Eye of the Tyger: Former Huskies skipper Tyger Pederson accepted a position as the hitting coach of the Palm Beach Cardinals, Class A-Advanced affiliate of the St. Louis Cardinals. Pederson led the Huskies to a stellar 47-25 record in 2018. His career in Duluth was capped with a trip to the Northwoods League Championship, where the Huskies fell one win short of their first title.

Take a Pederson, Leave a Pederson: Stu Pederson, father of former Huskies manager Tyger Pederson, has been hired as the Huskies hitting coach. Pederson was selected in the ninth round of the 1981 draft, and played for twelve years in the Los Angeles Dodgers and Toronto Blue Jays organizations.

Called Up!: It was a dream come true for two former Huskies whose names were called during the 2019 MLB Draft. Pitcher Hunter Bigge, Huskies '18 (Harvard) went in the 12th round as the 372nd overall pick by the Chicago Cubs. Shortstop Nick Sogard, Huskies (Loyola Marymount) also got called in the 12th round as the 368th overall pick to the Tampa Bay Rays.

PROBABLE PITCHERS

8/8 Schuyler Hill

UPCOMING PROMOTIONS

Ford Tough: June 11th's loss to Waterloo was a tough one, but featured an inning of baseball magic as Huskies 2B Lance Ford answered the call of duty to pitch in the 9th inning. Ford surprised the Huskies' faithful with nothing but a swift fastball, hitting a max velocity of 89. Ford used his one and only pitch to strike out the side.

Hogan is a guy you love to root for. Doesn't let a bad game get in his head. Extremely resilient, open-minded player. Unwavering positive attitude and a pleasure to talk with.

Played behind SEC Player of the Year JJ Bleday. Coach Tim Corbin says “[Hogan] is always “on” and dialed in at one speed...100 percent effort all the time.” Played behind J.J. Bleday (SEC Player of the Year)

Plus defensive catcher. Impressive pop time. Developing bat, but very optimistic attitude. Keeps the clubhouse fun and his pitchers very comfortable and loose. Recently transferred to IU for his senior year.

2019: Saw no action at Stanford as a true freshman

Struggling hitter, average defefnder. Hasn't played consistently at all this year. Not sure exactly what's going on with him. He's had a few games where he's made an impact. He doesn't let his numbers hold him back though. Always seems to get back on the horse. May just need some more time to put together an approach that works for him.

Phenomenal late-season pickup. Breakout player from the beginning. Agile defender, good on tough hops. Hit four 2B in the series vs. Waterloo from 7/27-29. Extra base hits galore. Doesn't talk much, but gets along very well with teammates.

Reflects the Virginia baseball program well. Like his teammate Kent, very focused. Never takes opportunities for granted, even textbook fly balls in BP that others may simply let fly by them.

Makes excellent contact with the ball, rarely strikes out. RBI KING in short time with Huskies. No problems hitting for the sacrifice.

Level-headed entertainer. Extremely calm and composed upright stance at the plate. Likes to wait for his pitch. Defensive abilities at 1B have improved over the course of the season.

Has drawn the most walks of anyone on the Huskies.
