

NICEIC

The NICEIC is the National Inspection Council for Electrical Installation Contracting. As an organisation, the NICEIC provides government-approved accreditation to individuals carrying out electrotechnical work.

Approved Contractors are electrical contractors who have been assessed as competent to carry out electrical work against the requirements of BS 7671

NICEIC domestic installer is a qualified electrician who is registered with the NICEIC and adheres to its strict standards of safety and workmanship.

MCS (Microgeneration Certification Scheme)

The Microgeneration Certification Scheme (MCS) is a mark of quality assurance in the renewable energy sector. The Microgeneration Certification Scheme (MCS) certifies, quality assures and provides consumer protection for microgeneration installations and installers.

RECC (Renewable Energy Consumer Code)

RECC sets out high consumer protection standards for businesses who are selling or leasing renewable energy generation systems to domestic consumers. RECC is approved by Chartered Trading Standards Institute as part of the Consumer Codes Approval Scheme.

TSI (Trading standards Institute UK)

Trading Standards Institute is a professional association which represents and trains trading standards professionals working in local authorities, business, and consumer sectors and in central government in the UK and overseas.

TRUST MARK

Trust Mark is the Government Endorsed Quality Scheme that covers work a consumer chooses to have carried out in or around their home.

IWA (Independent Warranty Association)

Insurance Backed Guarantees & Deposit Protection for your peace of mind in future.

IWA provides the most trusted home improvement Deposit and Guarantee Insurance service.

CONSTRUCTIONLINE GOLD

Constructionline Gold enables you to meet industry standards, such as PAS 91 and the Common Assessment Standard, elevating your reputation as a trusted supplier.

ACCLAIM

Acclaim uses the expertise and knowledge of Capita Property and infrastructure. The accreditation is part of the Constructionline process and enables you to demonstrate your compliance with health and safety legislation and allows you to get pre-qualified and assessed all in one place.

SSIP

Safety Schemes in Procurement (SSIP)

Safety Schemes in Procurement (SSIP) is the mutual recognition scheme for occupational health and safety standards particularly within construction. SSIP facilitates mutual recognition between health and safety pre-qualification schemes saving time, effort, and cost of multiple certifications.

EPC (Energy performance certification)

An Energy Performance Certificate (EPC) rates how energy efficient your building is using grades from A to G (with 'A' the most efficient grade). Energy Performance Certificates (EPC) to assess the energy efficiency of your commercial and residential properties. Since 2008 it has been a legal requirement to have an EPC whether you are selling a property or letting out. If you own a commercial property that you want to sell or lease, you will also need to get an EPC organised.

CITY&GUILDS / EAL

City & Guilds and EAL offer vocational qualifications awarding organisations regulated by government and recognised worldwide. City & Guilds and EAL supporting organisations with workforce development through industry-led skills and training solutions.

BPEC

BPEC is an industry-leading specialist provider of qualifications, assessments, training courses and learning materials, dedicated to providing high-quality training to those who work or are preparing to work, in the Building Services Engineering (BSE) sector.