

JANET BELLANTUONO

CERTIFICATION

American Speech-Language-Hearing Association (ASHA)
Certificate of Clinical Competence, Speech-Language Pathology

WORK EXPERIENCE

NYC Department of Education, NY Sept. 2005 - Present
Teacher of Speech Improvement

- Formulate and implement differentiated lesson plans for high school 12:1:4 population of students using a variety of static and dynamic display augmentative and alternative communication devices and picture boards.
- Administer informal and formal testing to access students' expressive and receptive skills.
- Conduct individual, and small group push in delivery service model instruction.
- Collaborate with classroom teachers and other related service providers for team based approach IEP goals and objectives.
- Record daily results, and Sesis encounter attendance to track student progress.
- Developed and conduct daily student mealtime choice making using picture communication boards and devices, and assist in feeding medically fragile students.
- Supervised three student interns from St. John's and C.W. Post.
- Train and instruct paraprofessionals on techniques and safe feeding protocols.
- Conduct Parent workshops on all aspects of communication.
- Junior facilitator for yoga program "Get Ready to Learn."
- Chairperson Scholastic annual Book fair.

CLINICAL PRACTICE

Mercy Medical Center, Rockville Centre, NY Summer 2004
Student Intern

- Observed and actively engaged in speech therapy for adult patients with aphasia and dysarthria as a result of traumatic brain injuries and strokes.
- Assisted in swallowing and bedside evaluations.

Birch Elementary School, Merrick, NY Fall 2003
Student Teacher

- Conducted individual and group therapy sessions to learning disabled students.
- Assisted in Standardized test administration.

EDUCATION

Adelphi University, Garden City, NY August 2005
Master of Science in Speech Language Pathology
GPA: 3.56

Queens College, Flushing, NY August 2002
Bachelor of Arts in Speech Pathology

Kingsborough Community College, Brooklyn, NY August 1980
Associate Degree in Liberal Arts

MEMBERSHIP

American Speech Hearing Association (ASHA) Since Sept. 2005