CBTU President Emeritus WILLIAM "BILL" LUCY

Ninety. William "Bill" Lucy, our beloved CBTU President Emeritus, turns 90 years old on Nov. 26th. CBTU is honored to host a joyful evening on Dec. 10th to celebrate this milestone birthday. Bill Lucy is a living legend and a global icon. He remains the gold standard for courageous and visionary leadership. In his lifetime, he cofounded CBTU in 1972, marched with Martin Luther King, Jr. in Memphis, helped free Nelson Mandela, and spearheaded labor support for Barack Obama to become the nation's first African American president. Let's Make a Joyful Noise -- Bill Lucy at 90!
