

Q Artists Cooperative
Application for Exhibiting Membership

Q Artists Cooperative is looking for artists whose work and résumé clearly demonstrate professional quality and outstanding workmanship. Applicants must also be willing to abide by the Cooperative's values and bylaws and take on the responsibilities of membership/ownership.

Membership is granted through a juried selection process to ensure high quality art that compliments and enhances the Cooperative's existing body of work. Applicants must value hard work and integrity, work well with others and be committed to their personal development as artists.

Responsibilities of member/owners include sharing gallery staffing duties, and active participation in at least one of the various committees.

If you would like to apply for membership in Q Artists Cooperative, read and complete this entire form, send an email with digital images showing ten to twelve recent examples of your work, or a link to your website. You will be notified of the jury's decision shortly after the committee meeting.
