

Advanced Discipleship Training (ADT)

There is a fresh interest in the church today for Christian Discipleship. Many churches and denominations started to realize that there is a need for spiritual formation; therefore some churches increase their budgets and staff for this purpose. Since I love discipleship, this is music to my ears and it makes my heart beat faster. Even though there is a fresh interest for spiritual growth and maturity, there is so much to be done and not enough time.

In the New Testament era, when Jesus said, “make disciples” the apostles understood that Christ’s intent was not simply getting people to believe in Him (convert them), but to help these believers become what Jesus intended for them (disciple them).

According to the Westminster Dictionary of Theological Terms, “a convert is someone who changes from one faith to another.” However, The Great Commission from Matthew 28:19-20 does not say “make converts”, instead it says, “make disciples.” Dallas Willard, professor of philosophy at University of Southern California, in his book The Great Omission, writes, “The last command Jesus gave the church before he ascended to heaven was the Great Commission, the call for Christians to ‘make disciples of all the nations.’ But Christians have responded by making ‘Christians,’ not ‘disciples.’ This has been the church’s Great Omission.”

Dietrich Bonhoeffer, the author of The Cost of Discipleship, considered the lack of discipleship—cheap grace, “the preaching of forgiveness without requiring repentance, baptism without church discipline, communion without confession, absolution without personal confession. Cheap grace is grace without discipleship, grace without the cross, grace without Jesus Christ.”

Upper Room Fellowship Ministry (URFM), a teaching and counseling ministry, known for its efforts in Spiritual Growth & Maturity (SG&M), has set, once again—discipleship, through the Advanced Discipleship Training (ADT), as its highest objective.

URFM, through ADT, provides the environment, the tools, and the teaching so that the Christian Discipleship and Spiritual Growth & Maturity process could take place in the lives of interested individuals, men and women, young and old alike. We must pray that Christians all over the world would get out of their comfort zones, and—be disciplined and make disciples.

So help us God.

The Ultimate Intention

The Ultimate Intention of the Church is:

- ◆ A mature disciple who knows God intimately and personally (John 17:3),
- ◆ A disciple who accepted the discipleship call and carries the cross daily (Luke 9:23, Galatians 2:20),
- ◆ A person whose mind and character are continuously renewed and transformed by the Spirit and the Word of God (Romans 12:2, 2 Corinthians 3:18, Galatians 5:22-23),
- ◆ A disciple who grows and matures into the fullness of Christ (Ephesians 4:11-16, Hebrew 5:11-14, 6:1-3),
- ◆ A mature disciple who, ultimately, multiplies disciples according to the Christ’s and the apostles’ discipleship model (Matthew 28:19-20, 2 Timothy 2:2).
