New Air Force Display

We debuted a new popup display at the Air Mobility Command Museum at Dover AFB. Featuring uniforms from the Air WAC to Vietnam to present day, we paid tribute to the women who made Air Force History.

She Served HERE! We Are Going to Pearl Harbor: December 4–8, 2026

Letter from Our Founder

Over the past six months, we’ve heard from many of you that it hasn’t always been easy to find information about our events and programs. We’re listening! We’re going to try a monthly newsletter to make it easier to stay connected, find upcoming events, and follow along with the stories and history that we’re working so hard to preserve and share.

We’re always looking for new ways to bring these important stories to more people and we hope this newsletter will help keep everyone informed and involved. This newsletter is modeled after many WWII newsletters written by the women, including the IOWAVE, a monthly newsletter written by Navy WAVES stationed at the US Naval Training School in Cedar Falls, IA. You can see a PDF of the IOWAVE here

Thank you for being a part of the 3-5-0 Girls Community!

We are honored to announce that 3-5-0 Girls is traveling to Hawaii to participate in the 85th Anniversary Commemorations of the attack on Pearl Harbor

Our visit will include research at the Hawaii State Archives and Schoefield Barracks, a popup display aboard the USS Missouri, and a presentation by our founder Mel Bloom at the MCAS Ewa Ceremony.

We’re humbled to attend this significant commemoration and honor those who served and sacrificed.
