The Glory and the Dream:

Toward Godly Aspiration and Grateful Contentment

“Promise and Time, I”

Ecclesiastes 3:1-11; Ephesians 5:16; Genesis 12ff.

Take a first look.

William Wordsworth, Ode: Intimations of Immortality from Recollections of Early Childhood. Lines 51-57, and C. S. Lewis Surprised by Joy: The Shape of My Early Life

Take a closer look at Promise and Time from Scripture: Ecclesiastes 3:1, et al.

I. We Must Learn to Discern both _____ and _____.

1. There is a longing for the _____ in every heart.
Ecclesiastes 3:1-11.

2. Temporary things are merely _____ and can be enjoyed only as such. Ecclesiastes 12:13-14

3. But we must live in the _____ of time.

4. Time and _____ belong to God, and we must seek to take this into account each day. Chronos represented time measured by the clock. Kairos denoted time as an occasion rather than as an event. Ephesians 5:15f.

II. Chronos and Kairos: A Biblical Example: _____ the Father of Faith. Genesis 12ff.

1. The _____ of God to Abraham was amazing!

2. The passing of _____ was hard to endure.

3. The lack of any _____ fulfillment of the promise tested Abraham's faith.

Take it home (applications).

I. God is at work in our lives and in His world on His _____.

II. We must _____ Him.

Sunday Bible Study
Sunday Worship

9:00 a.m.
10:15 a.m.

Welcome Guests!

If you are our guest, please fill out the Welcome slip in the chair-back and make it your offering today in the box in the foyer. We consider our offering an opportunity for our members and those who attend regularly to support the work of the Lord through Chestnut Street Baptist Church. Also, stop by the table in the foyer after worship for a special gift just for our first-time guests. If you did not bring a Bible of your own, feel free to borrow one of ours, tucked under a chair near you. For your device, we recommend the YouVersion Bible app.
