

Congratulations!

HUNTERSVILLE — The Diocese of Charlotte gained six new priests on Saturday, June 14, as they were ordained by Bishop Michael Martin at St. Mark Church in Huntersville.

The new priests are Father Christopher Angermeyer, Father Anthony del Cid Lucero, Father Nicholas Kramer, Father Kolbe Murrey, Father Andrew Templeton and Father Joseph Yellico.

Seeking a clear vision of what God wants will be their new life's mission, he told the men.

"The rest of your life will be a journey of clarity. Will you see clearly through the haze and the fog that sometimes our world presents?" he asked. "Your vision in this moment is not just important for you, but it's important for the entire church now. Because where you will lead because of what you see is where others will follow."

~ Catholic News Herald

Congratulations!

Our own Reverend Nicholas Kramer celebrated his first public Mass on Sunday, June 15th at The Basilica of St. Lawrence.

