passenger list.

Continuing with excerpts from "Mildred's Notes":

"How he arrived in Clarion [sic] County, Penna. needs developed. Not much is known."
and

"In Clarion County a tale is told that Grandfather Nate [grandfather of James Harrison Patterson, who wrote a letter to Mildred] outsmarted the darn British by hiding his carpentry tools in the ship's ballast when he was entout [en route] to America. The Limies [Limeys] had a law prohibiting mechanics from leaving the British Isles."

Note: No records have been found to date for Nathaniel in Clarion County. It should be noted that Clarion County was formed 1839 from parts of Venango and Armstrong Counties. So perhaps descendants living in the part of Armstrong County that became Clarion County gave this information to Mildred, citing (incorrectly) that Nathaniel came first to Clarion County.

Nathaniel appeared in the Armstrong Co., PA Court of Common Pleas on 19 Dec 1820 and petitioned to become a U.S. citizen. (Original declaration of intent papers sent to me 10/27/14 by Bob Patterson.) On 20 Sept 1825 Nathaniel Patterson, a "native of Ireland," was granted citizenship. Original document sent to me 10/27/14 by Bob:

The Nathaniel Paterson who concerns us here is first found on Federal censuses in 1820. He is listed in Armstrong Co., PA as head of household on the 1820 census, and there are no children in his household:

1820 Sugarcreek Twp., Armstrong Co., PA (p. 5 of 7)

Nathaniel Patterson

1 male 26-45 [1775-1794]

1 fem 26-45 [1775-1794] Nathaniel's first wife "Miss Beatty," with whom he had "no children"? ("Mildred's Notes")

1830 Sugarcreek Twp., Armstrong Co., PA (p. 19 of 24)

Nathaniel Patterson

1 male 40-50 [1780-1790]

1 fem 40-50 [1780-1790] Nathaniel's first wife, "Miss Beatty," with whom he had "no children"? ("Mildred's Notes")

Note: Franklin Twp. was created soon after the 1830 census, from part of Sugar Creek and Buffalo townships. It is probable that Nathaniel did not move between the 1830 and 1840 censuses.

1840 Franklin Twp., Armstrong Co., PA (p. 7 of 22)

Nathaniel Patterson

1 male 50-60 [1780-1790]

1 male 15-20 [1820-1825] Unidentified—perhaps farm laborer

1 male 20-30 [1810-1820] Unidentified—perhaps farm laborer

1 fem 10-15 [1825-1830] Unidentified

1 fem 50-60 [1780-1790] (Nathaniel's first wife, "Miss Beatty" with whom he had "no children"? ("Mildred's Notes"))

Nathaniel's presumed wife on the above censuses, conjectured to be the "Miss Beatty" referred to in "Mildred's Notes," was born 1780-1790, probably in Ireland, and she died sometime between the 1840 census and 1843—when Nathaniel married again. (See further.) Supporting the contention that Nathaniel's wife was the "Miss Beatty" named in "Mildred's Notes" is the fact that a John Beatty was one of the earliest settlers in Sugarcreek [Sugar Creek] Twp., Armstrong Co., PA, where Nathaniel headed a household in 1820. From History of Armstrong County, Pennsylvania by Robert Walter Smith, Esq. (Chicago: Waterman, Watkins & Co., 1883), in the section of this book about Perry Township:

(p. 571): "Perry Township was formerly a part of Sugar Creek. In 1845 it was organized as Perry...."

(p. 573): "John Beatty and Daniel Revere were among the earliest settlers of this township, and resided here until their deaths."

John "Beatty" is listed as listed as head of household on the 1820 census of "Sugarcreek" township in Armstrong Co., PA where Nathaniel was living in 1820. Unfortunately, this census has been alphabetized, so we can't determine how close Nathaniel's and John Beatty's households were to each other. There were only about 200 households in Sugarcreek at the time of the 1820 census. It is interesting to note that Nathaniel named a son "James Beatty Patterson"—see further.

Note: Listed on findagrave.com is Barbara Patterson who died 1842, and who was buried in Simpson Cemetery, Cowansville, Armstrong Co., PA. I originally thought that this Barbara Patterson was the female listed with Nathaniel on the 1820, 1830 & 1840 censuses above. Why? Because she is listed as born 1791 (about the right age to be the female listed with Andrew on censuses 1820-1840); and she died 1842. HOWEVER: in 2016 Bob received an email from Sharon Turner which said that "At the Kittaning [Kitanning] historical society library in the Templeton family genealogy book we found that Barbara Templeton Patterson was married to Andrew [emphasis mine] Patterson. They had 7 children. She died 1842 and Andrew died in 1852." Strange that no "Andrew" Patterson, said to be Barbara's husband, is currently listed on findagrave.com in this cemetery. The only other Pattersons currently listed, besides Barbara, is Mary Patterson (1845-1849) and [probably in error] Nathaniel! Regarding this current listing of Nathaniel in Simpson Cemetery, he was listed in this cemetery 4/21/16 by Leslie Headrick. He was originally listed here as born 1795 in Ramelton, Co. Donegal, Ireland. On 1/1/19 I sent a message to Leslie via the findagrave message service and asked her where this birthplace info came from. Leslie immediately replied:

"I did not create the original memorial. I contacted someone about transferring it. They told me that burial records show he was buried here but we believe he was actually buried in Allio cemetery before his wife Susan as he had purchased land 2-3 miles from there. It looks like her name was carved above Nathaniel's name but there are no burial records for Nathaniel. I have left the memorial as is until we can verify for sure where he is. The person who created the memorial was supposed to have sent me a copy of the burial records from which they created the memorial but that didn't happen."

Leslie kept Nathaniel's findagrave.com listing in Simpson Cemetery but, bless her, immediately removed the undocumented info that he was born in Ramelton, Co., Donegal.

On 25 May 1843, Nathaniel married the much-younger Susan Garner (not "Carney") (marriage date in "Mildred's Letter"), and Susan was the mother of all his children. Concerning the maiden name of Nathaniel's wife Susan: "Mildred's Letter" incorrectly lists his wife as Susan "Carney." On the death certificate of their daughter Barbara, who married Chris Emminger, Barbara's father is listed as Nathaniel Patterson, born in Ireland; and her mother is incorrectly listed as Susan "Carney," born in Pennsylvania. But on the death certificate of their son William F. Patterson, his father is listed as Nathaniel Patterson, born in PA [error]; and his mother is listed as Susan "Garner," born in PA. Most compellingly, "Susan Garner, wife of N. Patterson" is inscribed on Susan's gravestone (see photo further). Nathaniel is listed with wife Susan on the 1850 & 1860 censuses:

1850 Franklin Twp., Armstrong Co., PA 9 Aug 1850 (p. 37 of 59)

Nathaniel Patterson	56 [1794] Ireland	millwright
Susan "	30 [1820] PA	cannot read or write
Barbary "	3 [1847] PA
Betty A. "	2 [1848] PA
James B. "	1 [1849] PA

1860 Franklin Twp., Armstrong Co., PA 15 June 1860 (p. 5 of 68)

Nathaniel Patterson	65 [1795] Ireland	farmer
Susan "	35 [1825] PA
Barbra "	13 [1847] PA
Betty Ann "	12 [1848] PA
James B. "	10 [1850] PA
W. F. "	9 [1851] PA
Sarah E. "	7 [1853] PA
Rachel "	6 [1854] PA
Martin "	2 [1858] PA

Nathaniel died between 14 Dec 1865 (date he appeared in Armstrong Co., PA Court of Common Pleas to apply for a land warrant)⁵ and 10 June 1870 (the date of the 1870 census on which his wife, Susan, is listed as head of household—see further).⁶ Undocumented info posted on findagrave states that Nathaniel died 21 Dec 1867, in Armstrong Co., PA. This agrees with his death date in "Mildred's Letter" (see p. 98 of this paper)

As discussed above, as of this writing Nathaniel is listed on findagrave.com, probably incorrectly, in Simpson Cemetery, Cowansville, Armstrong Co., PA. (Cowansville is located in present-day East Franklin Twp., Armstrong Co.) Bob believes he was buried in Allio Cemetery where wife Susan was buried. Info currently posted on findagrave 4/21/16 by Leslie Headrick lists Nathaniel Patterson b. 1795 Ireland; d. 21 Dec 1867 in Armstrong Co., PA, buried in Simpson Cemetery. Currently, there is no gravestone photo posted, and no documentation posted on findagrave for this birth date and death date—but this death date does not disagree with records found, cited above, proving that Nathaniel died 1865-1870.

Nathaniel's widow Susan is listed as head of household on the 1870 census in Forest Co., PA:

1870 Barnett Twp., Forest Co., PA 10 June 1870 (p. 8 of 13)

Susan Patterson	50 [1820] PA
James “	22 [1848] PA	lumberman
William “	19 [1851] PA	laborer
Sarah “	17 [1853] PA	no occupation
Rachel “	15 [1855] PA
Martin “	11 [1859] PA

Wife Susan died 1875 and was buried in Allio Cemetery, Tylersburg, Clarion Co., PA. Photo of her gravestone posted on findagrave.com 3/22/18 by Leslie Headrick:

⁵ On 14 Dec 1865 Nathaniel appeared in the Armstrong Co. Court of Common Pleas and applied for a warrant for "190 acres of improved land situate partly in Franklin Township, and partly in Sugarcreek Township, Armstrong County..." This land is described as "adjoining lands of said Patterson" and lands of (among others) "John Yockey." Per the deposition of John Yockey, who appeared in court on the same day, this land was "first improved by said Applicant about the Spring of the year A.D. 1830, and that grain has been raised thereon, and that the said Nathaniel Patterson has continued to hold, farm, and occupy the said Tract of land down to the present time." (Original application viewable in ancestry.com's "Pennsylvania Land Warrants and Applications 1733-1952" database.)

⁶ No will for a Nathaniel Patterson is found in the "Armstrong County, PA Will Index 1797-1961" microfilm at familysearch.org. Nor was his name found in microfilm of Armstrong Co. Orphans Court records or Administration Bond records or (probate) Account records.

