National First Vice President, National Second Vice President and Immediate Past National President (IPNP) will review all National Appeal requests to determine if proper procedure had been followed. If the procedures are found to be in question, the Appeals Committee will set a date and time for the Appeals Hearing. The decision resulting from the National Appeals procedure shall be binding and final.

DEPARTMENT LEVEL

If the Department has violated the rights of a member or Auxiliary then the charges shall be in writing, signed and filed with the Department President. The Department President then shall, within fifteen (15) days, initiate the Department's Appeals process. If the member or Auxiliary wishes to appeal the Department's decision on the alleged violation of their rights on the Department level, then the member or Auxiliary may appeal, within twenty (20) days, in writing clearly stating where the Department has violated the rights of the member as outlined in Article XII and signed, to the National President. The National President shall then initiate the National Appeals procedure. The National Appeals Committee will review all National Appeals request to determine if proper procedures have been followed. If the procedures are found to be in question, the Appeals Committee will set a date and time for the Appeals meeting. The decision resulting from the National Appeals procedure shall be binding and final.

NATIONAL LEVEL

If a Department, Auxiliary or a member determines that their rights have been violated on the National level then charges shall be, in writing and signed, and filed with the National President. The National President shall initiate the Appeals procedure. The Appeals Committee consisting of the National First Vice President, National Second Vice President and IPNP will review all National Appeal requests to determine if proper procedures have been followed. The National Parliamentarian will send copies of all correspondence to the Appeals Committee either by mail or electronically. The Appeals Committee will review all documentation and determine if there is a need for an Appeals Committee. The National President shall forward all information to the National Parliamentarian. The National Parliamentarian will send the decision to the National President, who will then notify all members of the decision of the National Appeals Committee with explanation of the reason for their decision. If the procedures are found to be in question, the Appeals Committee will set a date and time for the Appeals Meeting, to be held at the Spring N.E.C. Meeting or National Convention. The decision resulting from this Appeals procedure may be appealed at the next Executive Committee meeting. The decision of the National Executive Committee shall be binding and final. Specific charges cannot be re-filed on any level. Any discussion of grievance, local problems, or claims concerning an individual with respect to her personal interests pertaining to the Appeals Hearing or previous grievance meeting will not be discussed outside the Appeals Hearing and will not be permitted in the N.E.C. Meeting or Convention floor.

The National Parliamentarian shall send either by mail or electronically results of the Appeals Committee to the National President.

The National President shall send a certified letter to the accused and the Department President of the decision of the National Appeals Committee, within thirty (30) days.

The seriousness and possible legal ramifications of the above should at all times be considered. The constitutional rights and responsibilities of membership shall always be the first priority. Personality conflicts and problems are not an issue for infringing on the members constitutional rights. Problems from the Post Clubroom are under the jurisdiction of AMVETS or licensing laws and shall be handled by AMVETS.

TRUSTEESHIP

The Department Executive Board, after notification from the Department President and Department Parliamentarian, along with written documentation justifying the reason for Trusteeship, may suspend or revoke the charter or place under Trusteeship a Local Auxiliary for good and sufficient cause or based on information obtained through Grievance and Appeals process and notify the National President and National Parliamentarian.

For good and sufficient reasons, the Department President with the approval of the Department Executive Board may designate a trusteeship of a Local Auxiliary. This is to help with the operations and help solve problems, by overseeing the actions within the Local Auxiliary. Copies of any action shall be provided to the National President and National Parliamentarian.

The National Executive Board, after written notice and hearing before a Committee, which includes the NEC and Dept. President may cancel, suspend, or revoke the Charter of any Department for good and sufficient cause. The National Parliamentarian shall prescribe procedures for any such action. In the event of the suspension or revocation of the Charter of any Department, the suspended body shall have the right to appeal to the next National Convention.

The Department Parliamentarian shall prescribe specific outcomes to be achieved by the Local Auxiliary which are clear, specific, and measurable. The Trusteeship shall be reviewed by the Department Executive Board at an SEC Meeting and Department Convention.

For good and sufficient reasons, the National President with the approval of the National Executive Board may designate Trusteeship of a Department and/or a Local Auxiliary. This is to help with the operation and help solve problems, by overseeing the actions within the Department.
