Pusey Family Has Nineteenth Annual Reunion Sunday

The nineteenth reunion of the descendants of Issac W. and Mary Jane Pusey was held at Milbourne's Landing on Sunday, August 22, with sixty-seven descendants and two guests.

A welcome was extended by the president, Preston Bounds, after which the blessing was asked by Fred Cherrix, which was followed by a buffet dinner.

Harvey C. Pusey gave a report on the family heritage, which covered the accomplishments of Caleb Pusey, who settled at Upland, Pa. in the year 1683, built the first corn mill, and served in various ways as a leader with his friend, William Penn, in a governing capacity in the community. In connection with Pennsylvania Heritage an account was given of the life of Joshua Pusey, a Philadelphia attorney who invented the paper match book in the year 1889 and was granted a patent for it in 1892.

Gifts were presented to Mr. and Mrs. William J. Bounds, Mrs. Bounds being the only surviving child, and to the following daughters-in-law: Mrs. Nora Pusey, Mrs. Sally Pusey, and Mrs. Mammie Pusey, and Mr. and Mrs. John Bowen newest married couple.

Officers elected to serve another year were Preston Bounds, President; Hilda Shockley, Vice-President; Lillian Disharoon, Secretary; Marie Bounds, asst.-Secretary; Joanne White, Treasurer; and Harvey C. Pusey and Gladys Ingolia co-historians. It was decided to hold the 20th annual reunion at Milbourne's Landing on the fourth Sunday in August, 1966, and after singing Blest be the tie that Binds, benediction was pronounced by Harvey C. Pusey.