It appears from census info that all of Nathaniel's children were born of wife Susan Garner. Censuses give us the names of 7 children of Nathaniel and Susan (Garner) Patterson. "Mildred's Letter" lists the same 7 children, plus "Alexander – died young, single [no birth or death date]." The children are listed in "Mildred's Letter" in this order: J. [James] Beatty, Wm. F., Martin, Alexander, Barbara Ellen, Elizabeth, Rachel Adams "Addie"; and Sarah. It should be noted that these children in "Mildred's Letter" were not listed in their birth order. All the sons were listed first, then all the daughters. This is unfortunate, because if we knew that (alleged) son Alexander were the first-born son, then that would lend credence to the conjecture that Nathaniel was the son of Alexander. (In the Scotch-Irish naming pattern, the first son was named after the father's father; the second son was named after the mother's father; the third son was named after the father; the fourth son was named after the father's oldest brother.) IF Alexander were the fourth-born son, as listed in "Mildred's Letter," that COULD mean that Nathaniel was the brother—not the son—of the Alexander with whom he emigrated in 1818. However, consider that Nathaniel had no son named after himself, so perhaps he was not observing the traditional Scotch-Irish naming pattern.

Children of Nathaniel & Susan (Garner) Patterson as listed (not in their birth order) in "Mildred's Letter":

- I. James Beatty Patterson – m. Sarah Jane McCloskey
- II. Wm. F. Patterson – m. Rachel McCloskey
- III. Martin Patterson – m. Genevieve Burns
- IV. Alexander Patterson – "died young, single"
- V. Barbara Ellen Patterson – m. Chris Eminger ["Emminger" on death her certificate]
- VI. Elizabeth Patterson – m. Shields Herron
- VII. Rachel Adams [Adda Rachel, per ancestry.com tree] Patterson – m. David Wyant
- VIII. Sarah Patterson – m. Joseph Young

The children of Nathaniel and Susan (Garner) Patterson are listed below, in their conjectured birth order, with all records found to date:

- I. Alexander Patterson – no info other than he "died young, single" (Mildred's Letter). My note: I've arbitrarily listed Alexander as the first-born child. Since Nathaniel married Susan Garner in 1843; and since the earliest known birth date of any of their other children is 4 years later (daughter Barbara born 1846) it's possible that Alexander was the first-born child, perhaps born between 1844 and 1846, in Armstrong Co., PA; died before the 1850 census. Per the Scotch-Irish naming pattern, the first son was named after the father's father. So IF Nathaniel truly had a son named Alexander; and IF this were his first-born son.... Well, this is another reason to posit that Nathaniel was indeed the son of Alexander Patterson (treated in a separate paper posted on this website).
- II. Barbara Ellen Patterson b. Oct 1846 (1900 census) in Armstrong Co., PA; m. John Christopher/Christian Emminger/Eminger (listed as "John Christian Eminger" on his death certificate; husband "Christopher Emminger" is listed on Barbara's death certificate; "Chris Eminger" in "Mildred's Notes"; "John C." on censuses). Husband John was born 21 Nov 1843 in PA, son of George & Catharine (Slater) Patterson; he died 15 Mar 1911 in Farmington, Clarion Co., PA; buried in Tylersburg [Clarion Co.], PA. (All foregoing info comes original death certificate #24966 of "John Christian Eminger," viewable in "Pennsylvania Death Certificates 1906-1966" at ancestry.com.) Barbara d. 22 May 1933 in Mt. Jewett, McKean Co., PA. (Original PA death certificate #47989 of Barbara "Emminger," viewable in "Pennsylvania Death Certificates 1906-1966" at ancestry.com; parents' names on this death certificate: Nathaniel Patterson, born in Ireland and Susan "Carney" [should be "Garner"], born in PA; buried in Tylersburg [Clarion Co.], PA). As of this writing, findagrave.com lists no Barbara "Emminger" or "Eminger" who died 1933 in any cemetery. Per "Mildred's Notes," Barbara had just one child, Bert, who died at 16 years of age." Note: See 1880 census below. Barbara and her husband adopted at least one daughter, Ella/Ellen. And see 1900 census below; their other daughter, Elva J., was possibly also adopted.

1850 & 1860 Censuses – Barbara is listed in Nathaniel's Franklin Twp., Armstrong Co., PA household.

Barbara married John Christopher Em[m]inger about 1869 (see 1900 & 1910 censuses).

John C. & Barbara (Patterson) Eminger/Emminger had children:

- A. Wilbert "Bert" Em(m)inger b. abt. 1867 in PA (1870 & 1880 censuses); d. abt. 1883 (died at age 16, per "Mildred's Notes").
- B. Ella B. Em(m)inger (ADOPTED) b. 28 Aug 1868 in PA; d. 7 Dec 1935, single; buried in Tylersburg, PA. (All foregoing info from original death certificate #107295, viewable in "Pennsylvania Death Certificates 1906-1966" at ancestry.com). INTERESTING: On Ella Eminger's death certificate, her father is listed as John Emminger, and her mother as "not known." This is interesting because the informant was Forest Wyant, who was raised by Barbara, and who grew up with Ella.
- C. Elva J. Em(m)inger (another ADOPTED daughter?) b. Aug 1877 in PA (1880 census). No further info found about Elva.

Continuing with children of Nathaniel and Susan (Garner) Patterson:

- III. Elizabeth "Betty" Ann Patterson b. Feb 1847 in PA (1900 census; agrees with age on 1850 & 1860 censuses). Probably abt. 1877-1878 (1st known child b. 1878-1879, per 1880 census), Elizabeth m. Joseph S. ["Shields"] Herron ("Robert Patterson Family Tree" at ancestry.com lists her husband as "Shields Herron"; no documentation. The "Headrick, Wyant, Taylor" tree at ancestry.com lists her husband as "Joseph Shields Herron"; no documentation but this may be correct, because the marriage record of their son William lists father as "J.S. Herron—see "Pennsylvania Marriages 1852-1968" at ancestry.com; and the 1954 death certificate of son "William D. Herron Sr." lists father as "Joseph S. Herron" & mother "Elizabeth Patterson"—see "Pennsylvania Death Certificates 1906-1966" at ancestry.com). Elizabeth d. "before 1915" ("Headrick, Wyant, Taylor..." tree at ancestry.com; no documentation); OR she d. "1930" ("Robert Patterson Family Tree" at ancestry.com; no documentation). Note: As of this writing, findagrave.com lists no Elizabeth Herron born abt. 1847 in any cemetery. Nor is an Elizabeth Herron who could be the Elizabeth Herron who concerns us here listed in "Pennsylvania Death Certificates 1906-1966" at ancestry.com. Per "Mildred's Notes," there are "no records" of the family of Elizabeth Patterson and "Shields" Herron. Beneath this note there are four names: "Addie [Adaline], Susan, William, Minnie" who, from records found (see further) are proven to be Elizabeth's children.

1850 & 1860 Censuses – Betty Ann is in her father's Armstrong Co., PA household.

Elizabeth married Joseph "Shields" Herron probably abt. 1877-1878.

In 1900, Elizabeth Herron is listed as "housekeeper" in the household of John Shall in Forest Co., PA. She is listed as "married"—but is not listed with her husband Joseph—though per the following record, he was living nearby in 1897. Per daughter Adda's marriage record, she married at age 17 and received the consent of her father, "J.S. Herron," who at that time (Sept 1897) was living in "McCrays" [Jenks Twp., Forest Co.], PA," to marry Ervin Hulings. Did husband Joseph die 1897-1900? Was Elizabeth incorrectly recorded on the 1900 census below as "married"?

NOTE: Cannot find husband Joseph on this census, or her daughter Minnie, who would have been just 14 years old in 1900.

1910 Census – The only person of the surname "Herron," indexed by ancestry.com in Forest Co., PA on this census, is Elizabeth's son, William D. Herron.

We don't have a death date for Elisabeth, or for her husband Joseph Shields

Herron. As of this writing, no persons of the surname "Herron" are listed on findagrave in any Forest Co., PA cemetery.

Children of Joseph Shields & Elizabeth (Patterson) Herron (all 4 listed in "Mildred's Notes," though not in their birth order):

A. Susan "Susie" A. Herron b. abt. 1879 ("Susie" A. Herron was age 28 when she applied for marriage license in 1907, in Forest Co, PA); m. Emon J. Humel on 14 Feb 1907, in Marionville, Forest Co., PA (original marriage certificate viewable in "Pennsylvania Marriages 1852-1968" at ancestry.com; father's name on this record: "Shields" Herron; it was the first marriage for both). No further info in this paper.

B. Adaline /Adeline"Addie"/"Adda" Herron b. 4 July 1880 in Forest Co., PA; d. 30 Oct 1952 in Bradford Twp., McKean Co., PA; m. ___ Hulings (who predeceased her). (All foregoing info comes from death certificate #87787 for Adeline Hulings, viewable in "Pennsylvania Death Certificates 1906-1966" at ancestry.com; parents' names on this certificate: "Shields" Herron & mother "unknown"; widow at time of death; buried in Scotch Hill [Union] Cemetery, Clarion Co., PA; informant: Lyman S. Hulings, Mt. Jewell, PA.) Adda m. Ervin S. [Sylvester] Hulings (deduced from findagrave info; see further). They married 26 Sept 1897 per notice of permit to wed published in the 1 Sept 1897 issue of The Forest Republican [Tionesta, Forest Co.,PA]. Per this notice, "both parties are from McCrays, this county" [Jenks Twp., Forest Co, PA, where Addie's mother Elizabeth Herron was living in 1900]. Note: Husband Ernest's middle name "Sylvester" comes from Photo of matching gravestones at Scotch Hill Union Cemetery, Clarion Co., PA, posted on findagrave 7/9/13 by Cindy Waddings, show inscriptions: "Adda A. Hulings / 1880 – 1952" and "Ervin S. Hulings / 1871 – 1946." No further info in this paper.

C. William D. Herron b. 27 Oct 1882 in Clarion Co., PA; d. 20 Apr 1954 in Kane, McKean Co., PA. (Birth date & birthplace & death date & place of death from PA death certificate #33148 for William D. Herron Sr., viewable in "Pennsylvania Death Certificates 1906-1966" at ancestry.com). Per William's death certificate, he was widowed at time of death. Parents' names on death certificate: Joseph S. Herron &

Elizabeth Patterson. Informant: William D. Herron of Kane, PA. Buried in Forest Lawn Cemetery, Kane, McKean Co., PA. The Myrtle K. Herron also listed on findagrave as buried in Forest Lawn Cemetery is probably William's wife. Per info posted on findagrave 2/29/2012 by John K. Pierson, Myrtle was b. 1889; d. 1946. Also buried in this cemetery is son William D. Herron Jr. and William Jr.'s wife Margaret Jean (Cadden) Herron. No further info in this paper.

