

Mt Everett Class of 1967 50th Class Reunion

The Great “Huddle-Up” of 2017

It is hard to believe that 50 Years have passed since we graduated from Mt Everett. Some classmates stayed close to their childhood homes, others turned towards new horizons. Today our classmates are in the upper peninsula of Michigan, Oregon, Arizona, the Carolinas, Florida, South Dakota, Maine, Vermont, Virginia, and more.

We will celebrate these journeys and gather to hear the stories of the travelers over two days Friday and Saturday, September 22nd and 23rd, 2017. For those of you that must travel long distances, we have tried to present a relaxing, fun, and interesting experience. It will all begin when we meet at 1:30PM Friday, September 22nd at Mt Everett Regional School. You will be amazed how it has changed in so many beautiful ways. Do you think you can find your classrooms in the old high school, hidden today within the new?

You'll have plenty of free time to travel to the Norman Rockwell Museum for a 3:45PM private tour, just for the Class of 1967. Our Docent(s) will lead us through exhibits of not just classic (Norman) Rockwell, but classic (Andy) Warhol too. Following the tour, you can wander the exhibits after hours or withdraw to the terrace and a reception overlooking the museum grounds. There you'll find beverages and light fare until 7:00PM. After that you'll be free to break off into smaller groups for dinner if you want.

Saturday morning is yours until 10:00AM, when we will gather at Rawson Brook Farm in Monterey. Rawson Brook raises goats, harvests their milk, and produces a widely acclaimed and out of this world cheese – Monterey Chevre. Your host will be the proprietor Susan Sellev. We'll break up around 1:00PM and you'll be free to take one last visit to Beartown State Forest, Campbell Falls, or Mt. Everett – the fire tower is gone.

Later that day, we'll again gather at 6:00PM in Sheffield, this time at Dewey Memorial Hall on Main Street. Relaxation, special guests, and a medley of hors d'oeuvres, beverages, a buffet dinner, and berry cobbler desert. The buffet will open at 7:15PM. After desert is served, it is story-telling time and we are hoping people will share their favorite stories from the good old days as well as from their 50 years of travel on the road of life. Cross your fingers and pray that Norman Stalker will lead the discussions. We'll end the formal discussions around 9:30 and linger as we say “Goodbye until next time.”

Enclosed is a sheet that provides additional details about the event including costs, menu's and details about the Norman Rockwell Museum, Dewey Hall, Rawson Brook Farm, the new Mt. Everett.

In closing, I want to emphasize the obvious: 50 years is a very long time, we are not getting any younger, and given we have gathered once every 10 or 20 years, some of us might not be able to attend the next one. Do yourself a favor and stand up one more time for the Class of 1967, huddle with old friends, share one of the local cultural highlights, visit an amazing farm, share stories, and have some fun.

Please come,
