BLC BRIEF PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Placement Test: All ESL applicants must take a placement test to determine appropriate ESL level. The scores are used to place students in the appropriate course levels.

Intensive English Course: This course is a 30-lesson per week course. It is highly desired for international students seeking I-20 (F1 Student Visa) and/or to transfer to a university or college level education in the US. In this course we cover all of the major language skills including: grammar, vocabulary, conversation, pronunciation, listening comprehension, reading, and writing. All intermediate and advanced students also have a choice of electives two afternoons per week.

Semi-Intensive English Course: This course is a 24-lesson per week course. This is also a highly desired course for international students seeking I-20 (F1 Student Visa) and/or to transfer to a university of college level education in the US.

Comprehensive English Course: This course is a 20-lesson per week course. This course is not intended for international students seeking I-20 (F1 Student Visa), but rather for individuals seeking to improve their English communication skills.

Business Development English Course: This course is a total of 32-lesson per week, 3 months' program. English for the professional course. This course is not intended for international students seeking I-20 (F1 Student Visa), but rather for business men/woman seeking to improve their overall English language professional reading, speaking and writing skills.

One-On-One English Course: This is a 20-lesson per week course that is designed on a case-by-case basis. It is not intended for international students seeking I-20 (F1 Student Visa). This course could apply for a very broad range (and age) of students. Students that need to learn the alphabet to students that have other advanced individualized learning needs. The personal teacher may be able to even work around the student's availability as long as 20-lessons are scheduled per week.

Casual Learner English Course: This course is a 10 to 30-lesson per week course, intended for tourists or any individual seeking to improve their overall English language skills. This course is not intended for international students seeking I-20 (F1 Student Visa). The student has the choice of enrolling in one or more sections as listed below and in the student catalog.

IELTS or TOEFL iBT Preparation Program: This program is composed of 120 lessons and is designed to prepare students for the IELTS or TOEFL iBT exam.
