To Whom It May Concern,

It is my great pleasure and honor to write this letter of recommendation on behalf of Melissa Moncrieffe.

I came to know Melissa when she worked with both of my daughters and many other children at Imagination Central, a wonderful school for music, theatre, visual arts and creativity with a focus on self-confidence and positive self-esteem. Melissa and her team developed a program built around IMAGINATION, exploration, creative thinking and problem solving with the arts as the vehicle. She fostered a free thinking experience for the kids that allowed them to go out of the box and see new perspectives by exploring the arts.

The reason this program was so successful and so positively impacted my daughters and their peers is because Melissa had a big hand in the school. She is brilliant and her work with the children is simply amazing. She is so patient, non-judgmental, and helped each child work at their own pace. Everything she taught was hands-on, and applied so that different age levels could relate in a creative way. Melissa also very creatively tied everything together as something that can be used in the "real world" with follow-up and ongoing coaching. This gave the children confidence in their own abilities. Still today, both of my daughters continue piano and enjoy art and music because of the positive exposure they received as children working with Melissa at the school.

Melissa leads in a very non-threatening way. She leads by encouraging and helping others think outside the box to realize their fullest potential. She loves to serve others and in doing so, helps us be servants to others. Leading by example is her strength.

Getting to know the Melissa through Imagination Central was a blessing for our family. I would back her 100% with any venture that involves helping and leading others. She is educated, smart, well rounded, and an incredible communicator who knows no limits. She sees possibilities around her and in others that no one else can. Her heart and mind is always in the right place...always serving others.

Melissa has my highest recommendation. She will have a huge impact on global education and touch many lives.

Please contact me if you have any questions or would like further information.

Sincerely,
