He passed his test!

A New Therapy Dog!

As a certified Therapy Dog, Mario (aka "Rio") will be the permanent companion of his Handler (Fr. Jim) and will be allowed to make official therapeutic visits to nursing homes, hospitals and other facilities upon invitation and presentation of credentials. Sometimes the best medicine is a wet nose and a wagging tail!

In Blessed Repose... please remember the soul of +DONALD KOZAR who fell asleep in the Lord and was buried from our parish last Saturday. To his wife, Kathleen, as well as to his children, Donald Jr., and Stephen, as well as to his grandchildren, and his sister, Lorraine, and all his family and friends we extend our heartfelt condolences! Special thanks to the members of Carteret Fire Department who attended the Funeral to serve as pallbearers for their departed +Captain Donald. May his memory be eternal!

Please remember in your prayers, the soul of +FATHER IURII VISCHAK, 41, who was scheduled to serve in America at our parish of St. Michael's in Allentown, but fell asleep in the Lord in Eastern Europe prior to his arrival. He leaves behind a wife, Natalia, as well as two teenage daughters, Anna and Nadia, as well as a teenage son, Anthony. May his memory be eternal!

VOLUNTEER APPRECIATION LUAU—Sunday, August 12th at 4PM!
