Insurance

Introduction

This document is intended to give assistance to affiliated clubs and their members in understanding the insurance that the BMC provides. It is not intended as a legal interpretation of BMC insurance and should not be used as such. For full details reference should be made to the policy summary available from Perkins Slade Ltd (www.perkins-slade.com/for-sports/british-mountaineering-council) or the BMC (www.thebmc.co.uk/club-membership).

BMC membership/affiliation includes the following insurance benefits:

- ✓ Civil Liability insurance for the club, all of its members including directors, trustees, officers, honorary members, life members and social members . up to £10,000,000
- ✓ Civil Liability Insurance for Individual members . up to £10,000,000
- ✓ Individual membership includes £10,000 Personal Accident and/or Disability cover
- ✓ Club members can benefit from the Personal Accident and/or Disability cover if they pay the membership upgrade fee
- ✓ BMC Travel insurance cover is also available to club members, along with financial protection, through Summit Financial Services.

1. What is Civil Liability Insurance?

Civil Liability Insurance is a unique policy, available only through Perkins Slade Ltd, and protects clubs against legal liability under Civil Law. A number of traditional Liability Policies are brought together to create one Master Policy providing superior policy coverage. The policy is designed to provide cover whilst undertaking activities recognised by the BMC. The main features of the Policy are:

- [i] Public Liability . Accidental bodily injury to third parties and/or damage to third party property. This section of the policy provides cover for:
 - (a) member to member liability and
 - (b) liability arising out of the sharing of knowledge.
- [ii] Products Liability . Accidental bodily injury to third parties and/or damage to third party property arising out of any goods lent to another person by an Individual or club member or sold or supplied by the club.
- [iii] Libel and Slander . Includes defamation, which is vital in relation to allegations of child abuse.
- [iv] Directors and Officers Liability . Legal Liability protection in respect of negligent mismanagement. The Policy is also extended to protect against liability arising out of the use, ownership or possession of any club premises e.g. mountaineering huts, and includes protection for Trustees.

For information specifically about club huts insurance, please see the Hut Guidelines page on the BMC website - www.thebmc.co.uk/hut-guidelines

No cover is provided for mountaineering/climbing instruction on a commercial basis.

2. What Civil Liability Insurance means for you

- all BMC members

The policy protects you for legal liability following injury or damage to third parties, arising in connection with hill walking, climbing and mountaineering (including ski mountaineering). The limit of indemnity in respect of any claim made during the period of insurance is £10 million. The cover operates worldwide with the exception of USA/Canada, and there is no excess applicable. The cover does not apply to people who are being paid as professional instructors, guides or in a similar professional business capacity.

Liability protection covers you for claims against you for injury or damages caused. You and your assets are protected if you are taken to court, for example, for dislodging a rock that caused injury to someone else and that person sues you.

Club cover includes Directors and Officers liability, which protects committee members in the event of a negligent decision, for which in law they will be personally liable. This is something that the BMC has specifically sought out as standard Public Liability insurance does not include this protection. Cover includes protection for Trustees of clubs.

Premises liability in respect of Club Huts and property owned by the club is automatically included.

3. How could Liability attach to a Club?

- BMC affiliated clubs

Liability can attach to mountaineering clubs under a variety of circumstances, principally under the four heads of cover detailed above, some examples may be:

- [i] A member or third party could be injured by faulty or poorly maintained club premises.
- [ii] If a novice mountaineer sustained injury on a club led climb.
- [iii] A third party may sustain injury as a result of faulty equipment provided by the club.
- [iv] Food poisoning could be suffered by a third party from materials either made or distributed by the club.
- [v] Third parties may take offence to published materials e.g. guidebooks / newsletters / website / social media / online imagery (photographs, video clips)
- [vi] If a rock or debris was dislodged and caused injury or damage to a third party or property when it fell.
- [vii] Should the club become insolvent as the result of negligent mismanagement of finances.
- [viii] Should a landowner's gate be left open and cattle/sheep escape and cause third party injury or damage.
- [ix] A Club may be sued for failure of its duty of care to children or vulnerable adults.

Under all of the above circumstances, the Civil Liability Insurance Policy would provide indemnity to a limit of £10,000,000. Further information on Civil Liability Insurance is available from Perkins Slade Ltd

4. New and Prospective Club Members - BMC affiliated clubs

New members are insured from the day they pay membership to the club, provided that the club clearly records the date of payment (e.g. by using a receipt book). A prospective club member, who may not have paid for club membership, will be insured through the Civil Liability Insurance policy when engaging in a club's activities, for a maximum trial membership period of 3 months, providing that the club has a record of that person's details. To remain insured beyond a trial membership, that person must appear on the club's next quarterly declaration and the appropriate subscription paid to the BMC. At this point the club must collect membership subscriptions, unless that has already been done.

5. Validating Civil Liability Insurance

For BMC Civil Liability Insurance to be valid, an affiliated club must maintain a record of all of its members including directors, trustees, officers, honorary members, life members and social members. Details should be passed to the BMC at the time of renewal, and updated every quarter. (See also 4. New and Prospective Club Members)

Clubs must maintain appropriate membership records and update the BMC on a regular basis with details of new members or changes to details for existing members.

It is not necessary to list club members who live overseas. This is because Civil Liability Insurance cover does not extend to club members who reside outside the UK.

6. Personal Accident Disability Insurance Cover - individual members

This benefit is available to BMC Individual members and to BMC club members who pay the upgrade fee.

Personal Accident cover provides you with compensation if you are unfortunate enough to suffer a permanent injury while you are engaged in one of the activities covered by the policy.

There is no death benefit under the policy or cover for recoverable injuries such as broken limbs. Cover for death and loss of earnings while injured are available separately from Summit Financial Services . contact details on final page.

The Personal Accident Disability benefit is only available to UK residents and only applies when involved in BMC recognised and insured mountaineering activities, e.g. all forms of mountaineering (including ski mountaineering), climbing, walking and abseiling. The cover includes travel to and from these activities within the UK.

7. Reporting an Incident

- all BMC members

All incidents involving injury or damage to a BMC member or a third party must be reported to Perkins Slade as soon as is reasonably practical. This is a requirement under the Civil Justice System in the UK. Please also copy your notification to the BMC office. If you or your club are involved in an incident that could lead to a court case please report the incident immediately. In the case of a possible liability claim, the incident must be notified to Perkins Slade Ltd by the party likely to be sued (e.g. the club, leader, etc.) rather than the injured party. It is important that the party likely to be sued does not admit liability prior to speaking to Perkins Slade. With personal accident claims, the injured party is the claimant and they should report the incident to the Perkins Slade Ltd. Upon receipt of a letter of claim, Perkins Slade should be informed immediately.
