NARRATIVE

Evt #08322 In summary, RDs were notified by [PERSON REPORTING OFFENSE] [REDACTED] that a cell phone was found by [REDACTED] [PERSON REPORTING OFFENSE] [REDACTED] further related that a [REDACTED] could not locate the owner of this phone and upon viewing the phones contents, believed there to be Human Trafficking related materials on it. [PERSON REPORTING OFFENSE] [REDACTED] wished to have the phone turned over to the police for further investigation.

RD's relocated to the shelter located at 2241 S. Halsted St. and met with [PERSON REPORTING OFFENSE] [REDACTED] and [V] [REDACTED] who turned over possession of the phone to RD's. [REDACTED] related that the phone was provided to her [REDACTED] was given this phone by [REDACTED] that found this phone in the women's restroom area on 19 FEB 24 at approximately 1600. Since none of the shelter residents had come looking for a missing cell phone, [REDACTED] turned the phone over to [V] [REDACTED] and provided a handwritten letter of how the phone was found.

[V] [REDACTED] opened the phone in attempts to locate an owner and discovered several text messages and WhatsApp messages that had been sent in the last several days. [REDACTED] viewed several of the text message threads and observed conversations consistent with the sale of sexual acts for money. These text messages included times, locations, descriptions of sexual acts provided, the use of condoms and prices for various sex acts. [V] [REDACTED] identified at least ten conversations which included these details. In these text chat conversations [V] [REDACTED] observed that pictures of different women in various stages of disrobe were sent to the different message threads. [V] [REDACTED] identified the website daddyslist.com used as advertisement for the women that were responding in the text message threads. [V] [REDACTED] related that several text message alerts and phone calls came into the phone overnight since the phone was found.

RD's knowing this to be consistent with the advertisement for Human Trafficking related services, took possession of the phone and the handwritten letter and inventoried it under 15465316 under a hold for further investigation.
