Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints Lindon, Utah Temple

Janet Olsen was born March 10, 1930, in Blackfoot, Idaho, at a cost of $25.00.

From an entry in her father's journal, he wrote "Our first child was a delightful baby girl and brought a great deal of love and happiness into our home." She says from her earliest recollection, she felt loved and cared for.

She was later joined by a little brother and sister. She had a wonderful childhood and loves her family.

After leaving Blackfoot for her father's work, she lived in Salt Lake City, Washington D.C., San Diego, California and eventually settled in Montebello, California. Growing up in Montebello were some of the happiest times in her life.

She has always been an active member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

Janet enjoyed a lifetime of singing and musical enjoyment. She sang many solos at funerals, school programs and sacrament meetings. She also sang with many choirs.

The most memorable was when she sang the music of the gospel.

She loved school and especially loved to read. She had lots of friends.

After a year of college at Brigham Young University, she served a full-time mission for the church to the Spanish American Mission and learned to speak fluent Spanish. After her mission she met her husband Ray Olsen and they settled in Rigby, Idaho, and had 4 children, two sons and two daughters.

After her youngest child started college, Janet went back to college and earned her bachelor's degree in teaching and taught elementary school for 10 years.

Her husband passed away 35 years ago and Janet has led a cheerful, joyful life full of purpose as a widow since then, although suffering immense loneliness.

After she retired, she moved to St. George, Utah, to help care for her mother and soon served another mission in England, serving in the London Temple.

After her dad passed away in St. George, Janet moved back to Rigby near her sons and lived her later years with many friends and enjoyed family.

She has lived the past nine years here in South Jordan, where she is near her two daughters.

Spring is in the Daffodil
Spring is in the Rose
Spring is all around us now
Pausing to repose.
Even clouds are whiter
And the soul a little brighter
Reflecting who is mightier
And it shows.
