LITURGY MEANS THE WORK OF THE CHURCH!

And... the musicians of our church literally worked on a new setting of liturgical music that we will use the rest of this Pentecost season. We are very thankful to have been able to offer this gift together to God on behalf of our congregation!!

So... let's learn this well together and SING BOLDLY!!

All Saints Sunday

Sunday, November 4

If you have a loved one who died between November 2017 and this year, and would like to have them honored during this service please contact the office by October 29.

A colleague of mine recently shared what I thought was a powerful and meaningful experience he had in his very small congregation in a rural Minnesota town of about 100. Relatively recently, the congregation decided to meet on Wednesday instead of Sunday ... the only Sunday worship they have is during Lent! The schedule is very similar to what we do at Good Shepherd. There is a meal at 5:30pm with worship at 6:30pm. The decision to make this change was primarily driven by their desire to invest in the lives of the children in their community.

A typical Wednesday starts around 4:30pm with the children showing up and just hanging out. On a particular Wednesday at about 6:20pm, the children approached Pastor Jeff and told him a new family had just moved in down the street. "Can we see if they want to come for dinner and church tonight?" Pastor Jeff agreed (of course) and off they went, returning shortly with the children of the household. The attendance that evening was 38, fifteen of whom were children ... and much to the delight of the mostly 75+ years old adults!

To quote another colleague, "Holy WOW!"

But it gets even better!! The meals on Wednesday nights are usually potluck, and there was one 8-year-old boy who showed up faithfully every week by himself for the meal and worship. He felt bad that he could not bring any food to share with the assembled group. So, he wrote a letter to the church council asking if he could have permission to plant a small garden on the property that he could tend and then give the food to the church? I can't wait to hear what happens, and I sure do hope that church council is listening and paying attention to the voices and actions of this emerging group of young leaders ... and I hope someone helps Austin build his raised vegetable garden and grow things, and that his produce will be shared generously for years to come! That one seemingly small thing might even change the whole community!

Do we listen well? Are we paying attention? Nothing is impossible when God is involved, and we become God's hands and feet in our community and beyond!

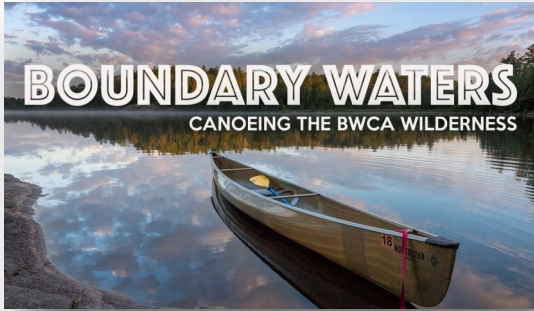

I've asked the following question often over the last 20+ years of pastoral ministry: "What would you be willing to do to make sure that your grandchildren have a living, breathing faith that works in real life?"

Hopefully we're willing to do most anything in order to cultivate and pass on a faith that not only changes lives but changes the world around us.

Imagine what might happen if we suspended judgment and tuned in even a little bit more to the ways emerging generations are already expressing their faith?

Peace ... Pastor Kemp

In early July, four youth and two adults from the congregation had the opportunity to spend time in the remote area of northern Minnesota known as the Boundary Waters Canoe Area (BWCA). With no running water, electricity, or cellphone service [yes, we survived even the need to truly unplug!] we canoed, camped, spent time together in the Word, learned some new skills (and in many cases learned simply that we could!), caught our first fish in many, many years, hunkered down in tents together during the rain playing games and just 'being', and more! Below is a short report from each participant of one or two aspects of the adventure that stood out to him/her. The group will share more live on Sunday, September 22 at the 10:30am worship service - join us then to hear more about the impact this experience provided, and what each person hopes to continue to develop and share in the world around us! The goal of the Faith Trip was to help each of us grow a bit in our faith - we're confident that everyone did that! The challenge, of course, is to stay the course back in the 'real-world'. We welcome your help in supporting us (and everyone, frankly!), as we all continue our faith journeys, for it's far more successful and enjoyable when we share the journey!