Continuing with children of Joseph Shields & Elizabeth (Patterson) Herron:

D. Minnie Herron b. 29 Jan 1886 in Marienville [Forest Co.], PA; m. [Charles] Albert Rankin; d. 26 Dec 1957 in Punxsutawney, Jefferson Co., PA. (All foregoing info comes from original PA death certificate #111960 of Minnie Rankin, viewable in "Pennsylvania Death Certificates 1906-1996" at ancestry.com.) Per Minnie's death certificate, she was daughter of "Shields" Herron & Elizabeth Patterson. At time of death she was married; husband's name: Albert Rankin. She was buried in Ridgemont Cemetery, Bell Twp., Jefferson Co., PA. Informant: [dau] Mrs. Agnes Smouse of Punxsutawney, PA. PA death certificate #026325-66 of Charles Albert Rankin, viewable in "Pennsylvania Death Certificate 1906-1996" at ancestry.com, gives birth date of 14 Sept 1883 in Redcliff, PA; d. 23 Mar 1966 in Albion, Jefferson Co., PA; widower at time of death; wife's name: Minnie Herron; buried in Ridgemont Cemetery; informant: Mrs. Agnes Smouse of Albion, PA. Per info posted on findagrave 8/27/09 by "Marianne," Albert & Minnie (Herron) Rankin) had children: Arthur W. Rankin (1903-1970); Dorene Lucille (Rankin) Bowers (1907-1967); Agnes Sara (Rankin) Manners (1909-1985); Leroy Rankin (1911-1931); Harold Rankin (1913-1978); Emerson Rankin (1914-1983); Ruth Pauline (Rankin) Phillips (191-2008); Paul Rankin (1922-1932); and Erlene Mary Rankin (1926-1926). No further info on these children. No further info in this paper.

Continuing with children of Nathaniel and Susan (Garner) Patterson:

IV. James Beatty Patterson ⁷ b. 3 May 1849 in Armstrong Co., PA; d. 20 Oct 1921 in Grafton, Taylor Co., WVA (birth date, death date & place of death for James "Baty" Patterson comes from "West Virginia Deaths Index 1853-1973" at ancestry.com; parents' name on this index: Nathaniel & Susan Patterson; occupation; lumberman; married at time of death; age at death: 72 yrs, 6 mos, 17 days; buried in "Bluemont"). Photo of James' gravestone in Bluemont Cemetery, Grafton, Taylor Co., WVA posted on findagrave 10/4/10 by D.G. Keener shows inscription: "James Beatty Patterson / Died 1921." Note on James' findagrave page: "s/o Nathaniel & Susan Patterson." James m. Sarah Jane McCloskey. They married 18 May 1880 ("Mildred's Notes"). Per findagrave info, Sarah Jane was b. 20 Sept 1854 in PA, dau of Robert & Elizabeth (Doughterty) McCloskey; d. 6 Apr 1934; buried in Mount Calvary Catholic Cemetery, Grafton, Taylor Co., WVA. Photo of Sarah Jane's gravestone posted on findagrave 9/15/17 by Shannon shows inscription: "Mother / Sarah J. Patterson / Sept. 20, 1854 – Apr. 6, 1934."

James Beatty Patterson

Sarah Jane (McCloskey) Patterson

"Mildred's Notes" contains the following info about James Beatty Patterson and his family:

"James Beatty [maiden name of Nathaniel's (his father's) first wife] was born in Armstrong County Pa. according to my Uncle Jim (my mother's brother). He was living at Slaters Landing, Pa. when he took Sarah Jane McCloskey as his wife on May 18, 1880. He being Protestant and Sarah a Catholic they were married by a priest in Clarion, Pa. They went to Slaters Landing to live. He was a lumberman and until he moved to W. V. was engaged in the business near the Clarion River. He worked the forest of this area and (claims by relatives) worked closely with Anthony Wayne Cook of Cooksville. James is shown in a glass (colored) window in the burial mausoleum (near the Cook mansions) as a logger on Clarion River. James was approximately 30 years old and Sarah Jane was 26 years old. Their first child Robert Michael (1881-1952) was born at Slater's Landing (a place where his father was living at the time of marriage.)

Note: Here "Mildred's Notes" lists 5 children (in addition to son Robert): "Nathaniel Joseph, James Harrison, Norbert Lee, Joseph Margaret and Benedict Giles." Daughter Genevieve was omitted in this first list; she was named later. (see further).

Continuing with "Mildred's Notes" info:

"The Patterson family moved to Grafton West Virginia in 1897 after the death of Sarah's mother in Clarion that same year...In 1899 they moved to Mill Creek Wva (Randolph Co.) where he went into business with his brother William. They returned to Grafton in 1903 where he lived until 1921 when he died. In 1904 he took his two sons Jim and Norbert and some equipment and went to Nova Scotia where they did logging on the La Have River for the Davidson Lumber Company. After they returned to Grafton their children started to marry after attending local schools. 'JB' continued to lumber until he became too old and tired to take care of his big barn and horses. The 1st World War was over and his sons (some were married by this time in 1918) and their wives went to the west coast to live and continue lumbering. Sarah Jane returned to Crown and took up residence near her parents' home. In 1934 after the great depression of 1929 and the hardships of unemployment, she and her son Benedict returned to Grafton and took up residence near her daughter Josephine Flanagan. [Flanagan? Listed on 1930 census as Josephine "O'Sullivan."] Her daughter Genevieve and granddaughter Betty who was born in Crown had returned to Grafton with her. Sarah died on April 6, 1934 and is buried in Mt. Calvary Cemetery in the Fahey plot. Her son Nathan's wife was Stella Fahey a niece of Mrs. Thomas Joyce. It is in this family plot that she is buried."

Note: Here "Mildred's Notes" gives names of spouses of Sarah's children. This info is included below.

Bob supplied the following article about James, published in the 21 Nov 1921 issue of Southern Lumberman:

Excerpt Southern Lumberman, November 12, 1921, pg 48

J. B. Patterson, Grafton, W. Va.

GRAFTON. "7. Va., November 5.—J. B. Patterson, one of the pioneer lumbermen of the state, passed away at his home here at the age of 72. He began working in the lumber mills of Clarion county, Pa., when a boy, engaging in business for himself in 1899 under the firm name of Steiner & Patterson, at Vowinkle, Pa. When the timber of that section was cut out he came to West Virginia in 1897, engaging in the lumber business at Irontown, this county. The company was known as the Clarion Lumber Comnanv. Mr. Patterson sold out his interests to his partners in 1900 and went to Mill Creek, Randolph county,

W. Va... where he engaged in the operation of a lumber mill with his brother, W. F. Patterson, which continued until 1905, when the business was closed up Mr. Patterson was then employed by a large lumbering syndicate in Nova Scotia to superintend their operations at Bridgewater, N. S. He remained there two years when he returned because of the rigors of the northern climate, but continued in the same interests for the next two years in building a mill and railroad at Jacksonburg, \V. Va. He was compelled to give up this work on account of declining health. He is survived by his wife and seven children. He was a member of the Baptist church.

On 24 Oct 1921 widow Sarah appeared in the County Court of Taylor County, West Virginia, and deposed that the "distributees" of the estate of James B. Patterson were as follows:

- Sarah J. Patterson	Grafton, WVA	widow
- Robert M. Patterson	"	son
- Nathaniel J. Patterson	"	son

- James H. Patterson Portland, Oregon son
- Norbert L. Patterson Hillsboro, Oregon son
- Josephine M. Flanagan Grafton, WVA daughter
- Genevieve Siebert Wheeling, WVA daughter
- Benedict G. Patterson Grafton, WVA son

James Beatty & Sarah Jane (McCloskey) Patterson had 7 children:

A. Robert Michael Patterson b. 8 Sept 1882 (birth date inscribed on gravestone; matches date on WWII Draft card); b. Jamie Belle Graw [Grow?] "and stayed in Grafton all his life" ("Mildred's Notes"*). Note: Several of Robert & Jamie's children are listed on the "Social Security Applications & Claims Index" with mother's maiden name "Grow"—not "Graw." Robert & Jamie married 1913-1914. Photo of gravestone in Mount Calvary Catholic Cemetery in Grafton, WVA, posted on findagrave 9/15/17 by "Shannon," shows inscription: "Robert M. Patterson / Sept. 8, 1882 – Sept. 1, 1952." As of this writing, Robert's wife is not listed on findagrave in this cemetery. When Robert registered for the WWII draft, in Wheeling, WVA, his employer was listed as "Board of Education, Grafton, W. Va."

Robert died 1952. (No obituary found.)

Per "Mildred's Notes," Robert Michael & Jamie Belle (Graw/Grow) Patterson had 6 children (whom Mildred refers to as "cousins"):

1. Annabelle Patterson b. 11 July 1915 in Taylor Co., WVA; d. 15 July 1973 in Bedford Heights, Cuyahoga Co., OH; buried in Crown Hill Cemetery & Mausoleum, Twinsburg, Summit Co., OH (birth & death dates from SSDI). Note: Several undocumented trees list her as "Nora Annablle Patterson"; no records found substantiating this. Annabelle m. [Arthur] Rex Satterfield ("Mildred's Notes"). Husband Arthur Rex Satterfield is buried in Crown Hill Cemetery with Annabelle. Per info posted on findagrave 1/23/17 Arthur Rex Satterfield was b. 5 July 1914 in Grafton, Taylor Co., WVA, son of Bernard Amos & Mattie A. (Hoffman) Satterfield; d. 21 Apr 1995 in Eastlake, Lake Co., OH. Photo of gravestone posted on findagrave 1/23/17 by Christine McAdam-Crux shows inscription: "Wife and Mother / Annabelle Satterfield / 1915 – 1973." As of this writing, findagrave has attached a gravestone photo to husband Rex, but this is the wrong gravestone. (It's for a woman named Dora Baker, 1889-1966!) Note: "Mildred's Notes" contains no information about Annabelle's children.

