Please Note: We cannot consider nominees with incomplete or inaccurate information. In areas where something is in question, please notate that in the submission. It is preferred that information is presented in a chronological manner. When presenting it is a good rule of thumb to present information in a way that someone many years from now (that has never heard of the nominee) can read the bio information and see merit in that individual’s induction.

If questions arise, we may need to reach out the get additional information of seek clarity.

A submission is not a guarantee that the nominee will be inducted. It instead places them in front of the Hall of Fame Board for discussion. The board will deliberate, vote, and place a “Very Limited” number of people in the hall annually. Those who do not get in will remain eligible for future induction classes. For those inducted, a professional Bio will be built using the factual documented information provided on these nomination forms.
