

FEBRUARY 2026

Xena Mae (George) is 2 years old now. Her cute personality is really blooming! She has quite the sense of humor and is 'up' to try anything new. She really enjoys their new home outside of Townsend.

She is always on the go with an occasional break to catch a 'Bluey' cartoon or get a drink of water and a snack.

21 people attended Xena's 2nd Birthday Celebration. She had the time of her life enjoying the usual birthday activities.

Rusty and Kreston (now 11 yrs) also had birthdays in February. They came over to enjoy a little fishing in the ponds. Kreston is growing leaps and bounds!

NO SNOW, No Winter Fun ... for us here the folks back east are getting our winter this year....

Kwinci & Mitch brought Aila over for a visit at the end of the month. No snow, so we were not able to sleigh ride. Instead they came for waffle and bacon breakfast then Aila and Kwinci went with Papa Sid to feed the steers.

.....The NEW Oven Saga....

Believe it Or Not.... The brand new oven was faulty! We installed it and the electrician wired it.. so far so good... then we turned it on. YIKES! The heat displacement fan was making a loud scraping noise and the convection fan seemed wobbly and it was making noise too. The electrician unwired it for safety sake. We had to wait almost 2 more weeks for a technician to come and for the electrician to wire it up again. Well, the tech turned it on and it made no loud sounds! He thought a piece of debris might have caused the loud sounds but all seems clear now. I have baked, roasted and broiled with no problems.

Valentine's Day came and went... I didn't even decorate for it this year. Sid and I did share a little bag of chocolate hearts though.

Now we move on to St. Pat's Day. Decorations will be up and the traditional Corned Beef with cabbage, potatoes, carrots and soda bread meal will be prepared.

Happy St Patrick's Day

Don't forget to wear Green! Sid & Irene
