

Queen Contest

NHSRA Queen Contest Information Packet (link)

The NHSRA Queen Contest is a competition for the girls of each state and province in the National High School Rodeo Association.

To qualify for the National High School Finals Rodeo competition, contestants must be the winners of their state/provincial queen contests and chosen to represent that state/province and must meet other eligibility requirements.

Girls who have just completed their senior year in high school are not eligible.

The NHSRA Queen is selected based on her judged performance in these eight categories: Modeling, Personality, Appearance, Personal Interview, Prepared Speech, Impromptu Speech, Written Test, and Horsemanship.

Any girl interested in the Queen Contest should contact the Ohio Queen Coordinator
(listed under the "Contact Us" tab at www.ohiohighschoolrodeo.org)
