YOUTH CHAPLAIN'S MESSAGE

Dearly Beloved in Christ,

As we welcome the fifth month of the year, it is a time when many of our youths are facing exams. As we look into the first week of the lectionary, we understand the theme: “Dignity of Labor and Divine Commissioning”. Our life is full of labor. If we are students, we are laboring; if we are working, we are laboring. Labor is tiring but it is part of life. It is the question for whom we are laboring that matters. Especially as students in this season of studying, why and for whom are we studying for? We see in the Gospel portion for May 1: St. John 21:1-14, we see the disciples were fishing and toiling all night but still caught nothing. They were not able to see the result. When we do not see the results of our labor, it hurts us, and it is frustrating. We would feel like giving up. The Lord saw them and told them to set the net out again, they caught a great overwhelming number of fish and it was great! We should also persevere in our life and keep trying without losing hope. There will be seasons of failures, but if we know we are laboring for the Lord and not ourselves, in His time we can see how much of a blessing we are. We just must commit ourselves to being faithful to God as He has always been faithful to us.

This month, we will be having our Fifth Sunday NERYF Praise and Worship night at the Epiphany MTC on May 29th, 2022, at 5:00 P.M. Our love and prayers go out to all of our youths taking the finals. We are awaiting a well-deserved summer break to see all of you.

God bless everyone and have a blessed May!

Much love,

Jess M. George Achen
