THANK YOU!

At long last we were finally able to celebrate the milestone of LBPC's 300th anniversary, and what a celebration it was! On Thursday there was time for prayer and mediation culminating with evening worship guided by beautiful music and scripture. Friday was a church reception and concert. Saturday was a day of service at Urban promise, and Sunday was the conclusion with a wonderful worship service and fabulous celebratory brunch. Over the past few days there has been prayer, worship, service, fellowship and celebration. We've reconnected with friends not seen in a long time. Praise God!

The members and staff wish to extend a very heartfelt "thank you" to everyone involved in the planning and execution of last week's festivities. Countless hours of planning and preparation have taken place over several years and we are so grateful to everyone involved and everyone who participated. Each one of you helped make it a success. Here's to the next 300 years.

JOYS AND CONCERNS FROM OCTOBER 17, 2021

Our pastor's contact information can be found on the front page of this newsletter. Pastor Emma is available for conversation and prayer. Also, please continue to share your joys and concerns with us so that we may continue to support each other in specific prayer requests.

Joys and concerns may be submitted to the office via email or by phone. We check messages regularly.

Please let us know of answers to prayer – so that we can give thanks to God!

We are sad to announce the passing of Lois Martino on Wednesday, October 13 at the age of 96. A link to her obituary may be found HERE.

The Lovelace's have provided an update on Kelly Soliman: She is at home recovering. We deeply appreciate all the prayers and food and companionship that has come her way during this challenging time. The best news is that the cancer has not invaded her lymph nodes. Thanks be to our loving and faithful God.