[Katie]

While on the Boundary Waters faith trip this past July, I came to discover a few things. I did my best to just appreciate the small things around me on the trip and expand my appreciation of God's beautiful creations. I also gained an understanding of where prayer can occur. I now realize that prayer does not have to always have to occur in a particular environment, and instead can occur in multiple different places in different ways that may feel less traditional.

Through the various experiences in the Boundary Waters, I now feel as though my faith has been strongly impacted and as a result I hope to continue to strengthen my faith.

[Max]

One of my goals for the Boundary Waters faith trip was to strengthen my connection with God. The trip taught me that even in the vast environment of the Boundary Waters, God is always with me.

[Malory]

Within the days in the boundary waters I learned and observed many things. I understood how quiet nature really is, it was surreal yet so beautiful. Beauty was something easily found in the boundary waters when the water was calm, when colors painted the sky, when we went fishing, when animals spoke either on the water or on land, when stars littered the sky, and in many other ways. Not only was beauty easily found, so was God. God was seen within the natural waterways, the natural food sources (for example fish), the natural peacefulness, when God waters the earth with rain, and then the calm that comes after the storm. The beauty that God had made was very easy to see within the boundary waters. After the boundary waters trip, it is very easy to see God within normal items. Normal items like water, trees, the stars, the painted sky, the golden sun, the flowers growing from the ground, and the little birds that sit in the tree. I can hear God within the silence and yet can still hear him within the loudness and craziness of the world. After going to the boundary waters I will do my best to preserve his beauty, I will help to reduce my carbon footprint in as many ways as I can. This will help to ensure his beauty will be preserved for future generations. Because I believe that everyone should go to the boundary waters at least once in their life. It is such an amazing place to experience. Time does not exist in the boundary waters, neither do the stressfulness of the world, or the distractions of phones.

[Miranda]

Over the few days we were out in the Boundary Waters, I can officially say I mastered living out in God's beautiful creation. I very much enjoyed spending time with each of the people on the trip. I got to be away from everything for a while. I got to spend time with people I care about, I had great food to energize myself throughout the week, and I was surrounded by such beauty, and it was all I needed to get me through the week!

[Tim]

Psalm 9:1 says O Lord, our Sovereign, how majestic is your name in all the earth! Spending the week in the pristine wilderness of the Boundary Waters, watching eagles fly over us each day and working as a tight-knit family to care for ourselves with no outside help, assured me that God was in control. I was free to worship and pray each morning and evening without the burden of a daily grind schedule. I intend to set aside more time, away from schedules and commitments, to be with God in a quiet, still setting. I will also encourage others to find a place to do the same. And I was pleased to spend those days with each of the incredible people on the Faith Trip with me!

[Jenn]

As an adult leader for this faith-focused trip, I felt a great deal of responsibility for helping to support the faith-growth opportunity for everyone. In addition to having a scripture verse selected for them, each participant established and shared with the travel group at least two personal goals before we embarked. Mine included to 'be still' ("...know that I am God, Psalm 46:10) and feel God's presence in the quiet world around me, and then to share that presence with the rest of our travel team. Anyone who knows me will smile [possibly laugh!] at the thought that I can be still! But I was. And it was amazing! I found myself relishing the calm it brought me, which I believe I was able to pass along at least a few times when others needed a moment of quiet.

Once again, I was awed at the depth of sharing that our youth offered during devotion times. They brought fresh perspectives and applied the faith conversations to today's world. I also loved watching them grow in their comfort of public prayer. That's not easy for many people, so to hear them do so with growing confidence was extremely rewarding. I won't lie, I felt the puff of a proud 'mom' so often during our time together.