1920 & 1930 Censuses – Annabelle is in her father's Taylor Co., WVA household.

Annabelle married Arthur Rex Satterfield, probably abt. 1936 (1st known child b. abt. 1937)

CURLL CAMPBELL AND COMPANY
Gilfoyle, Pa.

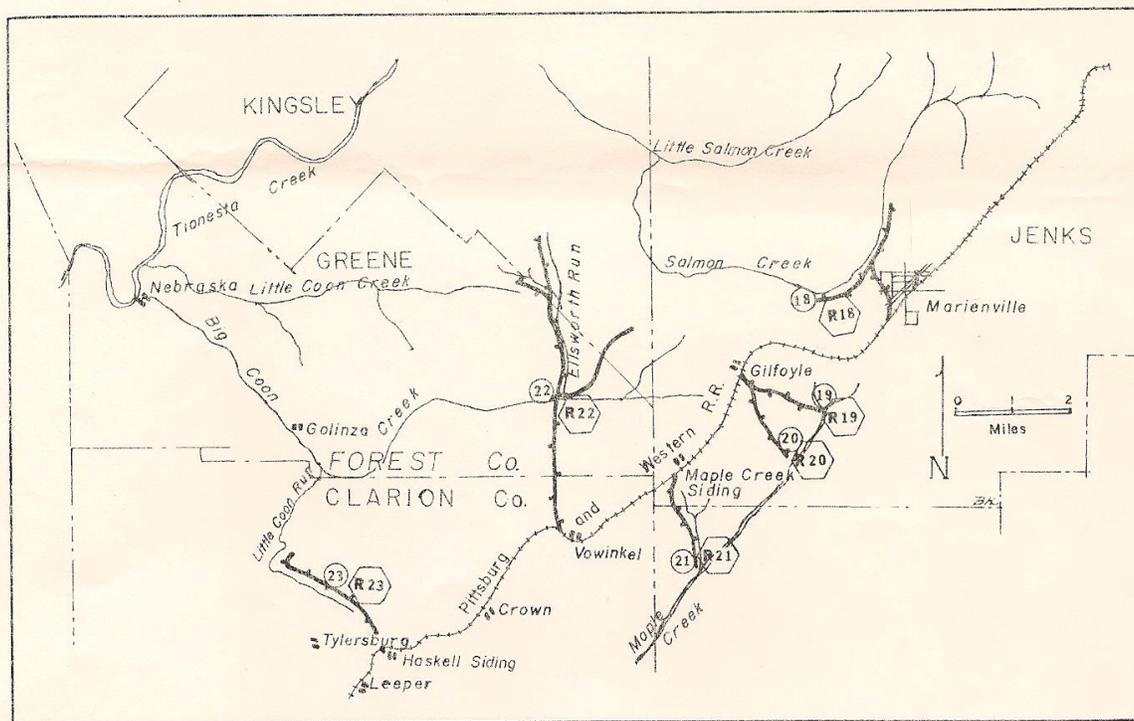

A large area of timber of about 8,000 acres extended from Marienville to Clarion County and south of the Pittsburgh and Western Railroad. It was located in Jenks and Barnett Townships and drained by Maple Creek. Several sizeable sawmills were located on this stream with Curll and Campbell being the first. This company built a mill on Maple Creek about a mile east of Gilfoyle in 1883, equipped with a circular saw having a capacity of 25,000 feet daily and cut mostly hemlock. A railroad spur was built from Gilfoyle to the mill to haul their lumber to the Pittsburgh and Western Railroad. They owned about 2,500 acres of timber and had a logging railroad to bring logs to the mill. A locomotive was used on the logging railroad but nothing is known about its type or origin. Some of the bark from the northern section of their land was hauled by teams to a siding at Roses because it was nearer than to team it to their own railroad and then have to take it to Gilfoyle to ship.

Whit Davis was the mill superintendent and Joseph and George Gregory were the only other employees remembered today. The operation ran until after 1890 when the mill was closed and the remaining timber was sold. Following this, a factory was built to make lamp black from soot produced by burning natural gas. Mrs. Martin Nicklas, of Gilfoyle, remembered that her father who came from Sweden and worked in the lamp black factory.

J. A. LUTZ

This concern, also remembered as Lutz and Moors and Lutz and Smathers, had a mill farther down Maple Creek from the Curll and Campbell mill. They started a little before 1900 and ran perhaps about four years and also had a shingle mill. A newspaper mentioned that a fire destroyed 500,000 shingles at the Lutz mill in 1902. According to Henry Gregory, whose father worked for Lutz, they had a railroad from their mill which connected with the Pittsburgh and Western near Gilfoyle, but wasn't part of the former line used by Curll and Campbell. They had their own locomotive but he didn't know what type it was or where it came from, but it was probably a geared engine. He did remember that Bob Rodgers was the engineer who ran it.

The Patterson and Gilfillan mill on Maple creek which later became Gilfillan and Neill's mill. The locomotive is probably a Pittsburgh and Western engine. But a track seen in the lower left corner beside the log pond appears to be for unloading logs into the pond from a log train. This company may have used a logging railroad, but today little is known about their operations.

PATTERSON AND GILFILLAN
GILFILLAN AND NEILL
FOREST LUMBER COMPANY
Maple Creek Siding

This concern began during the 1880's when the Patterson Brothers, William F. and Martin V., bought several small timber tracts on Maple creek near the Clarion County boundary and set up a sawmill. Sometime before 1894 they sold a half interest to Archibald Gilfillan and built a large mill with 35,000 feet capacity, about a mile and a half from Maple Creek Siding on Maple creek. A railroad spur was built from the Pittsburgh and Western at Maple Creek siding to their mill. In 1894 they bought a large tract from the Maple Creek Lumber Company in Barnett Township which abutted the Clarion County line.

Previously, the Maple Creek Lumber Company had been formed in 1885 and purchased about 5,000 acres of timber lands. This company was composed of Thomas H. Marshall, L. M. Putney and Josiah Work. Later W. A. Crossman became a member of the firm and was noted for never having a regular pay day, but paid his help whenever he deemed it convenient. They built a mill near Redcliff and cut part of their timber and hauled the lumber to the Clarion River and rafted it to market. But a large portion of their timber was sold to others who cut and shipped the lumber to market on the Pittsburgh and Western Railroad.

In 1897, the Patterson's sold their half interest to A. D. Neill and Dr. A. E. Stonecipher of Marienville, and the company was renamed the Forest Lumber Company. However, it was usually referred to a Gilfillan and Neill. Soon after this, more timber was purchased from the Maple Creek Lumber Company. Inasmuch as their mill was a mile and a half from the Pittsburgh and Western, and some of the timber was over three miles from the mill its quite possible they owned a locomotive. However, this is not ascertained. A. D. Neill was also a partner with C. S. Morris in a lumber operation at Garland, Pennsylvania.

The mill ran until about 1902 and probably had cut timber from two or three thousand acres. After that they went to West Virginia where they operated as the Gilfillan Neill and Company with a mill at May, in Pocahontas County. They also operated another mill at Clover Lick in the same county under the name, A. D. Neill and Company.

BOWMAN LUMBER COMPANY

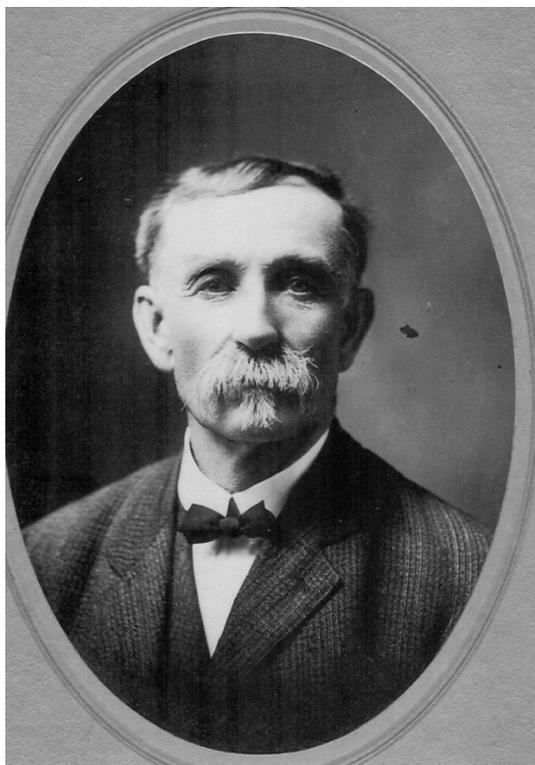

Bowmansville, Forest County Kane, McKean County

William W. Bowman, a son of Thomas J. Bowman and the senior partner of this firm, was born in Clarion County in 1851. His first venture in lumbering was as a jobber by which he gained a knowledge of the business. After a short time, he became associated with his father in the operation of a general store at Tylersburg, Pennsylvania. He continued in this occupation until 1877, when the urge to return to lumbering led him to build a stove mill which he ran until 1880. At this time he moved to Haskell Siding where he built both a saw and shingle mill which he operated until 1887. Following this,

At the time of the 1920 census, wife Catharine was living in the household of Warren and Varda Boher, in Elkins, Randolph Co., WVA. Varda must be a daughter of Catharine's first marriage, to ___ O'Connor. Were William and Catharine separated? Both are recorded on the 1920 census as "married," but they are recorded in separate households:

Continuing with children of William F. & 1st wife Rachael (McCloskey) Patterson:

- E. William Robert Patterson (Rachel's twin) (Bob's grandfather) The following info comes from the "Robert Patterson Family Tree" at ancestry.com, unless otherwise noted: William Robert Patterson, son of William Foster Sr. & Rachael Cecelia (McCloskey) Patterson, was b. 26 Feb 1886 in Crown, Clarion Co., PA (agrees with birth date on 1900 census & date on gravestone); d. 4 Dec 1920 (agrees with date on gravestone) in Elkins, Randolph Co., WVA; buried in Saint Brendan Catholic Cemetery, Elkins, Randolph Co., WVA. Per "Mildred's Notes," William was "killed by a sawmill accident in 1920." Photo of William's gravestone posted on findagrave 5/20/16 by Cynthia Mullens shows inscription: "William R. Patterson / Feb 26, 1886 – Dec. 4, 1920." William married Emma May Moss in 1910, in Elkins, Randolph Co., WVA. (No documentation for marriage date, but first child born abt. 1902, so this is probably correct; no marriage record found; maiden name "Moss" verified in daughter Rachel's application for Social Security—see further; & in son James' obituary—see further). Per this tree Emma was b. 26 May 1894 (Social Security Death Index) in Elkins, Randolph Co., WVA, dau of Charles Lee & Mary Elizabeth (Stevens) Moss; d. 28 June 1985 (death date is "June 1985" in Social Security Death Index) in Hagerstown, Washington Co., MD. As of this writing, no Emma Patterson born 1894 who died 1985 is listed at findagrave.com in any cemetery. Emma survived 65 years after William's death. It appears that she did not remarry. Her son James' 1974 obituary (see below) names his surviving mother as "Emma Moss Patterson of Hagerstown." See photos of William Robert & wife Emma (dates unknown) on the next page.

