

The 118th Congress:
What it Means for Federal Public Land Agencies.

April 16th-17th, 2024
The Egan Center - 555 W. Fifth Ave,
Anchorage, AK 99501

All Aboard: Welcome!

This class will provide an objective assessment of any priority shifts based on the Biden Administration and the congressional composition of the 118th Congress. The impact of these priorities on Federal Public Land Agency policies and programs will be discussed.

The main topics covered in this class will be:

1. Current Political Party Leaders in the House and Senate
2. Senate and House Committees and Subcommittees with Jurisdiction over Federal Public Land Agencies
3. President's Biden's Budget Request for FY 2025 and its impact on Federal Public Land Agencies
4. Working with Congress

The fee for this course is $650/person. It includes materials on congress, morning and afternoon snacks, and instruction. Registration details and further information may be obtained by contacting woods@woodsinsitute.com and payment may be made using either a government credit card or with an SF-182

Dr. Patricia D. Woods, president, and founder of Woods Institute of Washington, DC, is the chief instructor. She has taught courses on Congress in Washington and for federal agency field staff from the USDA Forest Service, the National Park Service, the Bureau of Land Management, the Bureau of Indian Affairs, the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, the Environmental Protection Agency, and the Naval Air Community. She has taught similar classes for federal and state agencies and American citizens across the country.