

Today, I am proud to announce that I officially filed for a place on the ballot to serve as the next County Clerk of Dallas County. This moment represents more than a candidacy, it reflects my commitment to strengthening our community through transparent, efficient, and accessible public service.

I am honored to have the endorsement of our current County Clerk, John Warren, whose leadership has built a strong foundation for this office. His confidence in my ability to continue that work is deeply meaningful.

My career has been devoted to public service. I served as a Senior Staffer to the late Congresswoman Eddie Bernice Johnson, helping advance federal initiatives that shaped the lives of families across North Texas. I also led Intergovernmental Relations at Dallas ISD, advocating for students and educators while building collaborative partnerships throughout the county.

As I begin this journey, I truly hope I can count on your support and endorsement. Together, we can ensure that Dallas County continues to benefit from a government that is responsive, accountable, and committed to every resident.

Can I count on your support?