1940 Census

Cannot find Emma with certainty on the 1940 census. She could be the Emma Patterson, widow, age 46 (so b. abt. 1894), born in West Virginia, pastry cook in a hotel, heading a household in Chambersburg, PA in 1940, with one lodger. This Emma is of the right age, and is listed with the right birthplace to be William's widow.

The censuses above list 7 children of William R. & Emma Patterson. The "Robert Patterson Family Tree" lists just 6 children, omitting daughter Beatrice J. / Julie Beatrice (born abt. 1920). Info about the following children (excepting Julie Beatrice) comes from the "Robert Patterson Family Tree," unless otherwise noted.

Children of William Robert & Emma (Moss) Patterson:

As a child, he was always running the hills and streams fishing, trapping and hunting. He was a true Huck Finn. He was a self-taught antique expert that didn't graduate from high school. - a. Clarence Thomas Patterson Jr. b. abt. 1940 (listed as a senior in high school in Washington Co., MD in 5 May 1958 issue of The Morning Herald [Hagerstown, MD]. Note: Several articles in 1963 issues of various Hagerstown, MD newspapers report arrest & conviction, for 5 charges of breaking & entering, of Clarence Thomas Patterson Jr., age 22. Clarence Jr. was engaged to, and probably m. (1st?) Gloria Jean Lushbaugh 1959-1960. Published in the 28 Oct 1959 issue of The Daily Mail [Hagerstown, MD]:

"Mrs. Mildred Lushbaugh...announces the engagement of her daughter, Gloria Jean, to Mr. Clarence Thomas Patterson Jr., the son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Skatzer... Mr. Patterson is now serving in the United States Army at Fort Benning, Georgia. No wedding date has been set."

Did Clarence divorce Gloria? Clarence m. (2nd?) Tawanna M. Nutter? In the 28 Dec 1964 issue of The Daily Mail [Hagerstown, MD]: [Marriage license applications] "Clarence T. Patterson Jr., 24, Hagerstown, and Tawanna M. [Marie] Nutter, 19 [so b. abt. 1945], Fairplay." Note: Tawanna's middle name "Marie" comes from an article about a fire in the 4 Mar 1966 issue; among the plaintiffs were "Clarence T. and Tawanna Marie Patterson." And in the 19 June 1970 issue of The Daily Mail [Hagerstown, MD]: "Deeds...Clarence T. Patterson Jr. and Tawanna M. Patterson to Lowell C. Michael and Leon L. Michael, land on South Mountain near Tub Springs." Clarence Thomas Patterson is probably still living. Per his sister Rachel's 2009 obit (see below), Clarence was living in Newark, Delaware.

SISTER MARY PRAXEDES

Sister Mary Praxedes — the former Julia Patterson, died at Saint Mary's Convent, Notre Dame, Ind., on January 20. Sister Praxedes' was 89 years of age and in the 67th year of her profession.

Julia Patterson was born on May 13, 1889 to William and Catherine Patterson in Clarion County, Pa. Her parents later moved to Elkins where her father was a well known lumberman. She received her early education in the local schools. In 1909 on Sept. 3, she entered the congregation of the Sisters of the Holy Cross. On Dec. 10, 1909, she received the Holy Habit and the name of Sister Mary Praxedes. She made her first profession on Dec. 10, 1911 and her final profession on Aug. 15, 1915.

She received her bachelor's degree in music and music theory from the American Conervatory of Music in Chicago in 1927 and her master's degree from the same school in 1935.

Sister Praxedes was a skilled teacher of music. Except for three years at Saint Mary's Academy in Austin, Texas and five years at Saint Mary's Academy in Alexandria, Va., Sister's 52 years of teaching were spent in the mid-west. She taught at Saint Mary's Academy, Notre Dame, Saint Theodore's School in Chicago, Saint Joseph's Academy in South Bend and at Saint Mary's College, Notre Dame.

VI. Sarah E. "Sadie" Patterson b. abt. 1853 in Franklin, Armstrong Co., PA (1860 & 1870 censuses). Note: Per son Ernest's listing in "West Virginia Deaths Index" at ancestry.com, he was the son of Joseph Young & "Sadie" Patterson. Sarah m. Joseph Young ("Mildred's Notes") Per "Mildred's Notes," Joseph & Sarah had children: Robert, Ernest, John & Effie; there is a note that there are "no records" for these children. The 4 children named agrees in part with census info found; in 1880 Joseph & Sarah Young have 2 sons: Robert and Ernest. (Joseph & his family have not been located on the 1900 & subsequent censuses.) The "Vasileff Family Tree" at ancestry.com currently lists Sarah with an 1853 birth date, but no death date; and lists her husband Joseph Young with an undocumented death date of 12 Oct 1924 (no death location). It is not known when, or where, Sarah died. Did Sarah die before Joseph, and did Joseph then marry a woman named Josephine? See notes below for Joseph Young's son John.

Caution: A Joseph Young who died 1917 in Danville, Montour Co., PA was born 1849 in PA—as was the Joseph Young who married Sarah Patterson, per 1880 census info. The obit of this Joseph who died 1917 in Montour Co., PA, published in the 7 Mar 1917 issue of The Danville Daily News, states that his wife had died "nine months ago." However, per 1900 census info, this Joseph's wife was named Mary.) One son and three daughters named: Mrs. John Reeser, Earl Young, Mrs. Ralph Smith & Mrs. Warren Harpster of Milton. So this is a DIFFERENT Joseph. And there was a Joseph Alexander Young born 1849 in PA, son of Joseph A. (born in Ireland) & Annie (Ralston) Young (b. in Ireland), who died 26 Apr 1914 in Montgomery Co., PA; buried in [Ornila?] Evangelical Cemetery (death certificate #37307); he was married at time of death; occupation: harness maker; informant: James H. Young of Frankford, PA. This is also probably a DIFFERENT Joseph.

Per "Mildred's Notes" & census info, Joseph & Sarah E. (Patterson) Young had 4 children:

- a. Robert R. Young b. 26 Nov 1877 in Shippenville, Clarion Co., PA (WWI & WWII Draft Registration cards; "person who will always know your address" on both cards: Mrs. Martha L. Young"; registered 1917-18 in Beverly, WVA; registered 1942 in Allegheny Co., PA though his residence was listed as Coolspring Twp., Mercer Co., PA). In 1900, Robert m. Martha L. Canfield, in Tucker Co., WVA ("West Virginia Marriages Index 1785-1971" at ancestry.com). Per undocumented trees, Robert d. 7 May 1952 in Ashtabula, Ashtabula Co., OH. Wife Martha died 25 Aug 1961 in Ashtabula, OH ("Ohio Death Records" index at ancestry.com; listed as "widowed"). Note: Posted on the "Vasileff Family Tree" at ancestry.com is a 1940 photo of Robert "with Billy on his lap," wife Martha and "Kathleen, Violet, Effie, Pearl, Agatha." As of this writing, findagrave lists no Robert Young born 26 Nov 1877 in any cemetery.

1880 Census – Robert, age 2, is in his father's Clarion Co., PA household.

1900 Census – Cannot find Robert or his parents on this census.

The 10 known children of Robert & Martha L. (Canfield) Young, and their descendants, are not explored in this paper.

Continuing with the children of Joseph & Sarah E. (Patterson) Young:

Ernest m. his first cousin Sarah Alice ("Alice S." on censuses) Patterson. (That they were first cousins was deduced from 1930 census info—see below). Note: Ernest's wife is recorded on all censuses as "Alice S." but on daughter Marie's death certificate (see further), Marie's mother is listed as "Sarah Alice Patterson," and "Sarah Alice" is engraved on her gravestone. Continuing with children of Ernest L. & Sarah "Alice" (Patterson) Young:

- William Leroy "Leroy W." Young b. abt. 1908 in Randolph Co., WVA (censuses). Note: No birth record found for William Leroy / Leroy W. Young. He is probably the "William Leroy Young" b. 1908 in WVA, son of Ernest Lee & Sarah Alice Adelaide (Patterson) Young, listed on the "Headrick, Wyant, Taylor..." tree at ancestry.com with death date of 2 Mar 1980 in Columbus, Franklin Co., OH; no wife listed. Per "Ohio Death Records" index at ancestry.com, this William L. Young who died 2 Mar 1980 in Columbus, OH, was b. 1908 in WVA; he was married at time of death. Can find no marriage record or burial record for the William Leroy who concerns us here.

Continuing with children of Ernest L. & Sarah "Alice" (Patterson) Young:

Continuing with children of Ernest L. & Sarah "Alice" (Patterson) Young:

- Cecelia Evelyn Young b. 18 June 1918 in Elkins, Randolph Co., WVA; d. 22 Oct 1996; sometime before Sept 1962, Cecelia m. ___ Carver. (All foregoing info from "U.S. Social Security Applications & Claims Index"; parents' names on this index: Ernest L. Young & Sarah A. Patterson.) Note: She is listed as "Celia" on "West Virginia Birth Index" at ancestry.com. Photo of gravestone in Brevard Memorial Park, Cocoa, Brevard Co., FL posted on findagrave 11/19/07 by "GBern.O" shows inscription: "Cecelia E. Carver / 1918 – 1996." No man of the surname "Carver," of the age to be Cecelia's husband, is currently listed on findagrave in this cemetery. Cecelia m. Corlis Carver (obit).

