Feast of St. Margaret Mary

Mass 6pm (Bi-lingual)

“Bells of Hope” Celebratory Reception in Parish Hall

We honor our patroness, St. Margaret Mary Alacoque, who has guided us through 89 years of faithful service to the people in the Swannanoa Valley and beyond. With the grace of God and the patronage of St. Margaret Mary, we are positioned to improve our church facility in order to continue our legacy in this beautiful valley. We are celebrating St. Margaret Mary and the launch of Bells of Hope. Why “Bells of Hope?” Here is the story:

On Saturday, October 5, 2024 in the aftermath of Hurricane Helene, a man named Luke was visiting in Grovemont park with throngs of people seeking assistance. Later in the day people started cheering. He asked “why are you cheering?” Several folks shouted with joy “the bells of St. Margaret Mary are ringing again!” Our bells were signs of hope for the community...they always have been. Our Bells of Hope Capital Campaign is our opportunity to ensure that these bells continue to ring for many future generations. Just like the Beacon Manufacturing employees labored to establish our parish, we must boldly step forward to keep these bells ringing, long after we have gone to our eternal reward.

Join us at the reception on October 16th to learn more about our “Bells of Hope Capital Campaign”.
