10:00AM - 10:55AM

Understanding IDIS - Putting it all Together

Consider that...given the trillions already expended to address the COVID-19 crisis, most likely, community development funding could be severely impacted or swept into other budget efforts. What can we do?

It is critically important that community development programs be viewed as KEY to helping to resolve the COVID-19 crisis and its ripple-effects. Moreover, the Consolidated Plan, Annual Action Plan (AAP), Comprehensive Annual Performance Report (CAPER), and all the analyses conducted very strongly highlight all the accomplishments made with these funds, and underscore that any reduction would likely help to reverse the gains being made!

Long-Term Impacts of COVID-19 in our Communities

A discussion about preparing for the long-term impact of higher unemployment, reduced government revenue, health and housing disparities, distressed housing markets, as well as, new ways of doing business, e.g., home inspections, face to face interactions with clients, and other.