1920, 1930 & 1940 Censuses – Cecelia is in her father's Randolph Co., WVA household.

Cecelia's obit was published in the 24 Oct 1996 issue of The Orlando [Florida] Sentinel:

Continuing with children of Ernest L. & Sarah "Alice" (Patterson) Young:

- Robert Leo Young b. 30 June 1921 in Elkins, Randolph Co., WVA; d. 12 Feb 1994 ("U.S. Social Security Applications & Claims Index; parents' names on this index: "Ernst" L. Young & Sarah A. Patterson). Robert Leo Young "Sr." is listed on findagrave with above birth & death dates; buried in Fairfax Memorial Park, Fairfax Co., VA, Sect. 4. Photo of gravestone posted on findagrave 9/28/13 by Stan Jett shows inscription: "YOUNG / Robert Lee / June 30, 1921 – Feb. 12, 1994." Photo of matching gravestone shows inscription: "YOUNG / Jane Ann / April 16, 1921 – Dec. 16, 2004." When Robert enlisted, on 17 Apr 1943, in Clarksburg, WVA, he was still single ("WW II Army Enlistment Records..." at ancestry.com). We can deduce from gravestone info that sometime after 16 Apr 1943, Robert m. Jane Ann ___ (Payne?). Per the undocumented "Ryder Family Tree" at ancestry.com, Robert m. Jane Ann Payne (1921-2004). One daughter ("private") is listed on this tree. No further info in this paper.

1930 & 1940 Censuses – Robert is listed in his father's Randolph Co., WVA household. (Listed as "absent" in 1940.)

Continuing with the children of Joseph & Sarah E. (Patterson) Young:

- c. John Young b. aft. the 1880 census—probably 1881-1883, probably in Clarion Co. PA (where his parents were living in 1880). Note: The last census listing found for John's father, Joseph, is the 1880 census. (Father Joseph has not been located on the 1900 census.) John's birth date of 1881-1883 is estimated based on the fact that we have a documented birth date for his brother Ernest (1880); and a documented birth date for his sister Effie (1884). Remember: the children of Joseph & Sarah E. (Patterson) Young were listed in "Mildred's Notes" in this order: Robert, Ernest, John, Effie. Mildred had "no records" for these children.

NOTE: The John H. Young born 3 May 1881 in Clarion Co., PA (WWII Draft registration card), whose wife's name was Myrtle, and who lived in Warren Co., PA in 1930 & 1940, is NOT the John we seek. Per the marriage license of this John H. Young and Myrtle M. Bunting, John was the son of Robt. and Josephine Young. So: Caution! There were two different John Youngs born about the same time in Clarion Co., PA.

Can find no reliable info on-line about Joseph & Sarah's son John.

- d. Effie May Young b. 11 May 1884 in Forest Co., PA; d. 20 May 1957 in Greenville Hospital, Mercer Co., PA, while a resident of Hempfield Twp., Mercer Co., PA; buried in Shenango Valley Cemetery, Greenville, Mercer Co., PA. (All foregoing info from PA death certificate #44608 for Effie Young Uber; informant: Mrs. Ed Pickins of Greenville, PA.) Effie m. 1st ___ [Howard David?] Kalar (original marriage license for Effie's second marriage, granted 18 Jan 1906, viewable in "Pennsylvania Marriages 1852-1968" at ancestry.com records, records the Butler Co., PA license to marry of Norman B. Uber & "Effie M. Kalar; her parents on this record: "Joseph and Sarah Young"; per this record Sarah's previous husband died 25 Oct 1904; Norman Uber's previous wife died 25 Oct 1904; he was a conductor on the railroad; at time of application Sarah was a resident of Clarion Co., PA; Norman was a resident of Armstrong Co., PA). Per undocumented trees, the name of Effie's first husband was Howard David Kalar, with whom she had daughter Hazel Kalar b. 1903. In 1906, Effie m. 2nd Norman B. Uber who survived her. Per undocumented trees, with 2nd husband Norman Burdett Uber, Effie had children: Ethel Irene (b. 1906); Joseph Bernard (b. 1909); Olive May (b. 1910); Myrtle (b. 1912) and Shirley (b. 1924 [sic]). No further info in this paper.

Continuing with children of Nathaniel & Susan (Garner) Patterson:

- VII. Rachael Adams ("Adda Rachel" on some trees) Patterson b. 10 Mar 1854 ("Kelp Family Tree"—see further); b. in Franklin, Armstrong Co., PA (1860 & 1870 censuses); m. David Wyant ("Mildred's Notes" lists her as "Rachel Adams (Addie)," who married David Wyant, and it is noted that "not much known about this family.") Per the "Kelp Family Tree," Rachel Adda Patterson was b. 10 Mar 1854, dau of "Nathan" and Susan (Gardner [error: Garner]) Patterson; no info about "Nathan" or Susan on this tree. Per the "Kelp Family Tree," David was b. 19 Apr 1847 in Porter Twp., Clarion Co., PA, son of Jacob & Hanna (Mays) Wyant; d. 10 July 1917 in Tionesta, Forest Co., PA. The "Kelp Family Tree" at ancestry.com, authored by "bean010166," contains just 373 persons. It is not well documented, but I suspect the author is a direct descendant, based on this note posted 3/11/12 by the author, titled "Notes from Auntie Francee":

"Notes for Rachel Adda Patterson – Grandma Wiant [sic]—very good person. She was very quiet, and very nice. Died in 1933. She was a very thin woman and lived with Ruth Radaker in Sandy for quite a while during her winters because it was warmer. She lived in Oil City in summers. Her house was destroyed by fire, in which she was badly burned. She survived. She died in the house in Sandy. Mom remembers taking trips to Dayton, Oil City and Greenville. In Greenville they visited Anna and Sarah Wiant at their house. After Anna died, Sarah built a house near the retirement home and had a friend come over to keep her company. As she got older and couldn't take care of herself, she moved into that home. There are Pattersons of this family buried in Greeley, CO as discovered by Marnee and her friend 'Flash' during a casual afternoon outing in college days."

"Adda Patterson Wiant" is buried in Luthersburg Union Cemetery, Luthersburg, Clearfield Co., PA. The children of For[r]est Eugene & Ruth Mae (Wyant/Wiant) Radaker are not explored in this paper.

Continuing with children of David & Rachel Adda (Patterson) Wyant:

- F. Harold Vance Wyant b. Mar 1896 in PA (1900 census); listed on the "Kelp" tree with as b. 1 Mar 1896 in Tylersburg, Clarion Co., PA; d. 1936 (no documentation).

Continuing with children of Nathaniel and Susan (Garner) Patterson:

- VIII. Martin Van Buren Patterson b. Dec 1858 (1900 census; b. 1858 per gravestone) in Franklin, Armstrong Co., PA (1860 & 1870 censuses). Martin d. 14 June 1904; buried in Linn Grove Cemetery, Greeley, Weld Co., CO, Blk R., lot 58, spc 2 (info posted on findagrave 2/5/11 by "ProgBase"; gravestone inscribed simply "1904"). Photo of gravestone posted on findagrave 7/21/14 by Cindy (Seifert) Cooper Abelson shows inscription: "PATTERSON / M.V.P. / 1858-1904." Note: Despite the birth year of "1858" inscribed on Martin's stone, his birthdate is listed as "1859" on his findagrave page—an unfortunate typo. About 1882 (per 1900 census) Martin m. Genevieve ["Jennie"] Burns ("Mildred's Notes"). Genevieve is recorded as "Jennie" on son Wayne Burns Patterson's baptism record ("Presbyterian Church Records 1701-1970 – Clarion Co., PA First Presbyterian Church" at ancestry.com & also on censuses & also on her gravestone). Per the death certificate of "Mrs. Jennie Burns Patterson" (PA certificate #105714, viewable in "Pennsylvania Death Certificates 1906-1966" at ancestry.com), Jennie was b. 15 Dec 1857 [1856 per gravestone] in Clarion Co., PA, dau of James T. & Juliet (Smith) Burns. Jennie died 4 Nov 1914 in Clarion Co., PA. At time of death she was a widow. She was buried in "Clarion Cemetery." Photo of gravestone posted on findagrave 7/21/11 by LSmith shows inscription: "Jennie B. Patterson / 1856–1914." Per "Mildred's Notes,": "Martin moved to Greeley Colorado on account of T.B.

and died in 1904. Except for Ethel [daughter] and Howard [son] most of the family died after they arrived in Colorado." Bob wrote to me 1/9/18: " I found out Nathaniel's son Martin Van Buren Patterson came down with TB and moved his family to Colorado because they thought the mountain air was cure but he, his wife and some of the children died there of TB. One son went to Oregon and there are relatives there today." Jennie's obituary was published in "Obituaries from the Clarion Democrat, 1913-1915" by Sally Jordan Reed, and transcribed & posted on findagrave 7/21/11 by LSmith:

"...November 4th, 1914...Mrs. Jennie Patterson, of Clarion... died suddenly, about noon of that day.... Mrs. Patterson, who made her home with Dr. S.A. Wilhelm, her brother-in-law, was afflicted with heart trouble... Miss Jennie Burns was the daughter of the late James T. and Juliet C. Burns, and was born in Clarion township in 1857 [1856 per her gravestone]. About 1886 she was united in marriage with M.V. Patterson following which she made her home at North Pine Grove, this county. Upwards of ten years ago she lost by death from tuberculosis her husband and two of their children, but she is survived by one daughter, Miss Ethel, at home; and two sons, Howard, at home; and Wayne Patterson of Chicago... interment will be made in the Clarion cemetery."

1860 Census – Martin is in his father's Armstrong Co., PA household.

1870 Census – Martin is in his widowed mother's Forest Co., PA household.

Per "Mildred's Notes," Martin Van Buren & Genevieve (Burns) Patterson had the following 6 children. But Jennie's obit mentions only 5 children. Mildred's 1914 obit mentions two children who died of TB about 1904 (as did her husband); and daughter Ethel who was "at home" in 1914; and son Howard who was "at home" in 1914; and son Wayne who in 1914 was living in Chicago.

Patterson. Juliet is probably 1 of the 2 children who, per her mother's obit, died of tuberculosis.

