

Oncore Communications
&
Utility Construction

NOW HIRING — EXPERIENCED DATA CENTER FIBER OPTIC SPLICER / TESTER with ES7J New Mexico journeyman license.

Oncore Utility Construction & Communications is seeking experienced Fiber Optic Splicers and Testers for data center projects with New Mexico ES7J journeyman license.

We are looking for professionals who understand high-quality fiber installation, splicing, testing, troubleshooting, and documentation in demanding data-center environments.

Preferred Experience:

- Spider web ribbon fiber splicing 200 and 250 microns.
- Troubleshoot using OTDR, power meters and light source.
- Power meter / light source testing.
- Read splice matrix .and test requirements.
- Proper fiber cleaning, inspection, labeling, and documentation
- Data center / mission-critical environment experience.
- Ability to produce accurate test results and closeout documentation.

What We're Looking For:

Dependable, safety-conscious professionals who take pride in producing clean, organized, high-quality fiber work and can meet strict data-center standards.

Travel may be required depending on project location.

(Continued)

Oncore Communications
&
Utility Construction

Competitive compensation based on experience.

Interested candidates should send:

- Name and contact information
- Resume or summary of fiber experience
- Years of splicing/testing experience
- Equipment you are experienced with
- Data center experience
- Current location
- Travel availability

Oncore Utility Construction & Communications, LLC

Apply online at <http://www.oncorecomm.com>

Experienced fiber professionals only.

(End of document)