

MISS ALABAMA SCHOLARSHIP PARTNERSHIP PROPOSAL

The Miss Alabama Organization offers a strong pipeline of high-achieving, service-oriented candidates who demonstrate communication skills, adaptability, leadership, and the ability to work effectively with diverse populations, qualities aligned with a successful career in Law.

Miss Alabamas In Law

Tiara Pennington – University of Alabama → UA School of Law

Lindsay Fincher – University of Alabama → Harvard Law School

Catherine Crosby – Auburn University → UA School of Law

Ashley Halfman – Birmingham-Southern College → UGA School of Law

Institutional Benefits

- Full-page ad in Miss Alabama program book
- Event tickets and on-stage recognition
- Inclusion in press releases and social media promotion
- Campus visit from Miss Alabama
- Participation in the Miss Alabama scholarship interview process

Scholarship Structure

- Award: Anywhere from $10,000 to a full tuition scholarship
- Eligibility: Admission to UA Law with a minimum LSAT score of ____.

This model ensures the scholarship is awarded only to candidates who meet both academic and admissions standards.

Strategic Context

With the passage of HB 407 (effective June 1, 2026), Miss Alabama is designated as an official state ambassador supporting initiatives in tourism, education, military, and public service. This expands the visibility and reach of the role statewide.

Contact:  rubygtilghman@gmail.com

 (850) 381 4400