1900 Census – Juliet K. is listed in her father's Forest Co., PA household.

- B. Wayne Burns Patterson b. 17 Oct 1885 ("Mildred's Notes"; same birth date in Wayne's SAR membership application; he was applying for membership based on the service of his mother's relative); b. in Forest Co., PA (Wayne's SAR application). On 4 June 1909 Wayne B. Patterson m. Helen G. Johnson, in Denver, CO; they were married by Rev. H. E. Brundage ("Colorado County Marriage Records..." at ancestry.com). In 1908 Wayne was living in Greeley, Co., CO & this is when he applied for SAR membership; at that time his occupation was architect. In 1914, Wayne was living in Chicago, IL (mother's obit). As of this writing, no Wayne Patterson b. 1885 is listed on findagrave in any cemetery. Wayne is not named in "Mildred's Notes" as one of the "two surviving children." Per info posted on findagrave 2/5/11 by "ProgBase," Wayne B. Patterson was b. 1886 [probable error]; d. 16 Mar 1918; buried in Linn Grove Cemetery, Greeley, Weld Co., CO (where his father is buried). After Wayne died, wife Helen remarried, to William Cannon (original AZ death certificate #3855 of Helen Gladys Cannon; per this certificate she was b. 8 Apr 1891 in KY, dau of John Smith & Susan (Wiggington) Johnson; she d. 13 May 1960 in Phoenix, Maricopa Co., AZ).

1900 Census – Wayne B. is in his father's Forest Co., PA household.

Wayne married Helen G. Johnson in 1909, in Denver, Colorado.

Per the "Headrick, Wyant, Taylor..." tree at ancestry.com, Wayne Burns & Helen Gladys (Johnson) Patterson had one child:

- 1. Sue Patterson b. 29 June 1910 in Greeley, CO; m. ___ Lovejoy; d. 5 Feb 1991 ("Social Security Applications & Claims Index: listed on this index as of 1937 as 'Sue Patterson Cannon'"—though her parents are listed on this index as Wayne B. Patterson & Helen G. Johnson; listed as of 1943 as "Sue Patterson Lovejoy"). No further info in this paper.

Continuing with children of Martin Van Buren & Genevieve (Burns) Patterson:

- C. Bertha May Patterson b. 2 Mar 1888 ("Mildred's Notes"; b. in PA per censuses. Bertha d. 14 June 1904 and was buried in Linn Grove Cemetery, Greeley, Weld Co.,

CO (where her father is buried). Photo of her gravestone posted on findagrave 7/21/14 by Cindy (Seifert) Cooper Abelson shows inscription: "PATTERSON / Bertha / 1888 – 1904."

- D. Ethel Gertrude Patterson b. 8 Apr 1890 ("Mildred's Notes"); b. in PA per censuses. Per "Mildred's Notes," Ethel was one of the 2 surviving children. In 1914, Ethel was living "at home," in Clarion Co., PA (mother's obit). Per the "Headrick, Wyant, Taylor..." tree at ancestry.com, Ethel m. Gil Ogden Sr. Gil was b. 21 Jan 1886 in Keokub, IA; d. 23 Nov 1948 in Marion Co., OR (no marriage record supplied). Per this tree, Ethel d. 25 Feb 1923 in Marion Co., OR. "Oregon Death Index" at ancestry.com lists Ethel Gertrude Ogden with this death date. Ethel G. Ogden is buried in IOOF Cemetery, Dayton, Yamhill Co., OR. Photo of gravestone posted on findagrave 6/12/09 by Bill Myers shows inscription: "Ethel G. Ogden / 1891 – 1923." Note: Is birth year on gravestone an error? Per "Mildred's Notes" she was b. 1890; and this agrees with 1900 census info. More confusion: The death notice of "Mrs. Ethel Ogden" was published in the 26 Feb 1923 issue of The Capital Journal (Salem, Oregon), and this Ethel Ogden was born abt. 1892, per this death notice:
Could this be a different Ethel Ogden who died in Feb 1923 in Oregon?
 "Mrs. Ethel Ogden, 30, whose home is in McMinnville, died at a local hospital. She is survived by a husband and four children who live at McMinnville...."

1900 Census – Ethel G. is in her father's Forest Co., PA household. (Birth date: "Apr 1890.")

1910 Census – Ethel G. is in her widowed mother's Weld Co., CO household.

1914 – Ethel was living "at home" in Clarion Co., PA (per her mother's obit).

Ethel (allegedly) married Gil Ogden (no documentation).

Ethel G. Ogden died 1923 in Oregon. (Is this the Ethel who concerns us here?)

No further info about Ethel in this paper.

Continuing with children of Martin Van Buren & Genevieve (Burns) Patterson:

- E. Howard Vance Patterson b. 9 Nov 1892 ("Mildred's Notes"); b. in Marionville, Forest Co., PA per WWII draft registration. Per "Mildred's Notes," Howard was one of the "two surviving children." In 1914 Howard was living "at home," in Clarion Co., PA (mother's obit). On 21 Mar 1921 in Oklahoma Co., OK, Howard Vance Patterson m. Neva Mary Gillette ("Oklahoma County, Oklahoma Marriage Index" at ancestry.com). When Howard registered for the WWII draft, he was living in Macon, Macon Co., MO; he was married; occupation salesman for Swallow Airplane Co. Howard d. 27 July 1960 in Cole Co., MO (MO death certificate #26286 indexed at "Missouri Digital Heritage, sl.sos.mo.gov; spouse named in index: Neva "Gillett"; father: "Mark" Patterson; mother: "Jennie Burns"). Wife Neva d. 9 Nov 1972, in Kokomo, Howard Co., IN (original IN death certificate #72-041376 viewable in "Indiana Death Certificates" at ancestry.com). Per Neva's death certificate, she was b. 4 July 1900 in Oklahoma, dau of Guy & Myrtle (Finley) Gillett; she was a widow at time of death; buried in Forest Hill Cemetery in Kansas City, Jackson Co., MO; informant: G. V. Patterson, "son," of Greentown, IN. Photos of matching gravestones posted on findagrave 10/12/16 by Fred Gunwald show inscriptions: "Beloved Father / Howard V. Patterson / 1892 – 1960" and "Beloved Mother / Neva G. Patterson / 1900 – 1972."

1900 Census – Howard V. is in his father's Forest Co., PA household.

The above censuses tell us that Howard V. & Neva (Gillette) Patterson had at least 2 children:

- 1. Gillette Vance Patterson b. 18 Mar 1922 in Oklahoma City, OK; d. 22 July 1996 (birth date, birthplace & death date on "Social Security Applications & Claims Index"; parents' name son this index: Howard V. Patterson & Neva M. Gillett); d. in Columbia, Richland Co., SC (SSDI). Gillette m. Martha Martin. Martha was b. 3 Aug 1923 in Jefferson City, MO, dau of Mose & Audrey Martin; she d. 26 Oct 2015 in Columbia, Richland Co., SC. (All info about Martha comes from her obit—see further.) Gillette and wife Martha are interred in Greenlawn Memorial Park, Columbia, Richland Co., SC (info posted on findagrave 10/26/15 by Laurie Davis Hannah; no gravestone photos posted). Martha's obituary was transcribed & posted on her findagrave page (no newspaper cited):

"Martha Patterson, 92, of Columbia, entered into rest Monday, October 26, 2015 at Providence Hospital, Forest Drive. Born August 3, 1912 in Jefferson City, MO she was the daughter of the late Mose and Audrey Martin. She was also preceded in death by her husband, Gillette V. Patterson. A Celebration of Life for Mrs. Patterson will be held at...Greenlawn Memorial Park Mausoleum Chapel...."

Continuing with children of Howard Vance & Neva (Gillette) Patterson:

2. Robert Wayne Patterson b. 13 Aug 1930 in Oklahoma City, OK ("Social Security Applications & Claims Index"; parents' names on this index: Howard V. Patterson & Neva M. Gillette); still living 1972, in Greentown [Howard Co.], IN (he was informant for his mother's death certificate); d. 21 Mar 2000 in Fort Worth, Tarrant Co., TX (SSDI). Robert m. Sharon E. Wilson on 30 Aug 1952, in Clay Co., MO; they were married by Methodist minister Roland A. Boone. (Original marriage certificate viewable in "Missouri Marriage Records" at ancestry.com.) Wife Sharon was b. 20 June 1930 in Braymer, MO, dau of Ernie Nathan & Ruby J. (Belshe) Wilson; she d. 14 Mar 2010 at her home in Columbia, MO. (All foregoing info about wife Sharon comes from her obit—see below.)

1940 Census – Robert is in his father's Kansas City, MO household.

Robert married Sharon Wilson in 1952, in Missouri.

The obituary of wife Sharon is posted at millardfamilychapels.com:

"Sharon Wilson Patterson, 79, of Columbia, Missouri, passed away Monday, March 15, 2010, at her residence. She was born on June 20, 1930, in Braymer, Missouri, to Ernie Nathan and Ruby J. Belshe Wilson...She is survived by her five children: Katherine Patterson Munoz and her husband Lee of Denver, Colorado; William Vance Patterson and his wife Jane of Fort Worth, Texas; Michael Wayne Patterson of Columbia, Missouri; Scott Wilson Patterson and his wife Sabine of Lodi, New York; and Heather Patterson Jones and her husband Randy of Columbia, Missouri; one brother, Christopher A. Wilson and his wife Leslie of Kansas City, MO; and two grandchildren: Blake Patrick Munoz of Orlando Florida; and Zachary Lee Jones of Columbia, Missouri...Graveside services...Wheeling Cemetery near Chillicothe, Missouri." My note: It seems strange that Robert & Sharon had 3 sons, but Sharon's obit names NO Patterson grandchildren! Note: Son Scott Wilson Patterson died just 4 days after his mother (see Scott's section below).

Continuing with children of Martin Van Buren & Genevieve (Burns) Patterson:

- F. Frederic Reynolds Patterson b. 2 Mar 1901 ("Mildred's Notes"). If, per "Mildred's Notes," Martin & Jennie truly did have a son named Frederic, he d. before 1910 (not listed on the 1910 census; not named in his mother's 1914 obit).

1910 Census – no son Frederic or Frederick is listed in widow Jennie's household in Weld Co., CO.

 "Nathaniel Patterson – born County Armagh Ireland possibly 1795 ? approx. died Dec 12 1867
[My note: error: see letter above where death date is "Nov 21, 1867] *He was only one of his family to migrate to _____. How he arrived in Clarion County Penna needs developed. Not much is known.

