Pastor's Ponderings

The Rev. Emma Horn

Friends, Happy Easter! Christ is Risen, he is risen indeed! May this poem by Christine Sine offer you words of hope and encouragement this week!.

Hold your head high, Christ has risen
Rejoice and shout
Christ has come calling us home
Home to the heart of God
Home to God's living presence
Home to God's banquet feast

Hold your head high, Christ has risen
Death has been conquered
Christ has come calling us home
He has renewed and restored us
All that was broken has been made whole
All that was dislocated has been set right

Hold your head high, Christ has risen
Carry forward God's healing
Christ has come calling us home
To a world where truth and justice triumph
To a place where abundance flourishes
To a community where generosity flourishes

Hold your head high, Christ has risen
Christ has come calling us home
Your redemption is complete
God's eternal world has begun
Love reigns over all
Hallelujah, Hallelujah, Hallelujah
Christ has risen indeed.

A very special thank you to ALL those who contributed to a beautiful and meaningful Holy Week! Due to their combined flexibility and creativity, LBPC was able to provide a variety of worship experiences and Easter celebrations to more people than we've been able to reach in a long time. A real blessing for all of us!

He is risen! He is risen indeed!

“There are three ways to ultimate success: The first way is to be kind. The second way is to be kind. The third way is to be kind.”
—MISTER ROGERS

Mark your calendar! April 17th LBPC will be hosting a day to honor Mr. Rogers (rescheduled from March 20th). This is an event for the whole family. There will be a prayer walk, Mr. Roger's dress-up, trivia games, snacks, some Mr. Roger's Neighborhood episodes, and a showing of A Beautiful Day in the Neighborhood, starring Tom Hanks.
