Tampa Bay Bondage Club Meeting Minutes/August 7, 2026

12 members, 1 guest and 1 pledge attended the August meeting at the Palmetto home of Craig C. It was a cloudy day and the pool temperature had dipped into the “shrinkage” zone for clothing optional swimming.

Upcoming Flogging Night at Mr. D’z on August 22nd was discussed. Bingo at Cocktail on August 17th. The July Bingo night brought $410 in donations. Prizes for August and September are Booze Bags, Halloween decor for October, and Hot Wax for November.

Tim T. reported the seemingly never-ending TBBC bead supply has indeed come to an end. He was also looking for TBBC members to attend the Ybor Youth Clinic art show at The Bricks on August 22nd. The clinic has been a past recipient of TBBC donations.

Jim P. reported good turnout for TBBC club night at the Purple Rhino in Sarasota. However, participation at our Mr. D’z event in July was so-so. Ideas were floated to do hoods, straightjackets and electro more often at D’z. But The Flogging Will Continue!

Ross S. mentioned the Metropolitan Community Church 55th Anniversary this year.

Jeff J. brought up a tentative schedule for the club by-law review: Finish the review and mark-up in time for October’s meeting and vote on them in November. The board voted to approve. The board also approved of putting TBBC club minutes online at tampabaybondageclub.com.

Jeff J. pitched doing a bondage “show” at Alphabet Soup in Gulfport on October 9th. The idea of a three-ring bondage circus was discussed - flogging, straightjackets and hoods, and electro. TBBC would also have access to a secure space in Alphabet Soup for mature entertainment, for a suggested donation. The board agreed to pursue the idea after Labor Day.

Business concluded. Luis L. demoed his sophisticated line of handmade men’s leather clothing, bondage wear and accessories. This completed Luis’ qualifications for TBBC membership.

The meeting adjourned at 8:59pm.
