Hi Karen,
thank you so much for your message and for sharing this – it's beautiful to hear how the music resonated with so many people last year!

Malte will be taking a bit of a pause in April after the spring tour, so he won't be available as a speaker this time. You're very welcome to use the music again during your summit for breaks and sessions, just like last year. And yes, you can also continue using the coupon code.

Thank you for the meaningful work you're doing and for sharing the music with your community.

Warm regards,
Eve
