The Glory and the Dream

“Where Godly Aspiration Meets Grateful Contentment”

2 Samuel 7:1-29; Philippians 3:12-16; 4:10-13

I. Godly ambition meets grateful contentment when we affirm God's _____ over our lives and over the flow of history. 2 Samuel 7:1-29; 1 Chronicles 17:1-27

1. King David learned both to _____ God wholeheartedly and to be grateful for whatever God allowed Him to accomplish.

2. God allowed David to establish his rule over Israel, but God did not allow David to build the _____.

3. David's response was to _____ God with gratefulness. 2 Samuel 7:18-29; 1 Chronicles 17:16-27.

II. Godly ambition meets grateful contentment when we offer God our _____ and trust Him for the outcome. Philippians 3:12-16; 4:10-13.

1. We must “_____ on” to “make our own” the reason why God “made us His own.” Philippians 3:12-16. Why has God taken me as His own? How then should I live as one who belongs to the living God?

2. We must learn to be _____ for all God has provided thus far in our journey. Philippians 4:10-13.

III. Godly ambition meets grateful contentment when we remember that God is most interested in shaping our _____ as His people. Philippians 2:12-13

Godly character leads to action that values the _____ over the temporary.

IV. Godly ambition meets grateful contentment when we trust God over _____ to accomplish His good will. Genesis 15:13-16; Luke 4:16-21; Acts 1:6-11

1. We must learn to believe in the _____ of God. Romans 8:18, 28, 39.

2. We must learn to believe in the _____ of God. Genesis 15:13-16; Jeremiah 29:11.

Welcome Guests!

If you are our guest, please fill out the Welcome slip in the chair-back and make it your offering today in the box in the foyer. We consider our offering an opportunity for our members and those who attend regularly to support the work of the Lord through Chestnut Street Baptist Church. Also, stop by the table in the foyer after worship for a special gift just for our first-time guests. If you did not bring a Bible of your own, feel free to borrow one of ours, tucked under a chair near you. For your device, we recommend the YouVersion Bible app.

This Week's Announcements

Mission Opportunity Late Summer

Our Missions Team is partnering with Solid Rock Church in Grants Pass, Oregon, to work with Helping Hands International in Baja, Mexico, August 23-29. Here is a QR code where you can find all the information about the trip. William Woody is pastor of Solid Rock Church. The program with Helping Hands is coordinated with YWAM (Youth With A Mission). Bryce Harmsen is our Missions Team Chair.

Spring Missions Offering for Short-Term Fund

Our Spring Missions Offering will go into our Short-Term Missions Fund this year, according to the church in our recent business meeting. The Short-term Missions Fund is available to all members who go on short-term mission trips. The fund is administered by our Missions Team.

Calling All Youth!

The Spring Student Conference will be on Friday, May 8-9, at the Pathway Church in Gresham, OR. It will cost $35 per student (includes conference fee, Saturday breakfast and lunch, and a T-shirt). Please get this to Aren by Wednesday, April 1, to register and plan for transportation.

Spring Break Mission Trip

Please keep in your prayers Pastor Jeremy and others in our NW Collegiate Ministries (NCM) group who are serving God this week in disaster recovery work in NW Washington State. They will also be sharing worship with a church in the area near/in Bellingham. Pray for health, safety, Christian witness, good fellowship, and personal growth for all who are going. May God bless them for giving their Spring Break to serving God and others.
