ANA is a Melbourne based symphonic metal band consisting of members who have individually achieved various awards and accolades in their previous bands and have now come together to bring you a new and exciting musical project.

Ana Hristenko (Vocals) - A classically trained singer who has her roots in opera and has also spent many years performing pop music throughout South East Asia.

Josh Mak (Guitars) - Frontman and primary songwriter for hard rock band, Cynation. Josh's work with Cynation has won multiple awards, most notably the 2020 Best Music Video at the International Film Makers Festival of New York.

Cleveland Beckford Gonzales (Drums) - Founding member, drummer and songwriter for the Panamanian Metalcore band, Watch Me Face It.

Tory Giamba (Bass) - A highly experienced session player in the Aussie scene. Former member of Carmeria and has previously toured as the live bassist for Pseudo Echo.

Matt Williamson (Keys) - The youngest member of the band and also an exceptionally gifted keyboardist who is well versed and proficient in many genres.

With a debut single just released ANA plans to play a lot of gigs this year with a tour in the works.
