These Core Values are used to guide members, as collectively defined in Article III Section 4 (the “Member”), in their actions, conduct, priorities, and decision making as it relates to a Member’s participation in and interactions associated with GMYC.

GMYC Core Values

- Fun & Enjoyment: It is GMYC’s primary goal to provide an environment for all Members to enjoy the hobby and the sport of remote control (R/C) sailing. The measurement of success for this element is the willingness of Members to invite friends and neighbors to participate and join the club activities.
- Sportsmanship, respect, and fair play: GMYC shall maintain an environment of good sportsmanship, respectfulness, and fair play honoring “The Corinthian Spirit”.
- Safety: GMYC values the safety of all its Members. Every effort should be made to ensure that each Member remains safe while sailing at the sailing venue. It is the responsibility of all Members to look out for themselves, as well as their fellow Members.
- Ease of entry: GMYC strives to make new Members feel welcome and interested in the sport of R/C sailing and competition.
- Education: GMYC maintains a continuous learning environment for all levels in competitive sailing and model boat building.
- Social: Social events center on sailing activities that are held for the enjoyment of all Members, including family and friends.
- Competition: Organized fleet racing is the mainstay of GMYC’s environment. Racing is done primarily for fun, while being respectful of Member’s wide range of abilities and interests.

Appendix A: Basic Robert's Rules of Order

Parliamentary procedures using basic Roberts Rules of Order to conduct orderly meetings, consider motions, and accomplish goals fairly. In the case of conflict, ambiguity, or uncertainty between these Rules of Order and the GMYC By-Laws, the GMYC By-Laws shall prevail.

Benefits of parliamentary procedure include:

- Justice and courtesy for all
- Maintenance of order
- Consideration of one (1) item at a time
- All sides get heard
- Ability for each member to provide input
- Majority rule
- Protection of the rights of all members including the minority

Basic Definitions

Motion — A formal proposal made to bring a subject before an assembly for its consideration and action. Begins with "I move that..."

Second — A statement by a member who agrees that the motion made by another member be considered, stated as "Second," or "I second the motion."

Amendment — Before the vote is taken on a motion, it may be amended by:

- Striking out words.
- Inserting or adding words.
- Striking out words and inserting others in their place.
- Substituting one (1) paragraph for another.

Quorum — The minimum number of Officers who must be present in order to conduct business.

The quorum requirements may be found in the By-Laws.

Presiding Chair —The officer facilitating the meeting, usually the Commodore.

Basic Principles

- All members have equal rights, privileges, and obligations.
- No person can speak until recognized by the Presiding Chair.
- Personal remarks during debate are out of order.
- Only one (1) question at a time may be considered, and only one (1) person may have the floor at any time.
- Members have a right to know what the immediately pending question is and to have it restated before a vote is taken.
- Full and free discussion of every main motion is a basic right.
- A quorum must be present for business to be conducted.
- A majority decides a question.
- Silence gives consent. Those who do not vote allow the decision to be made by those who do vote.
- The Presiding Chair should always remain impartial.

Role of the Presiding Chair

- To remain impartial during debate — the Presiding Chair must relinquish the Chair in order to debate the merits of a motion and may not chair the meeting again until after a vote has been taken on the motion has been disposed of.
- To vote only to create or break a tie.
- To introduce business in proper order per the agenda.
- To recognize speakers.
- To determine if a motion is in order.
- To keep discussion germane to the pending motion.
- To maintain order.
- To put motions to a vote and announce results.

General procedure for Handling a Main Motion

- A member must obtain the floor by being recognized by the Presiding Chair.
- Member makes a main motion.
- A motion must be seconded by another member before it can be considered.
- If the motion is in order, the Presiding Chair will restate the motion and open debate.
- The maker of a motion has the right to speak first in debate.
- The main motion is debated along with any secondary motions that are debatable.
- Debate on Subsidiary, Privileged and Incidental motions (if debatable or amendable) take precedence over debate on the main motion and must be decided before debate on the main motion can continue.
- Debate is closed when:
 - Discussion has ended, or
 - A 2/3 vote closes debate ("call the previous question" or "call the question").
- The Presiding Chair restates the motion, and if necessary clarifies the consequences of affirmative and negative votes.
- The Presiding Chair calls for a vote by asking "All in favor?" Those in favor say "Aye." Then asking "Opposed?" Those opposed will say "no."
- The Presiding Chair announces the result.

General Rules of Debate

- No member may speak until recognized by the Presiding Chair.
- All discussion must be relevant to the immediately pending question.
- No member can speak more than three (3) minutes or as decided by members.
- Speak clearly and concisely.
- Be courteous and respectful.
- All remarks must be addressed to the Presiding Chair — no cross debate is permitted.
- It is not permissible to speak against one's own motion (but one can vote against one's own motion).
- Debate must address issues not personalities — no one is permitted to make personal attacks or question the motives of other speakers.
- The Presiding Chair must relinquish the chair in order to participate in debate and cannot reassume the chair until the pending main question is disposed of.

- When possible, the Presiding Chair should let the floor alternate between those speaking in support and those speaking in opposition to the motion.
- Members may not disrupt the assembly.
- Obey these rules of debate.

Example of Handling a Main Motion

- Member rises and addresses the Presiding Chair: "Madam/Mister Commodore" (or title).
- Commodore recognizes member (by title or name).
- Member makes the motion: "I move that..."
- Another member seconds the motion (without recognition): "Second" or "I second the motion."
- Commodore states the motion and opens debate: "It is moved and seconded that..." "Is there any debate?" or "Are you ready for the question?"
- Commodore recognizes member(s) wishing to speak.
- After debate concludes the Commodore restates the motion and puts the question to a vote. "The question is on the motion to..."
- Those in favor of the motion say "aye." Those opposed say "no."
- Commodore announces the result of the vote and what action will be taken. The "ayes/no" have it, and the motion is adopted/lost" or "We will (state action to be taken).
- Commodore continues with the next business in order.

Common methods of taking a vote

- General consent: "If there is no objection, we will..." or "Since there is no objection, we will..."
- Voice vote: "As many as are in favor, say "aye." As many opposed, say "no." The "ayes/noes" have it and the motion is adopted/lost."
- Rising vote: "Those in favor will raise your hand." A count is taken. "Those opposed will raise your hand." A count is taken.
- Thank you. There is a majority (or 2/3) in the affirmative and the motion is adopted." or "There is less than a majority (or 2/3) in the affirmative and the motion is lost."

Methods of Amending

- By striking out: "I move to amend the motion by striking out the word [WORD]."

- By inserting: "I move to amend the motion by inserting the word [WORD] after the word 'WORD' and [if applicable] before the period."
- By striking out and inserting: "I move to amend the motion by striking out the word [WORD] and inserting the word [WORD]."

Helpful terminology

- Recommendations, By-Laws, rules, resolutions, budgets, and audits are adopted.
- Reports are filed.
- Resignations are accepted.
- Minutes are approved.
- If corrections were made to the minutes, the minutes are then approved as corrected.
- Secretary Treasurer's statement is neither approved nor adopted; but after questions are answered regarding any item as reported, it is placed on file for audit as stipulated in the By-Laws.
- Motions are recorded as "adopted" or "lost."
- That motions be put in writing (dated and signed). Add note on the slips whether the motion was passed.