A known fact is he married Susan Carney of Easton, Penna on May 25, 1843.

He was previously married in Ireland to a young girl named Miss Beatty and there were no children born to this union.

In Clarion County a tale is told that Grandfather Nate outsmarted the darn British by hiding his carpentry tools in the ship's ballast when he was entout to America. The Limies had a law prohibiting mechanics from leaving the British Isles.

*Nathaniel and Susan (last name?) moved west and lived in Armstrong County for awhile. He taught his sons his trade and this is why we know just a little about his life. All sons were lumbermen.

Children born to Nathaniel and Susan:

Martin moved to Greely Colorado on account of T.B. and died in 1904. Except for Ethel and Howard most of the family died after they arrived in Colorado.

Rachael Adams (Addie) and Wyant (spelling?) Family - Not much known about this family

Barbara*, Martin, Forest, Russell, Ruth, Howard Vance

* Forest lived on the Emminger farm. After the death of the son, Bert, of Barbara Patterson and Chris Emminger, Aunt Barbara took Forest Wyant and raised him.

* Forest lived at Leeper, Pa. Mrs. Forest Wyant was a descendant of the Archibald Black & Peggy Hagarty family (these Blacks came from Donegal Ireland in 1797. Records at the time show a March 3, 1839 purchase of 164 acres of "additional land" by James Black son of Archibald & Peggy.

James Black's son married Susan Graham who has 10 children. John Black, a son, was given a piece of land along Maple Creek which was sold to my Grandfather and Uncle James and William Patterson.

James Beatty [maiden name of Nathaniel's (his father's) first wife] was born in Armstrong County Pa. according to my Uncle Jim (my mother's brother). He was living at Slaters Landing, Pa. when he took Sarah Jane McCloskey as his wife on May 18, 1880. He being Protestant and Sarah a Catholic they were married by a priest in Clarion, Pa. They went to Slaters Landing to live. He was a lumberman and until he moved to W. V. was engaged in the business near the Clarion River. He worked the forest of this area and (claims by relatives) worked closely with Anthony Wayne Cook of Cooksville. James is shown in a glass (colored) window in the burial mausoleum (near the Cook mansions) as a logger on Clarion River.

James was approximately 30 years old and Sarah Jane was 26 years old. Their first child Robert Micharl (1881-1952) was born at Slater's Landing (a place where his father was living at the time of marriage).

Nathaniel Joseph 1883-1940 was born Taylor Job River

James Harrison 1884-1961 was born at Alsbach Place

Norbert Lee 1886-19__ was born at Gravelick

Josephine Margaret 1887-1943 was born in Gravelick

Benedict Giles 1895-1976 was born in Voincle

[most of these relatives gave Crown, Pa as place of birth but Jim Patterson records them as shown above] [I add there was a difference of 1 to 2 years in records I have from other sources]

The Patterson family moved to Grafton West Virginia in 1897 after death of Sarah's mother in Clarion that same year.

A deed filed in Taylor County Courthouse reveals this date as purchasing an undeveloped lot on 247 Grand Street where they eventually built a home. In the meantime James was engaged in business (lumber) at Irontown and was a partner in the firm known as the Clarion Lumber Company.

In 1899 they moved to Mill Creek WVa (Randolph Co.) where he went into business with his brother William. They returned to Grafton in 1903 where he lived until 1921 when he died. In 1904 he took his two sons Jim and Norbert and some equipment and went to Nova Scotia where they did logging on the La Have River for the Davidson Lumber Company. After they returned to Grafton their children started to marry after attending local schools. "JB" continued to lumber until he became too old and tired to take care of his big barn and horses. The 1st World War was over and his sons (some were married by this time in 1918) and their wives went to the west coast to live and continue lumbering.

Sarah Jane returned to Crown and took up residence near her parents' home. In 1934 after the great depression of 1929 and the hardships of unemployment, she and her son Benedict returned to Grafton and took up residence at 24 East Washington Street near her daughter Josephine Flanagan. Her daughter Genevieve and granddaughter Betty who was born in Crown had returned to Grafton with her.

Sarah died on April 6, 1934 and is buried in Mt. Calvary Cemetery in the Fahey plot. Her son Nathan's wife was Stella Fahey a niece of Mrs. Thomas Joyce. It is in this family plot that she is buried.

[All the people listed below are deceased]

Robert married Jamie Belle Graw and stayed in Grafton all his life.

James Harrison married Isabel Casey and moved to Portland, Oregon.

Norbert married Mabel Leonard and joined Jim in Portland

Nathan married Stella Fahey and lived his years in Harrisburg, Pa

Genevieve married Lou Seibert and lived in Wheeing and El Paso, Texas. She later married a Mr. Carter after Lou's death.

Josephine married Dr. Harry Flanagan (a dentist) and they both lived in Grafton W. Va.

Benedict Giles (was in W War I to France) married Grace Moore of Parkersburg. After living many years in Grafton & later Parkersburg, WVa, both died in St. Petersburg, Fl. in 19__

Each of these children of James and Sarah had families. I do not know exact dates of all but carry on.

Robert Michael & Jamie Belle Graw had

Annabell became Mrs. Rex Satterfield

Mary Jo became Mrs. Roy Slaton

Francis became Joseph V. Gamsjager

Robert M., Jr. married

Charles Alfred married

Betty Jane remained single

I need to develop these cousins and name their offsprings because the sons children bear Patterson names. I am in touch with Frances and she'll send them to me.

"Jim Patterson Notes"
(1 page, dated 2007, titled, "Nathaniel Patterson and Family")

Nathaniel Patterson and Family

Nathaniel was our initial immigrant from Ireland. Believed to have been married to a Ms. Beatty (no evidence yet found) prior to emigration. Believed 1st wife passed on with no children to the union. Traveled from Belfast Ire arriving at the Port of Phila 8 Dec 1818 (Brig "Charlotte Lawrence") as per copy of ship manifest. Although there were other "Pattersons" on this voyage, it is believed that Nathaniel was the only one of his immediate family in this arrival group (although no evidence yet proves this out).

Other Patterson's on the emigration voyage included Alexander and Mary (Jameson) Patterson and their two children, Jane and David (Jameson) who were emigrating from their home in Poyntz Pas, County Armagh (As per Biography of David J Patterson). That family remained in Philadelphia with the parents passing on in 1824 (Alexander) and 1842 (Mary Jameson). Jane married Wm Brown abt 1839 in Philadelphia. David attended and graduated from the Univ of Pennsylvania, subsequently teaching Classical studies in the College prep school for another 10 years. After a few years traveling through the mid-west, he later moved to Brooklyn NY where he remained for the rest of his life. He founded a new Presbyterian congregation there in 1848. Married Susannah Cumming in 1853 and had three children. David passed on in 1899 in Brooklyn and is buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn NY. Susannah passed on in Brooklyn in 1905 and is buried with David in Greenwood Cemetery.

Nathaniel's whereabouts Dec 1818 to 1820 not evidenced as yet.

He lived 1820 til 1867 (year of his death) in Sugarcreek Twp (Now West Franklin Twp), Armstrong Cty, PA

First shows in 1820 Sugarcreek Twp, Armstrong Cty Federal census continues in subsequent censuses through 1860.

1. Nathaniel files Declaration of Intention to become US citizen 19 Dec 1820, Armstrong Cty Court, PA. (wherein he states that he arrived in US in November or December 1818 and has resided in the State of PA since that time – (Brig Charlotte Lawrence arrived 8 Dec 1818)
2. Naturalized as citizen 20 Sep 1825, Armstrong Cty Court, PA.
3. Cited in Armstrong Cty early history accounts as an early settler in Sugarcreek Twp in 1820 (Shows in Twp census for that year as well)
4. Nathaniel's 1st land purchase - 8 Sep 1828 - 50 acres in Sugarcreek Twp (later became West Franklin Twp), Armstrong Cty PA, bought from Enead and Bridget McBride (of Buffalo Twp, Armstrong Cty).
5. Nathaniel's 2nd land purchase - 193 acres bought under PA state patent, situated in Franklin (changed to West Franklin Twp in 1868) and Sugarcreek Townships, Armstrong Cty, PA. Parcel adjoined 1st land purchase (See # 4) on the North.
6. Property description for Nathaniel's Homestead (As per deed papers dtd Mar 6, 1867), described as "250 acres of land, more or less, situated in Franklin Twp (later becoming West Franklin Twp), Armstrong County ... About thirty five acres of which are cleared and under fence, eight acres of which are meadow with one grist mill, one saw mill, one farm dwelling house, one log dwelling house, one log stable and other out buildings thereon erected."
6. Nathaniel sells 250 acres (acquisitions in #4 & #5) for $ 2,650 to Philip Templeton (lately) at a Sheriff's sale on 6 Mar 1867 to settle debt of $ 425. (Judgement Armstrong Cty Court on 13 Oct 1862 – (Judgement record no longer available from Ct).
7. 9 Sep 1867 Nathaniel (said of Franklin Twp, Armstrong Cty) buys one-half interest in 152 acres straddling Barnett Twp, Forest Cty and Farmington Twp, Clarion Cty from Sylvester Black (said of Sugarcreek Twp.) (This parcel was part of PA Patent # 3318).

For early history and life in Armstrong Cty, PA see "Beer's History of Armstrong County Pa, Her People, Past and Present" which covers the 1800's in detail at the time Nathaniel and his family lived there. (On Web).

Info received from Bob Patterson about autosomal matches:

As of February, 2019 Bob Patterson had 20 autosomal DNA matches (18 at Ancestry.com and 2 at FTDNA) with people who have Crothers (and variant spellings of Crothers) listed as ancestors. Bob wrote 2/26/19: "There are no Crothers in the maternal line or the paternal grandmother's line. The maternal great grandparents immigrated from Germany, Poland and Bohemia about 1870 and their ancestry is known to about 1800. The ancestry of the paternal grandmother is known to early colonial times and no Crothers have been found."

See my separate paper on "Alexander Patterson...and his descendants" posted on this website to understand how autosomal matches with persons of the Crothers surname supports the conjecture that Nathaniel, the subject of this paper, was Alexander's son.
