

WOODS INSTITUTE

Linking you with the United States Government

The New 118th Congress Begins:
What it Means for Your Agency
Anchorage, AK, January 18-19, 2023
Egan Center

Woods Institute is pleased to offer a Field Class on the 2022 Midterm Election results and outlooks for the 118th Congress. This two-day in person class will provide an objective assessment of how any priority shifts of the Biden Administration and new Congress may impact your agency.

Federal employees must know about the legislative and budget processes on Capitol Hill that affect their agency. Knowledge of these processes and the significance of the President's Budget Request for the fiscal year of 2023 will provide participants with the tools to effectively implement federal policy in the field. Guest speakers from Alaska congressional offices will be invited as well as Alaska federal agency legislative affairs and budget staff.

The main topics covered in the Course are:

1. Current Political Party Leaders in the House and Senate
2. Senate and House Committees and Subcommittees with Jurisdiction over your Agency
3. President's Biden's Budget Request for FY 2023 and its impact on your Agency
4. Working with Congress
5. Outlooks for the 118th Congress

Further details and registration fees may be obtained by contacting woods@woodsinsitute.com. Registration includes copies of all slides, materials on congress, morning and afternoon snacks, and instruction. Payment methods include either a government credit card or an SF-182.

Dr. Patricia D. Woods, president, and founder of Woods Institute of Washington, DC, is the chief instructor. She has taught courses on Congress in Washington and for federal agency field staff from the USDA Forest Service, the National Park Service, the Bureau of Land Management, the Bureau of Indian Affairs, the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, the Environmental Protection Agency, and the Naval Air Community. She has taught similar classes for federal and state agencies and American citizens across the country.