I was frequently inspired by the ways that all of us supported one another with both words and actions! From sharing thoughts on photography, to tending the fire, managing fish in the bottom of the boat, and tying "boy scout knots", all interacted extremely well for the close quarters we shared for four-plus days! And just for a chuckle, ask Max what I learned about "listening to people". For he was absolutely right! As was Tim when he suggested before we left that we, as the adults, would most certainly learn something on the trip from the youth! I know I did. And for that I am forever grateful!

I thank you, Good Shepherd family, for granting me the opportunity to accompany our youth on an absolutely incredible, faith-growing, strength-affirming, outdoor experience like none I've ever had!

I live to inspire and serve and learn, and I was able to do all of that and more in the beautiful Boundary Waters Canoe Area of northern Minnesota.

Again, Thank you!!

SOCIAL CONCERNS GOD'S WORK. OUR HANDS.

The Catholic Charities will be opening soon and they will be in need of many items and funds to provide for the most basic of needs for our displaced population.

Each night from November-April, individuals are able to receive a hot meal, clean sleep clothes, and alternately, a hot shower or clothes washing. The facilities is supported with many volunteers who help in various ways. We have several volunteers from our own congregation who have shared their valuable time. For more information, contact Catholic Charities or talk with Kartika Putri or Tim Holcomb.

Did you know?

Perhaps you can recall back to May 2006, when Good Shepherd started to collect used ink jet cartridges. We thought you would enjoy a bit of an update...since then, we have recycled thousands of cartridges and collected just under $1,000 ($981.38) for our efforts! Those are items that are not taking up space in the landfills. They have been and are being recycled and repurposed and for our efforts, we have been rewarded financially with $ that has been directed to our ministries!

Thank you, people of Good Shepherd... your small efforts continue to pay off! And the collection box is in the coat room!!

ADVANCE CARE PLANNING PRESENTATION

“ On Wednesday, October 30th at 5:00 PM please join us for a half hour educational session about advance care planning. Leslie Ross, MSSW, CSW Advance Care Planning Coordinator at Marshfield Clinic will present Caring Conversations prior to our Wednesday worship service. Imagine a sudden illness or injury left you unable to communicate. Who would you want to speak for you? What would you want that person to know about your values and wishes regarding health care decisions? Do you understand how to give that person legal authority to make decisions for you. Come and learn about advance care planning and take away helpful handouts and an understanding of advanced care directives. It would be helpful if you would call the church to let us know if you plan on coming so we can have the materials ready for all who attend. If you forget to call we will make sure you get what is provided during the session.

“For I know the plans I have for you, declares the Lord, plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.”

Treasurer's Report– August 2019 Summary

August income was right on budget at $26,500, which is amazing for August. August expenses were $30,000 which was $1000 over budget, this is mainly due to it being a three pay period month, and some equipment maintenance. For the year, our income is now only $7,000 below budget, a marked improvement from a couple of months ago, when we were down over $30,000. What a wonderful demonstration of generosity and commitment to our church and mission. An amazing response to the summer fund drive! Total income is $206,000. Expenses are $15,000 under budget for the year. Things are looking much better! Praise the Lord!

Respectfully submitted,

Tim Logemann, Treasurer

October is Pastor Appreciation Month

Thank you Pastor Kemp, for serving your congregation and encouraging us to GATHER, GROW and GO out into the world with passion together, side by side.

Please remember to offer a prayer and thank you to PK, as we celebrate him this month and all year!

What is SAS:

Stewardship for All Seasons is a process, sponsored by the synod, to help congregations fully live out their mission. Using a nationwide consulting firm, leaders from 14 congregations in our synod learn the most effective ways to help congregations develop effective and inspirational means to encourage people to generously support God's mission through the congregation.

Why are we doing SAS:

Good Shepherd has had a lot of changes in the last few years. SAS helps to focus our efforts on God's work among us and God's call for us. People have the opportunity to give input into this time of discernment. Through SAS we will build a long term, sustainable model for financially supporting God's work in this congregation, proactively working to expand our capacity for ministry.
