Pastor's Ponderings

The Rev. Emma Horn

Friends,

Soon we will be coming upon the one year anniversary of the corona virus' grip on our nation. Although each person's experience during the last year has been different, almost all of us have dealt with some sort of loss or deep grief. Across the United States and around the world, many have lost their lives or the lives of loved ones. In some cases, those deaths have occurred in scared isolation without being able to say goodbye or receive a kind of comfort or closure in that loss.

Others have found themselves unemployed and without enough income to support their families. Their futures becoming more and more uncertain. Still others have felt a deep sense of isolation, whether due to limitations imposed in their residences or because of distance from friends and loved ones. Many have felt the pain that comes with the inability to fully celebrate significant events in their lives and the lives of others- weddings, birth of children, anniversaries and so much more. Some have felt a loss of connection with people they love or respect due to differences of opinion. As a world, we've had to redefine what it means to be in community with each other and what it looks like to love and take care of each other during this difficult time.

However, even in the midst of this deep grief and loss, we also have seen moments of hope and beauty. Communities have creatively found ways to come together and support each other. People have become aware of systems that need to be corrected in their own community and are working to make these changes. Some families have reconnected in new ways. Even in this time of deep grief and loss, there is still beauty and great love

Over the next few days, you may find yourself spending time thinking about these and so many other things that have happened in the last year. You may feel anger, grief, sadness, or a complicated soup of emotions that you can not name. In the midst of these feelings, know that you are loved by God, to whom you can always go to in prayer. Know too that I, Pastor Emma, am available for prayer or if you need to talk through the things you are feeling. Below is a practice that I find helpful; some refer to it as a grounding practice. May it help to center you in this overwhelming time.

- 1)Pause-write down 3 emotions that you are feeling
- 2)Dig deeper- write down your opinion of what's happening and how you feel about it.
- 3)Speak and listen-find a trusted friend. Share your feelings, opinion, and perspective. Invite them to share theirs too.
- 4)Trust your feelings- your feelings are real and valid. Don't doubt yourself.
- 5)Breathe and pray- God is with us when we are joyful, scared, angry and grieving. Take 5 deep breaths and know God is with you.

Friends, know that you are loved by God and that God is working and moving even now.

Donations of Required Minimum Distributions from Retirement Accounts

Did you know that you can make a donation of all or a portion of the Required Minimum Distribution from your retirement account to tax exempt charities, such as Lower Brandywine Presbyterian Church and your donation will be tax exempt?

Here's how it works. If a person is at least age 70½, they must take at least a minimum distribution from their IRA or incur a penalty equal to one-half of the otherwise required minimum distribution amount. They may take more than the minimum at their discretion. These individuals may instruct their IRA account manager to distribute any amount of their choosing to one or more tax exempt charities such as Lower Brandywine Presbyterian.

When that is done, it is considered to be a tax-exempt contribution. Lower Brandywine would acknowledge to the giver the receipt of that contribution from their IRA. Also, this contribution is tax exempt even if the individual does not itemize deductions for income tax purposes because the IRA account manager would not identify this to the IRS as reportable income in accordance with the tax code.
