The most amazing fart EVER!

The performance played here and now. The children audiences enjoying active participation! These two made the everyday's play newly completed. They could be a leading creator making the sound which has not existed in the world, being a problem solver of the fart incident.

Vivid story bringing imagination!

Can the children nowadays feel the warm affection of the old stories chatted together? They have become unimaginative in the world of fancy toys and spectacles. This is the monodrama and the performer transforms into various characters only with simple props and movements. The children will experience that they could picture anything in their mind's eye through the lively communication.

Delightful table of the spirit!

Masil is a professional theatre group creating children's play for more than 18 years. Masil has made the performances with the heart of preparing the table for their spirit and soul. This is an amusing family play not only for children but also for their parents. It could present a wonderful time and happy memory that you could talk with over and over again.

Synopsis

What if there's a planet that we have to hold in our fart and we go there? The farting lady, BBongsoon, who has to fart at least twice in a week get married into the a family in the Golden star where she must not fart. To adapt herself to new circumstances, she holds her fart desperately. She, however, finds her stomach getting flatulent and can't stand the pain anymore. She starts to search for the way to fart secretly and...
